Mountain Top Experience with Jesus

During Transfiguration, Jesus received this divine manifestation as the confirmation that He is the beloved Son of God and He is here to accomplish His mission through His Passion.

God the Father wanted to communicate to the first disciples on the mountain. First, we learn who Christ is: God's beloved Son.

Second, we hear the Father's only imperative in the New Testament, to listen to Jesus and believe in Him and in everything He said and taught.

Third, we discover the meaning of Jesus' suffering and death; like the Israelites followed Moses through the Red Sea that first exodus, we are called to follow Jesus, the Way, all the way to the eternal Promised Land.

Lastly, Jesus was also given a foretaste of resurrection. The transfiguration happened when Jesus was in prayer.

Some of the saints write and speak about their prayer experiences and they would be surrounded with light and some saints felt that they were lifted up in their prayer experience.

Some received consolation, some received messages and some received faith and strength. We all need to have some transfiguration moments in our own spiritual journey which will help us to walk in faith and hope.

All may not receive spectacular moments, experiences and events happening in their prayer life.

But that does not mean God is not listening to our humble prayers. We pray because we want to feel the presence of the Lord in our lives.

“ . . . to return to that simplicity which allows us to stop and appreciate the small things, to be grateful for the opportunities which life affords us, to be spiritually detached from what we possess, and not to succumb to sadness for what we lack.”

Pope Francis
Laudato Si

In a recent devotion titled Enslaving Consumerism, Sr. Joyce Rupp, O.S.M. used the enslavement of the Israelites in Egypt as a metaphor for her own spiritual journey. One of those “enslavements” that limits her relationship with God is the seduction of consumerism. Although vowing to live simply, she feels the pull of our culture when she hears others talking about the money they saved on a purchase. Or sees an ad luring her into thinking she needs an item she doesn’t need. Or that she really should buy something newer or better than she now has. Sr. Joyce recognizes that when she releases herself from this sly trap, she instead sees how countless people have so few material possessions when she has more than enough. And then she feels called to save her money, not on purchases, but so she can contribute it wisely for others’ benefit.

Pope Francis tells us that our constant demand for growth and endless consumption have resulted in the Earth “groaning” to keep up. And he urges us to strive to be more spiritually detached from what we possess. In solidarity with Pope Francis and Sr. Joyce, let’s free ourselves to hear the cry of the poor and the cry of the Earth...and be grateful.

DISCIPLESHIP

“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you.”

Luke 6:27-28

These words of Jesus have always been difficult to follow, but in today’s world, even more so. Division and anger abound, with many families divided within themselves. Love, patience, listening, an attempt to understand... perhaps these are the virtues we need most today.

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's gospel Jesus gives us the challenge to "Love your enemies . . . Give to everyone who asks of you . . . Do to others as you would have them do to you . . . Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

Your donations to St. Vincent de Paul help us to provide food and clothing for our clients and their families. We are able to help in part with rent assistance, utilities, car repairs if it is needed for work or shelter. There are many smaller things that we help with also all because you find it in your heart to provide money, food, and donations to our Thrift Store. Shopping at our Thrift Store helps also. Profits from our store go to client aid too.

God Bless you and your families for your generosity.

Eucharistic Adoration Can Transform Our Church

“The truth is that sitting in silence with the Lord is necessary for a fruitful Catholic life. I want all Catholics to know that we don’t need to be afraid to spend time in silence with Jesus — that He’s waiting to love us and transform our hearts and lives.”

For a Synodal Church
Communion/participation/mission

Next weekend, February 26 & 27, we will be holding open forums after the Saturday evening & Sunday evening Masses in the Sacred Heart room. These times will be for you to come and share your faith story based on the questions you have seen in this column over the last few weeks. We have found that most of the stories we have listened to so far, have only taken about 2 to 5 minutes to tell, so this should not take a great deal of your time, but will be so important to the end result. Several Synod committee members will be available to listen to and record your story, which will be included in our Parish's final report to our Bishop.

If you are not able to attend one of our forums, you can submit your story in the Synod box which will be on the Information table in the Gathering place or submit it online through the Parish website: sacredheartprescott.com. If using the website, please click CONTACT found on the upper left side of the main page. Use "general inquiry" on the "question" line and then write your story under message.

 Por una Iglesia Sinodal
 Comunion/Participación/Misión

Nuestro Comité Parroquial sobre el Sínodo ha finalizado el enfoque que tomaremos para completar el proceso del Sínodo Diocesano.

Se ha decidido que utilizaremos el enfoque narrativo, que permitirá a los participantes contar sus historias de fe de una manera personal. Las sesiones de "escucha" en grupos pequeños comenzarán esta semana, por lo que si se le contacta o participa en uno de los ministerios que se están programando, ¡participe! Como esperamos que TODOS ustedes participen, anunciaremos dos fechas de foro abierto para que cualquiera pueda asistir y colocaremos una "caja para el Sínodo" en el mostrador de información si desea enviar su respuesta por escrito.

Las siguientes son las preguntas sugeridas para orar y reflexionar sobre su historia de fe:

- Describe tu relación con Jesús
- Describe su relación con la Iglesia
- ¿Cómo puede la Comunidad del Sagrado Corazón ayudarme en mi camino de fe?

Todas las oficinas de la Iglesia estaran cerradas el lunes 21 de Febrero en observancia por el dia de los Presidentes.

Reabrirá el martes 22 en su horario normal

Le gustaría dedicarle una hora a Jesús Sacramentado?
