The Teaching Power of Jesus

In today's Gospel we hear of the reactions of people on encountering Jesus when they were gathered as a community: they encountered Him as a brother, as a unique teacher, and as the Holy One of God. A true prophet speaks with authority because it is God Who speaks through him.

Jesus was recognized as a person of authority because of the word that He spoke and the good deeds that He did for others. Ultimately, His authority was rooted in the Spirit of God that descended upon him at His baptism.

God's life-giving, liberating power was working through Jesus, and, so, He was recognized by others as authoritative. The power of God's love working through Him gave Him that authority which people found so attractive and so new.

We are happy to submit to His authority, to His lordship, because we recognize that in doing so we will have life to the full, and, like the man in the gospel, be freed of those spirits that prevent us from becoming the person God intends us to be. Man can be freed from all the evil forces by the power of Jesus.

Our Lord's words awake trust and make fear disappear. His parables attract toward God's love, not toward a blind submission to the Law. His presence makes liberty grow, not slavery; He raises up love for life, not resentment. Jesus heals because He teaches us to live only out of goodness, forgiveness, and love that excludes no one.

NEXT WEEK,
JANUARY 16, AT THE 9:00AM MASS,
BISHOP NEVARES
WILL BE PRESENT TO CELEBRATE THE RETIREMENT
DEACON TONY

AFTER 49 YEARS SERVING THE PARISH.
THERE WILL BE A SMALL RECEPTION
IN THE FORUM IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING
THE MASS IN ORDER TO PROVIDE AN OPPORTUNITY FOR PARISHIONERS TO WISH
DEACON TONY AND HIS WIFE DIXIE
WELL AND TO THANK HIM FOR HIS MANY YEARS
OF DEDICATED SERVICE TO THE PARISH.

MISSION

"Being the living example of God's love to others"

VISION

"Our Parish is a sacred home in which our highest dreams and aspirations are nourished by the Eucharist and our actions are guided by God's word, for His disciples to grow in holiness."

"We joyfully share our life in Christ, with everyone in our Parish, with all those actively seeking Our Lord's love, enlightenment and forgiveness and with the larger community in which we live."

This sacred home is inspired by the Holy Spirit and His constant presence is alive, welcoming, relevant, reverent and prayerful."

VALUES

Catholic Spirituality:

The formation of each disciple to grow in the love of God and neighbor by imitating Christ and being guided constantly by the Holy Spirit.

Respect:

Treating others and one's self, in ways that embrace each person's intrinsic worth and enhance each person's self-esteem.

Compassion:

Recognizing the suffering of others and acting in ways as Jesus would to ease that suffering.

Accountability:

God's gift of free will to each of us means that we are responsible for our actions, decisions and their consequences.

Stewardship:

Being grateful to God and sharing one's God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure with our parish and the needy.

Hospitality:

Everyone should feel at ease in our presence. When we serve others we are serving Christ, so we dedicate ourselves to the friendly and gracious reception and treatment of visitors, strangers and the needy.

That Man is You!

Spring Semester Commences January 22, 2022

That Man Is You is a weekly two semester men's program hosted by Sacred Heart Parish that combines scripture, solid secular research and a little fun to address the pressures and temptations facing men in our modern culture. Our program started in September 2021, and we will be commencing our Spring Semester January 22, 2022. The Spring program will continue developing personal moral and spiritual leadership. It will tie in with references to the liturgical calendar of the Lenten and Easter seasons.

Men attending the last semester have been extremely pleased by the content of the program, small group dialogue and fellowship that is part of every week's gathering. These men and the Core Team feel this program brings a unique opportunity for men of our Parish to enhance and grow in their spiritual lives and thus their lives in general.

Meetings are each Saturday morning from 7:30am until 9:00 am in the school gym. Coffee and light snacks provided. There is no fee for this program. Free offerings will be accepted but are not required.

DISCIPLESHIP

*(After Jesus' baptism), a voice came from heaven,
"You are my Son, the Beloved;
with you I am well pleased."*

Luke 3:22

Each of us is God's beloved daughter and son; each of us is God's steward of creation, of our world and all its inhabitants; with each of us, we hope God is well pleased.

"Those committed to care for the earth are fulfilling a sacred task."

Thomas Berry

Many of us already do things to help preserve and protect the planet and all its creatures. We recycle using curbside service. We use reusable bags. Perhaps we compost organic waste at the Prescott Farmers Market on Saturdays. We may try to drive responsibly by consolidating trips, buying fuel-efficient vehicles, or even electric! But have you given serious thought to the planetary effects of what you eat, and made changes that will protect not only the earth and surrounding waters but also your health and the well-being of generations to come? Here's one disturbing statistic that may help to put it all in perspective: In 1900, two-thirds of our protein came from plant foods. By 1985, that was reversed, with more than two-thirds coming primarily from beef cattle. Thankfully, Prescott has many resources to help us make our diets more sustainable, from the excellent food choices at the Prescott Farmers Market to Slow Food Prescott, which champions school gardens and sustainable food. Take some time in this new year to research these and other resources to help you make better food choices for yourself and the planet, too. Care for the earth is definitely a sacred task.

