Be the Person of Hope to Others

No one would normally think of suffering as something pleasant or would welcome it. Much less would anyone sincerely say that it makes him or her happy to suffer for another person. To suffer for yourself might make sense in that it is either in reparation for your own wrong doing or maybe there is something to gain from it. But to suffer for others and to suffer willingly and happily does sound strange and puzzling.

But when St. Paul told the Colossians that it makes him happy to suffer for them, he states the reason for it. In his suffering, he hoped to complete the suffering by Christ for the sake of His body, the Church.

In this suffering, St. Paul said that he will be helped only by the power of Christ driving him irresistibly.

Jesus came to heal us of our sicknesses and take away our infirmity. Yet, He too had to suffer for it. We may think that we can't be that noble to suffer so that others can be healed. But like St. Paul, may the power of Christ drive us irresistibly so that we will undertake this suffering lovingly and joyfully.

Jesus offers hope to those who are desperately in need of hope; so, when he came into the synagogue, he must have given hope to the man with the withered hand, in spite of the hostile presence of others. And the man's hope was not disappointed. In Luke's Gospel the last words Jesus speaks to another human being are words that give hope to a condemned man crucified alongside him, "Today, you will be with me in Paradise."

The risen Lord remains a hopeful presence in all of our lives. Our faith in the Lord must always be a hope-filled faith. As followers of the Lord, we are always people of hope.

MISSION

"Being the living example of God's love to others"

VISION

"Our Parish is a sacred home in which our highest dreams and aspirations are nourished by the 'Eucharist and our actions are guided by God's word, for His disciples to grow in holiness."

"We joyfully share our life in Christ, with everyone in our Parish, with all those actively seeking Our Lord's love, enlightenment and forgiveness and with the larger community in which we live."

This sacred home is inspired by the Holy Spirit and His constant presence is alive, welcoming, relevant, reverent and prayerful."

VALUESCatholic Spirituality:

The formation of each disciple to grow in the love of God and neighbor by imitating Christ and being guided constantly by the Holy Spirit.

Respect:

Treating others and one's self, in ways that embrace each person's intrinsic worth and enhance each person's self-esteem.

Compassion:

Recognizing the suffering of others and acting in ways as Jesus would to ease that suffering.

Accountability:

God's gift of free will to each of us means that we are responsible for our actions, decisions and their consequences.

Stewardship:

Being grateful to God and sharing one's God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure with our parish and the needy.

Hospitality:

Everyone should feel at ease in our presence. When we serve others we are serving Christ, so we dedicate ourselves to the friendly and gracious reception and treatment of visitors, strangers and the needy.

DISCIPLESHIP

"You cannot serve God and wealth."

Luke 16:13

Jesus seems to have had a number of wealthy friends, which is perhaps why he didn't say you cannot serve God and have wealth... he said you can't serve God and serve wealth. 'Serve' is the important word. If you live in service to money, it's very hard to live in service to God.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Next weekend is the National Collection for The Catholic University of America.

Catholic University is a national research university with over 5,700 undergraduate and graduate students in more than 250 academic programs in the heart of Washington, D.C. By giving to the collection, you are supporting future Catholic leaders, both religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, faith-rooted education and the University's various research and training initiatives that support dioceses and parishes in responding to the most pressing needs of their faithful. The Catholic Project - an initiative that aims to heal the breach of trust many have experienced as a result of the crisis in the Church, a master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management, and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers are a few examples how the University is serving the Church and nation. You can give by using your offertory envelope, an envelope on the information table in the church or by giving online at:

<https://osvhub.com/sacredheartprescott/giving/funds>.

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that the shepherd rejoices when He finds one lost sheep. The story tells us that nothing and no one is insignificant to God who is compassionate and loving to all.

Is there a neighbor or friend of yours who is in temporary need because of a loss of a job or because of an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, we want to help!

Our number is 928-778-4585.

Our next St. Vincent evening meeting is next week, September 21 at 7:00pm in the Forum. Mark your calendar to attend. We have decided to offer these once a month evening meetings to accommodate those who are unable to attend a morning meeting but are interested in learning more about the local St. Vincent organization and our activities. Please join us as we are in need of more volunteers. It is such rewarding work helping others in a friendly, compassionate environment. Come check us out.

Starting October 1, 2022 the SVdP Food Pantry will be open on the first Saturday of each month from 10:00am to 1:00 pm. To obtain a food box, just come to our pantry located in the alley behind our office at 120 N. Summit Avenue in Prescott. When you arrive, simply let us know if you have facilities for cooking so that we can provide appropriately. There is no appointment or preregistration necessary to pick up a food box on these Saturdays. We hope this additional service will be convenient for those who are unable to make appointments during the week.

Lastly, we appreciate all of the assistance we receive from all of our parishioners and friends of SVdP by providing money, goods, and prayers. We offer prayers for you at all of our meetings and during our private prayer times. God Bless you.

Eucharistic Adoration Can Transform Our Church

"The truth is that sitting in silence with the Lord is necessary for a fruitful Catholic life. I want all Catholics to know that we don't need to be afraid to spend time in silence with Jesus — that He's waiting to love us and transform our hearts and lives."

—Bishop James D Conley, Lincoln, Neb.

Life can be noisy and overwhelming. Discover an oasis of peace in community at Sacred Heart's Women's Circle of Faith and Friendship.

Women's Circle of Faith and Friendship offers support for women seeking to nurture their spirituality, deepen their faith, and build community with others. This is a peer ministry, open to women of all ages and stages of life.

For our first season we will take a journey through the book Calm My Anxious Heart, by Linda Dillow. This book invites us to allow Jesus to have more space in our hearts, souls and minds.

Supper Club

Hello everybody, Our supper club is coming to an end.

The last one will be September 18th.

I would like to thank all the volunteers that have been there every month year after year. Thank you to all the people that have brought us dishes to serve our guests and for all the donations. Unfortunately our attendance is not what it used to be. It was a hard decision to make. I would like to thank United Christian Youth Camp for sponsoring this Supper Club for many years.

Thank you and God bless, Jeanine Canedo
