Being Innocent and Shrewd in the World

“Trust in the Lord and do good” (Ps 37:3).” As disciples of Christ we are commissioned to continue the mission of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus assured the disciples that if they were handed over to the authorities, they would have what they needed. God’s Spirit would speak through them. He also warned that the message they proclaimed would not bring peace but rather stir divisions within families.

How do these readings help us who are His ministers? These texts offer reassurance that God accompanies us. We need to use all our gifts and faith to be Disciples of Christ.

Jesus cautions us that we need to be innocent like a dove and clever like a serpent. We should be innocent so that nobody should get a chance to point a finger at us, to accuse us for our wrong doings. If we are clean and pure, our moral power and state of grace will be high.

This will work as a shield for our protection and power to venture out. But being innocent and pure is not enough; we need to be clever like the serpent. The serpent smells the danger and runs away and hides from critical situations.

We should discern when to proclaim and how to proclaim the message. For all who minister to the Lord experience His presence, guidance and protection in their lives.

MISSION

"Being the living example of God's love to others"

VISION

"Our Parish is a sacred home in which our highest dreams and aspirations are nourished by the Eucharist and our actions are guided by God's word, for His disciples to grow in holiness."

"We joyfully share our life in Christ, with everyone in our Parish, with all those actively seeking Our Lord's love, enlightenment and forgiveness and with the larger community in which we live."

This sacred home is inspired by the Holy Spirit and His constant presence is alive, welcoming, relevant, reverent and prayerful."

VALUES

Catholic Spirituality:

The formation of each disciple to grow in the love of God and neighbor by imitating Christ and being guided constantly by the Holy Spirit.

Respect:

Treating others and one's self, in ways that embrace each person's intrinsic worth and enhance each person's self-esteem.

Compassion:

Recognizing the suffering of others and acting in ways as Jesus would to ease that suffering.

Accountability:

God's gift of free will to each of us means that we are responsible for our actions, decisions and their consequences.

Stewardship:

Being grateful to God and sharing one's God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure with our parish and the needy.

The Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is observed on August 15th. Since the Solemnity falls on a Monday this year, it is not considered a Holy Day of Obligation. The only Mass we will have for the Solemnity is the 7:00am Mass on August 15. There will be no Vigil Mass.

DISCIPLESHIP

“Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.

For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

Luke 12:33-34

Jesus was able to capture a profound truth in just a few words . . .

“where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

A good steward will often ask,
where is my heart, what is my treasure?

“All Creation teaches us some way of prayer.”

Thomas Merton

Extreme heat across the country and the world has been in the news non-stop for weeks. And there have been numerous news reports about the effects of extreme heat and various solutions being studied. But did you know about HEAT.gov, a website for the National Integrated Heat Health Information System (NIHHIS)? Their mission is to identify needs for extreme heat services, develop science-based solutions, and leverage partnerships to empower communities with improved communications, capacity building, and decision-making. Their Vision? A nation free from heat-related illness and death. Certainly, that is something we can all get behind.

HEAT.gov is a collaboration of many federal partners, such as the CDC, Veterans Affairs, the National Park Service, HHS, OSHA and others. They are all involved in planning, education and action to protect people from heat-related impacts. The website is packed with interesting and vital information about the battle to save lives, along with opportunities for us to be involved, as well.

Visit Heat.gov today to learn more about how extreme heat is hurting people nationwide and close to home. Pope Francis urges us to Care for our Common Home and to Care for the Poor. Pray for both, and educate yourself on ways you can have an impact.

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, Jesus says "Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy".

Please help St. Vincent de Paul bring respite and hope to all who are unable at this time to provide for themselves and their family.

Our conference at Sacred Heart has decided to hold one evening meeting a month so that those who might want to join us but are unavailable on Wednesday mornings to be able to attend. So, starting in August the third Wednesday of the month there will be an evening meeting from 7:00 to 8:00 in the Forum in the lower level of the church. We hope to see you on August 17th.

If you are recently retired or nearing retirement and wondering how you can be useful with your newfound spare time, consider joining St. Vincent de Paul. There is meaningful work to be done in a friendly, welcoming environment. We will train you in a variety of jobs that fit your talents and time. God bless you all for your monetary gifts and for any time that you are able to give.

Revival's in the Air an exciting journey ahead

Our world is hurting. We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith: His Real Presence in the Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to this great mystery here in the United States.

Anyone can receive for free the weekly newsletter of the National Eucharistic Revival at the website

Eucharistic Adoration Can Transform Our Church

“The truth is that sitting in silence with the Lord is necessary for a fruitful Catholic life. I want all Catholics to know that we don't need to be afraid to spend time in silence with Jesus — that He's waiting to love us and transform our hearts and lives.”

—Bishop James D Conley, Lincoln, Neb.
