Our Prophetic Call to Witness the Lord

We are all successors to Jeremiah and to the Apostles, whose vocation was to share Christ's message with the world. For Jeremiah, God is real and present, not detached from what he is experiencing. God is also very personal, a friend to whom he can even voice anger and disappointment; but also, a trusted friend, upon whom he can rely – and so can we.

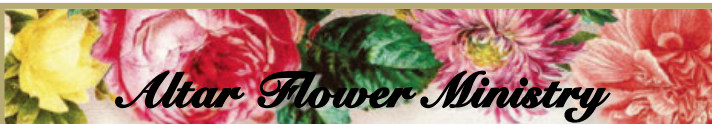

Jeremiah's reassurance that God would stand with him and strengthen him in his trials is echoed in our Gospel. Jesus, like a loving parent, reassures His disciples that God will stand with them in what will be a difficult discipleship.

Jesus warns that being a Christian will cost sacrifice and suffering. We are bound to face opposition from a world that does not gladly submit to the Word of God, that makes so many demands on human nature. But there is real satisfaction, too, in standing up for the truth of things.

Prophetic people have the happiness of working with the Lord, who is the ultimate truth on whom we all depend. The mystery of God's call to us and of our response to him is that he is always there for us. "I am at your side; you are my friends," said Jesus, even to disciples who sometimes lose the way.

Disciples will not have it easy. Like Jeremiah we will have crises of faith as we face the evils of our world. Jesus assures us that, until the final reckoning, God is with us and knows us more intimately than any human.

For the crucifix tells us how much God cares for each and every one of us, and likewise shows us the length, the breadth, the height and depth to which He went to demonstrate His love for us. It is in that crucifix that you and I can recognize our true worth and the value that we have in the eyes of God.

MISSION

"Being the living example of God's love to others"

VISION

"Our Parish is a sacred home in which our highest dreams and aspirations are nourished by the Eucharist and our actions are guided by God's word, for His disciples to grow in holiness."

"We joyfully share our life in Christ, with everyone in our Parish, with all those actively seeking Our Lord's love, enlightenment and forgiveness and with the larger community in which we live."

This sacred home is inspired by the Holy Spirit and His constant presence is alive, welcoming, relevant, reverent and prayerful."

VALUES

Catholic Spirituality:

The formation of each disciple to grow in the love of God and neighbor by imitating Christ and being guided constantly by the Holy Spirit.

Respect:

Treating others and one's self, in ways that embrace each person's intrinsic worth and enhance each person's self-esteem.

Compassion:

Recognizing the suffering of others and acting in ways as Jesus would to ease that suffering.

Accountability:

God's gift of free will to each of us means that we are responsible for our actions, decisions and their consequences.

Stewardship:

Being grateful to God and sharing one's God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure with our parish and the needy.

Hospitality:

Everyone should feel at ease in our presence. When we serve others we are serving Christ, so we dedicate ourselves to the friendly and gracious reception and treatment of visitors, strangers and the needy.

DISCIPLESHIP

*When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him,
"They have no wine." And Jesus said to her,
"Woman, what concern is that to you and to me?
My hour has not yet come."*

John 2:3-4

The words of Jesus resonate with us: we don't always know when it's our time to act, when it's our time to step up to the plate. As happened in Jesus' life, let's be open to hearing that our hour has come, that now is the time to act in grace and encouragement.

From the Prescott

Community Cupboard Food Bank

As the members of the PCCFB Community look back on this past year we are grateful for all of the many changes and blessings we have seen - a new location, a new food distribution system and new friends and volunteers. All of these positive changes could not have happened without the support of our generous and loving faith families in Prescott. Because of your generous support of food and cash donations as well as volunteer hours we have been able to help those in our area that suffer food shortages. If you know of anyone who could use food assistance please refer them to our organization. Our ministry would be happy to help. For more information on donating, volunteering or considering an Arizona Tax Credit Contribution please feel free to call me, Roxanne Matthews, at (928) 925-9765 and leave a message and I will return your call.

May God keep you in His care for a fulfilling and safe 2022.

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast at Cana, Jesus reveals himself to His disciples and they began to believe in Him. Every day, God also gives us signs of His love and so we also can respond in faith and trust.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to trust and believe. Thank you for your faith and trust in our mission of serving the poor in our community. God bless you for your generosity. Our clients are aware that we are able to help them through your support and we all join in praying for you and your families.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

The Gospel of Life Collection:

- 33% of the funds collected at the parish remain with the parish to fund its own Respect Life efforts at the discretion of the pastor.
- 67% of the funds are retained by the Office of Marriage and Respect Life Parish Leadership Support to fund our Diocesan-level pro-life evangelistic and educational efforts, this includes our ongoing cooperation with Virtue Media in the remarkable February and March cell phone ads to women potentially seeking abortion or in crisis pregnancy.

Second collection envelopes will be in the pews the weekends of January 15/16 and 22/23.

Eucharistic Adoration Can Transform Our Church

"The truth is that sitting in silence with the Lord is necessary for a fruitful Catholic life. I want all Catholics to know that we don't need to be afraid to spend time in silence with Jesus — that He's waiting to love us and transform our hearts and lives."

—Bishop James D Conley, Lincoln, Neb.

On December 1st, parish members came to Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament as the Supreme Court heard the landmark pro-life case, Dobbs vs Jackson Woman's Health. As we continue to pray that the Justices reach a decision that will protect the lives of the unborn we ask that you join us on January 22nd, from 11:00am to 12:00pm in the church to pray the Rosary asking our Blessed Mother to guide the Justices in this very important decision.

“The longer term goal is . . . A flourishing humanity on a thriving planet rich in species in an evolving universe, all together filled with the glory of God.”

Elizabeth Johnson
Sister of St. Joseph

Since the November launch of the Vatican's Laudato Si Action Platform, we've looked at several aspects of the initiative which is designed to encourage concrete action on sustainability and climate change worldwide. 7 years, 7 sectors, 7 goals.

Next weekend, the Care for the Earth Ministry will be hosting tables after each Mass to provide more information about the Platform, what we've already done at Sacred Heart (think solar panels!), and how we can continue to put our faith in action for all of Creation. Please stop by to meet us, and hear about additional events we're planning. And if you haven't seen the recent articles in Senses Magazine about all of Sacred Heart's sustainability work to date and what we're currently doing, we have copies for you! A flourishing humanity on a thriving planet is a worthy goal for all of us. Thank you again for all you do, and will do, to care for our common home. See you next weekend!

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

Allow God to strengthen, renew, rekindle and even transform your marriage sacrament. Take time for your marriage by attending a Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience on Feb 5-6, 2022, at Mt Claret Retreat Center. Early registration is highly recommended.