Baptism of Our Lord

"This is My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased."

Are you considering making known the love of our Heavenly Father as a priest, deacon, sister or brother?

Contact the Vocation Office at:

(602) 354-2005 or email: dphx.org/vocations

St. Vincent de Paul

After Jesus was baptized He saw the spirit of God descending like a dove and a voice was heard "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased".

As we give to the poor, we also can hear these same words. As you help those who are suffering, know in your heart the truth of the words: You are my beloved with whom I am well pleased.

We can't thank you enough for all the gifts that you bestow on the less fortunate in our community through your gifts to St. Vincent de Paul. God Bless you in this new year.

People Who Care Volunteer Informational Meeting

January 19th – 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm

PEOPLE WHO CARE OFFICE

147 GROVE AVENUE — 928-445-2480

People Who Care volunteers provide caring non-medical assistance for adults unable to drive due to age-related and/or physical limitations. This allows an individual to continue living in their own homes and remain independent as long as safely possible.

People Who Care is a community-based nonprofit with programs in Prescott, Prescott Valley, Dewey and Chino Valley. Volunteers help in the community where they and enrolled Neighbors live. The majority of our Neighbors live alone.

People Who Care offers volunteer assistance with a one to one situation by helping with:

- transportation to healthcare/business appointments
- grocery shopping – shopping for – on-line grocery shopping – grocery delivery
- personal paperwork
- Visiting, phoning
- caregiver relief, and more
- Technical Assistance – i.e., cell phones, lap tops, computers

Reaching out and assisting our Neighbors is a "feel good" opportunity for both the person volunteering and the one receiving the volunteer assistance. For your consideration you may call the Prescott office as listed above to enroll.

No better gift than the smile from a grateful heart!

Eucharistic Adoration Can Transform Our Church

"The truth is that sitting in silence with the Lord is necessary for a fruitful Catholic life. I want all Catholics to know that we don't need to be afraid to spend time in silence with Jesus — that He's waiting to love us and transform our hearts and lives."

—Bishop James D Conley, Lincoln, Neb.

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

The mystery of Christ's baptism in the Jordan by St John, the Precursor, proposes the contemplation of an already adult Jesus. This mystery is infinitely linked to the Solemnities of the Lord's birth and the Epiphany that we have just celebrated, as in some ways it takes up and represents their significance to us.

At Christmas we have contemplated the human birth of the Word incarnate by the Virgin Mary. In the 4th century, the Fathers of the Church deepened the understanding of the faith with regard to the Christmas mystery in the light of Jesus' Humanity. They spoke of the Incarnation of the Word already working like the 'Christification' of that humanity that he had assumed from His mother. Or put in simpler terms: Jesus is the Christ from the first instant of conception in Mary's spotless womb because He Himself, with His Divine Power, consecrated, anointed and 'Christified' that human nature with which He became incarnate.

In the mystery of the Epiphany, we then meditated on Christ's manifestation to all nations that was represented by the Magi, the wise men from the East, who came to adore the Child.

Now, in the mystery of Christ's Baptism in the Jordan River, we again encounter and represent the truth of the Lord's incarnation and His manifestation as the Christ. Jesus' Baptism is in fact His definitive manifestation as the Messiah or Christ to Israel, and as the Son of the Father to the entire world. Here we find the dimension of the Epiphany which was His manifestation to all nations. The Father's voice from heaven shows that Jesus of Nazareth is the eternal Son and the descent of the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove shows the Trinitarian nature of the Christian God. The true and unique God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, shows Himself in Christ, through Him, with Him and in Him.

The Baptism in the Jordan returns to the great Christmas theme of 'Christification,' Jesus of Nazareth's spiritual anointing, His presentation as the Anointed One par excellence, the Messiah or the One sent by the Father for the salvation of mankind. The Spirit that descended on Jesus shows and seals in an incontrovertible way the 'Christification' of Jesus' humanity that the Word had already fulfilled from the first moment of His miraculous conception by Mary. Jesus, from the very beginning, was always the Lord's Christ, He was always God. Yet, His one, true humanity, that which is perfect in every way, as the Gospel records, constantly grew in natural and supernatural perfection. 'And Jesus increased in wisdom, in stature, and in favour with God and with men' (Lk2:52). In Israel at 30 years of age, one reached full maturity and therefore could become a master. Jesus came of age and the Spirit, descending and remaining on Him, definitively consecrated His whole being as the Christ.

The same Spirit, that descended on the water of the River Jordan wafted over the waters during the first creation (Gen 1:2). Therefore, the Baptism in the Jordan presents yet another truth: that Jesus has started a new creation. He is the second man (1 Cor 15:47) or the last Adam (1 Cor 15:45), that comes to repair the first Adam's guilt. He does this as the Lamb of God that takes away our sins. 'Looking at the events in light of the Cross and Resurrection, the Christian people realised what happened: Jesus loaded the burden of all mankind's guilt upon His shoulders; he bore it down into the depths of the Jordan. He inaugurated his public activity by stepping into the place of sinners' (Joseph Ratzinger, Jesus of Nazareth, Bloomsbury 2007, p 18).
