In Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells about a king who keeps inviting guests to his son's wedding feast until he fills the hall. Matthew dwells on the fate of the guests who refuse the king's invitation. In catechism we focused on the desire of the king to share his happiness with everyone around him. The full version of this parable cites Psalm 118, regarding the stone rejected by the builders that became the cornerstone. This was a prophecy of Christ's Resurrection. The king in the parable is God the Father who wants to share the happiness of knowing his Son, Jesus, with all.

CONNECTING SCRIPTURE AND DOCTRINE
God invites all people to belong to his family, the Church. He wants all people to share in the great feast of the Eucharist. Receiving Holy Communion at Mass prepares us to sit at God's banquet table in Heaven and is a real participation now in that eternal liturgy. CCC, 1326. "Those who receive the Eucharist are united more closely to Christ. Through it Christ unites them to all the faithful in one body—the Church" (CCC, 1396)

SACRAMENTAL BAPTISMAL CLASSES

Please contact the Parish Office at 575-445-9763
For more information.

Heavenly Father, in Your love for us, protect against the wickedness of the devil, those helpless little ones to whom You have given the gift of life. Touch with pity the hearts of those women pregnant in our world today who are not thinking of motherhood. Help them to see that the child they carry is made in Your image, as well as theirs, made for eternal life. Dispel their fear and selfishness and give them true womanly hearts to love their babies and give them birth and all the needed care that a mother can give. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen (EWTN Catholic Online, Catholic Doors)
