Confronting the Evil

Certainly you have come across people who are scandalized at seeing evil everywhere. It is true that evil is present everywhere; in the world, politics, society, the Church, in families and even in our own personal lives.

Sometimes when kids come for confession, I ask a few of them; “Are you good or bad?” Some say “Good”. Some say “Mostly good”. Some say “Not so good”. My point is that even children are aware when they do something that is not good. And for adults we mostly know who we are and what our sins, addictions, passions and compulsions are. The devil is very cunning and has crept into all existing systems in the world and into human lives. God wants to rule in our hearts and in our families. But the devil wants to steal us away from God. Some believers are uncomfortable seeing evil everywhere.

In the Gospel, Jesus answers those who are scandalized with seeing evil everywhere, and who have doubts about the existence of God and His power in the world. We have the parable of the weeds in the Gospel. The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. The field is the world. The good seeds are the people of the Kingdom of God. The weeds are those who follow the evil one. The Lord says that the enemy, the devil, sowed the weeds. What can we learn from this parable?

It is true that the devil exists and can influence human beings. Evil does not come from God. The human being is both good and evil. I would rather say that the human heart is a battleground where there is a constant fight between good and evil. When good wins, we are good and when evil wins, we are bad.

There is a judgment waiting at the end of our lives or the end of the world when we will be judged based on our actions. Those who are good will attain God’s salvation, and those who are evil will attain damnation. The parable tells us to be patient and to keep doing good, expecting the day of the Lord. Sometimes we have the tendency to judge others. But let us reserve the judgment because God alone is the Judge and His judgment is just. For our part, let us keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, and walk with hope and courage toward Him.

DISCIPLESHIP

"There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores."

Luke 16:19-20

It's remarkable how many of Jesus' parables and sayings revolve around money and wealth and the lack thereof. Clearly, when Jesus spoke of the Kingdom of Heaven he was focused on social justice and equity.

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel we see that prudent decisiveness means that we recognize that all our choices in daily living are really choices for eternal life. Admission into heaven is something money cannot buy. The only currency that has any value to secure our entrance is that of love.

As you offer assistance to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in gifts of money or goods know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering.

Please remember that our September evening meeting is this coming Wednesday, September 21 in the Forum in the church's lower level at 7:00 pm. We hope to see new faces of people who would like to learn more about what our ministry does and possibly see if this may be a way to pave your way to heaven by giving love to the less fortunate our community.

THANK YOU FOR FOOD DONATIONS

Our youth group and youth ministry core team want to extend our most heartfelt thank you to the parishioners who have offered to help provide dinners and food funds to feed our middle and high schoolers at youth nights. We are so happy to be adding youth group "family" dinners to our schedule every week. Because that's what we've become; a family. And sharing a meal together before diving into faith formation lessons will help us grow in friendship and be more receptive and focused on what the Holy Spirit has to teach us. Thank you for sharing the light and passing on what has been entrusted to the next generation.

Isaiah once prophesied, "I will not keep silent . . . I will not rest until her vindication goes forth as a brightness and her salvation as a burning torch" (Isaiah 62:1).

Our youth ministry team views this as our ongoing mission. When a soul truly encounters Christ, it changes everything. We will not be silent. We will not rest. We are on a mission to lead all of our youth closer to Christ . . . to pass on the torch of faith entrusted to us, and we invite you to come alongside us as we do just that.

Please contact Amanda Cardenas at acardenas@sacredheartprescott.com

if you would like to donate a meal, snacks or a monetary donation supporting the precious youth.

God Bless.
