Call to a Spiritual Life (Part 1)

We know that our God is loving, kind, gentle, compassionate and forgiving. He called us to be His children. How can you be a spiritual person in today's world? What does it mean to be spiritual?

A spiritual person likes to pray and spend time with God every day. The same way you spend your time with your loved ones, if you spend time with God, you will be spiritual.

A praying, spiritual person allows God to direct and guide his or her life. A spiritual person is devoted to God and wants to please God alone. Those who worship God become like God. A spiritual person is becoming Christ every day.

A spiritual person reads the Bible, recites the rosary and does other devotions. A spiritual person always carries with him or her spiritual symbol like a holy medal, crucifix and holy pictures.

A spiritual person cares about people, animals and the planet. A spiritual person knows that we are all One and we belong to the family of God. A spiritual person is a kind person.

If you want to be a spiritual person, then let kindness be your guiding light — kindness toward yourself, toward others, toward animals and toward this beautiful planet that is our home.

The Parish office will be closed Monday July 4, in observance of Independence Day.

Mass will be celebrated at 9:00am on July 4 and there will be no 7:00am Mass.

The Church will be closed immediately after the 9:00am Mass and there will be no meetings in the Church that day and no confessions.

Happy Independence Day!

MISSION

"Being the living example of God's love to others"

VISION

"Our Parish is a sacred home in which our highest dreams and aspirations are nourished by the Eucharist and our actions are guided by God's word, for His disciples to grow in holiness."

"We joyfully share our life in Christ, with everyone in our Parish, with all those actively seeking Our Lord's love, enlightenment and forgiveness and with the larger community in which we live."

This sacred home is inspired by the Holy Spirit and His constant presence is alive, welcoming, relevant, reverent and prayerful."

VALUES

Catholic Spirituality:

The formation of each disciple to grow in the love of God and neighbor by imitating Christ and being guided constantly by the Holy Spirit.

Respect:

Treating others and one's self, in ways that embrace each person's intrinsic worth and enhance each person's self-esteem.

Compassion:

Recognizing the suffering of others and acting in ways as Jesus would to ease that suffering.

Accountability:

God's gift of free will to each of us means that we are responsible for our actions, decisions and their consequences.

Stewardship:

Being grateful to God and sharing one's God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure with our parish and the needy.

Hospitality:

Everyone should feel at ease in our presence. When we serve others we are serving Christ, so we dedicate ourselves to the friendly and gracious reception and treatment of visitors, strangers and the needy.

DISCIPLESHIP

The Lord says . . .

"As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you."

Isaiah 66:1, 13

We're used to thinking of God as father, but God as mother is also a biblical image. How can we project God's maternal comfort to those in need of it?

Over the past several weeks we have celebrated the wonderful solemnities of Pentecost, Corpus Christi and the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. All of these solemnities remind us of God's great love for us and we especially observe that love through receiving the Holy Eucharist and Eucharistic Adoration.

With all of the negative things we see in the news, it is so important to keep our focus on Jesus' Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

During his short life, Blessed Carlo Acutis, who died at 15 years old and was beatified in 2020, compiled a history of Eucharistic miracles that have taken place throughout history.

The website from Blessed Carlo Acutis

<http://www.miracolieuucaristici.org>

gives in English, Spanish and other languages most of the Eucharistic miracles in history by country. It also gives many saints and people whose lives have been transformed by Christ in the Holy Eucharist. Click at the bottom of the first page which language you want.

We strongly encourage you to visit this website to learn more about these miraculous events and to become closer to Jesus in the Eucharist.

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent His Apostles out two by two. In this spirit, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul members "go out two by two" to visit those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance.

We want you to know that the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering of Prescott. We appreciate your help in enabling us to assist those in need. Thank you to our new and prospective volunteers. We still need you too to join us in this worthwhile endeavor. Come check out what we do and how you might be able to help us serve our fellow community members who are in need at this time. We will be able to find a job for you and we think you will enjoy the work and the grace received performing this much needed work. Join us Wednesdays at 9:15am in the St. Anthony Claret room in the church lower level. We will give you a tour of our office after the meeting and hope to answer all of your questions.

Reminder of our sale at the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store on Fair Street. Come be a part of our Christmas in July Sale July 11 through July 16th. All of our Christmas items will be brought out for sale.

On July 15th and 16th. Everything in our store will be 50% off!!

Come in for some terrific bargains of quality merchandise.

Eucharistic Adoration Can Transform Our Church

"The truth is that sitting in silence with the Lord is necessary for a fruitful Catholic life. I want all Catholics to know that we don't need to be afraid to spend time in silence with Jesus — that He's waiting to love us and transform our hearts and lives."

—Bishop James D Conley, Lincoln, Neb.

STARFISH

As the old man walked the beach at dawn, he noticed a young man ahead of him picking up starfish and flinging them into the sea. Catching up with the youth, he asked him why he was doing this. The answer was that the stranded starfish would die if left until the morning sun.

"But the beach goes on for miles and there are millions of starfish," countered the other. "How can your effort make any difference?"

The young man looked at the starfish in his hand, then threw it to safely in the waves.

"It makes a difference to this one."

Origin unknown.
