God Who Calls

There is no page of Scripture on which the theme of vocation does not appear in some way. "In the beginning, God calls the creatures to existence" (Wis 11:25). He calls Abraham, Moses and the prophets and gives them a mission to bring to fruition, a plan of salvation to be realized.

Understanding these vocations is to discover the plan that God has for each of his creatures, and of every person. Nobody and nothing is useless: every person, every being has a function, a job to do. "God has called us with a holy calling" (2 Tim 1:9).

What is important is to listen and discover where God wants to lead each one and "to live the vocation you have received" (Eph 4:1)

Jesus is the Light of the whole world and the Lamb of God. He wants every person to experience the truth, the love and the freedom of the Gospel.

The mission of Jesus is also our mission. Our duty is not only to save our own souls and "go to heaven". Our duty is also to share our faith with others, help them to know Jesus and his Gospel, and to experience directly the love of God.

The Office will be closed on Friday, December 31

“We cannot have peace on Earth, unless we have peace with the Earth.”

Pachamama Alliance

At a White House Conference on the relationship of religion to race relations, a Native American Chief stood to share his wisdom. He said softly, “I have spent my life teaching our children to say ‘thank you’: Thank you for the grass. Thank you for the rain. Thank you for the stranger. Thank you for all the people of the world. I think that if we learn to say ‘thank you’ for everything, we will come to realize its value, to respect it, to see it as sacred.”

A simple speech that reminds us what the Scriptures really mean when they tell us to “make straight the way of God.” Christmas calls us to look at everyone and everything as a revelation of God. As gift. As sacred. And to shout “thank you” for everything.

Christmastime reminds us that one of the greatest stewardship activity is to be good parents. The love of parents for their children is a constant reminder of the love of God for us.

St. Vincent de Paul

Today is the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, and so we can celebrate that we all belong to the holy family of God which makes us brothers and sisters to each other.

As we celebrated this joyous Christmas season and Christmas Day yesterday, we as the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, celebrated you as the generous people who help us serve the needy of our community. Thank you so much for your time, talent and treasure.

We were able to offer a wonderful Christmas party for the children of our community. We were able to give the children and their parents joy in a celebration of the birth of Jesus. They each received a special gift, activity bags, a blanket, stuffed animal, sweets and a visit with Santa and Mrs. Santa as they traveled through our luminaria lite pathway through Bethlehem.

Hundreds of hours went into the planning and execution of this event and we thank all of our wonderful Vincentians who give so freely of their time as well as those in our parish and community who donated gifts and also helped with the party. A special thank you to our parish youth who helped us on the day of the party.

This week we distributed Christmas food boxes to families who were in need and again we thank you for all of the donations of turkeys and various food items. You clearly helped us make Christmas more special for these families. God Bless you during this Christmas season for thinking of others in your daily life and sharing with them.

Eucharistic Adoration Can Transform Our Church

“The truth is that sitting in silence with the Lord is necessary for a fruitful Catholic life. I want all Catholics to know that we don’t need to be afraid to spend time in silence with Jesus — that He’s waiting to love us and transform our hearts and lives.”

—Bishop James D Conley, Lincoln, Neb.

Feast of the Holy Family: Jesus, Mary and Joseph

December 26, 2021

The devotion to the Holy Family was born in Bethlehem, together with the Baby Jesus. The shepherds went to adore the Child and, at the same time, they gave honor to His family. Later, in a similar way, the three wise men came from the East to adore and give honor to the newborn King with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh that would be safeguarded by His family.

We can go further to affirm that in a certain sense Christ, Himself, was the first devotee of His family.

He showed His devotion to His mother and foster father by submitting Himself, with infinite humility, to the duty of filial obedience towards them. Today's celebration demonstrates Christ's humility and obedience with respect to the fourth commandment, whilst also highlighting the loving care that His parents exercised in His keeping. Saint Pope John Paul II, in 1989, entitled his Apostolic Exhortation, 'Redemptoris Custos' (Guardian of the Redeemer) which was dedicated to the person and the mission of Saint Joseph in the life of Christ and of the Church. Almost intuitively, one can recognize that the mysterious, exemplary, guardianship enacted by Joseph was conducted firstly, in a yet more intimate way, by Mary. Consequently, the liturgical feast of the Holy Family speaks to us of the fond and loving care that we must render to the Body of Christ. We can understand this in a mystical sense, as guardians of the Church, and also in the Eucharistic sense. Mary and Joseph took great care of Jesus' physical body. Following their example, we can and must take great care of His Mystical Body, the Church, and the Eucharist which He has entrusted to us. If Mary was, in some way, 'the first tabernacle in history' (Saint Pope John Paul II Ecclesia de Eucharistia, n. 55) then we the Tabernacle in which Our Lord chose to reside in person, in His Real Presence, was also entrusted to us. We can learn from Mary and Joseph! What would they ever have overlooked in the care of Jesus' physical body? Is there something, therefore, that we can withhold for the right and adoring care of His Eucharistic Body? No amount of attention, no sane act of love and adoring respect will ever be too much! On the contrary, our adoration and respect will always be inferior to the great gift that comes to us in the Holy Eucharist.

Looking at the Holy Family, we see the love, the protection, and the diligent care that they gave to the Redeemer. We can not fail to feel uneasiness, perhaps a shameful thought, for the times in which we have not rendered the appropriate care and attention to the Blessed Eucharist. We can only ask for forgiveness and do penance for all the sacrilegious acts and the lack of respect that are committed in front of the Blessed Eucharist. We can only ask the Lord, through the intercession of the Holy Family of Nazareth, for a greater love for their Son Incarnate, who has decided to remain here on earth with us every day until the end of time.

Oración de gratitud al terminar el año

“Señor, Dios, dueño del tiempo y de la eternidad, tuyo es el hoy y el mañana, el pasado y el futuro. Al terminar este año queremos darte gracias por todo aquello que recibimos de ti. Gracias por la vida y el amor, por las flores, el aire y el sol, por la alegría y el dolor, por cuanto fue posible y por lo que no pudo ser. Te ofrecemos cuanto hicimos en este año, el trabajo que pudimos realizar, las cosas que pasaron por nuestras manos y lo que con ellas pudimos construir. Hoy te pido para mí y los míos la paz y la alegría, la fuerza y la prudencia, la claridad y la sabiduría. Quiero vivir cada día con optimismo y bondad llevando a todas partes un corazón lleno de comprensión y paz. Cierra tú mis oídos a toda falsedad y mis labios a palabras mentirosas, egoístas, mordaces o hirientes. Abre en cambio mi ser a todo lo que es bueno, que mi espíritu se llene sólo de bendiciones y las derrame a mi paso. Amén.”

Familia Parroquial pensando en ofrecer una misa para sus seres queridos? Les pedimos llamar a nuestras oficinas lo antes posible ya que las fechas se ocupan rápido, ya que antes de misa nos es imposible hacerlo, les agradecemos su comprensión.
