Messages From Jeremiah and Jesus

What was happening in the time of Jeremiah when the leaders, who were to shepherd, rule, and guide the people, but were failing so dramatically in their task? Jeremiah was preaching to them and trying to bring them back to following the way of God. But as we read in the Bible, the leaders refused to listen. Jeremiah cries out, "Woe to you shepherds who mislead and scatter the sheep of my pasture."

Jeremiah had been preaching to them for a long time, but to no avail. Now their failures were going to come to a terrible conclusion. They were going to war against the Babylonians, and would be totally defeated. Jerusalem and the temple would be destroyed, and the people would be carried off into exile for a long time. Isn't it marvelous how Jeremiah sees this gleam of hope when he tells them (and us), "The day is coming when I will raise up a shepherd-ruler who is David's righteous successor. He will rule wisely and govern with justice and righteousness. That will be a peaceful era, when all of Judah will enjoy peace and Israel will live in safety."

Jesus, the Son of God and of Mary, is the descendent of David. We recall the circumstances in the Gospel: Jesus and the disciples had been preaching and healing for many days.. Notice how Jesus acts.

That's what it means to be compassionate. In fact Jesus is the extraordinary, unmatched example of compassion. Jesus became one like us so He could enter into all of our experiences, feelings, difficulties, joys and hopes. That's compassion -- entering into the feelings of others. It's the basis for reconciliation. That's how people begin to come together, when someone is really compassionate toward another and their experiences.

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.

—PS 23

This sacred home is inspired by the Holy Spirit and His constant presence is alive, welcoming, relevant, reverent and prayerful."

VALUES*Catholic Spirituality:

DISCIPLESHIP

The apostles said to Jesus, "Increase our faith!"

Luke 17:5

The Apostles wish for an increase of faith but their request seems vague . . . faith in who or in what? Sometimes our wishes too are vague . . . we may want to be good stewards but aren't sure exactly how. Growth in faith, and in action, can take time, reflection, prayer and repeated attempts.

"God had sent him to bring good news to the poor".

Together with your gifts, the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul continue his work and mission in our parish. On this coming Thursday, September 29 the 7:00am Mass will be dedicated to all of deceased Vincentians. Please join us in celebrating their contribution to helping the poor in our community.

Beginning October 1, the St. Vincent de Paul food pantry will be open on the first Saturday of each month from 10:00am to noon. To obtain a food box just come to our pantry located in the alley behind our office at: 120 N. Summit Ave in Prescott.

When you arrive simply let us know if you have facilities for cooking and food storage so that we can provide food for you appropriately. There is no appointment or preregistration necessary to pick up a food box on these Saturdays. We hope this additional service will be convenient for those who are unable to make appointments during the week.

Thank you to all of our parishioners for your support of our ministry with gifts of money, goods and prayers.
