Mother Theresa

As we have done for many years, we will be distributing a book as a Christmas gift to all parishioners.

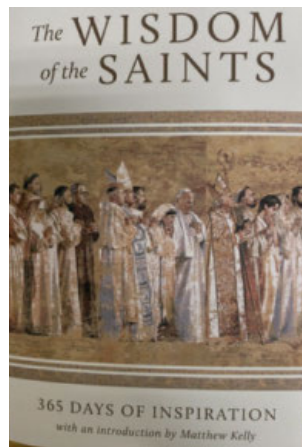

This year's book is

"The Wisdom of the Saints: 365 Days of Inspiration"
"La Sabiduria de los Santos; 365 Dias De Inspiracion" published by Dynamic Catholic.

The book provides a quote from a saint for each day of the year.

The books will be made available next weekend, December 17 and 18. Please take one copy per family.

Available in both English and Spanish.

The Mystery of the Annunciation

The Annunciation story fills us with promise, hope and a bright future. God's messenger tells of a coming Savior: "He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High . . . He will reign forever, and of His Kingdom there will be no end."

We see the image of a God who wants every human being to be saved. God our Father wants all of us to share in His own fullness of life.

Luke concludes this story with Mary's total response of acceptance, "I am the Handmaid of the Lord, let what you have said be done to me." Greatly favored, she responds generously, with her whole life, to the grace she has received. For us, Mary is not simply the mother of Jesus; she is the perfect disciple of Jesus. Like Jesus, she offers herself over to God's purpose.

The Gospel suggests that she struggled to discern and come to terms with God's purpose for her life. She was disturbed by the words of Gabriel and had many questions; at the birth of Jesus she would ponder as well as treasure the words of the shepherds. When Jesus was twelve years old she would puzzle over and treasure His Words to herself and Joseph. She pondered and reflected, to discern what God was asking of her. We are all trying to be disciples, inspired by the example of Mary. Like her we struggle at times to know what God wants for us here and now; we try to give ourselves as generously as Mary did, even in the midst of our many questions. She shows how one can be faithful without fully understanding what God is doing in our own lives and in the lives of others.

Eucharistic Adoration Can Transform Our Church

“The truth is that sitting in silence with the Lord is necessary for a fruitful Catholic life. I want all Catholics to know that we don’t need to be afraid to spend time in silence with Jesus — that He’s waiting to love us and transform our hearts and lives.”

—Bishop James D Conley, Lincoln, Neb.

WE GREATLY APPRECIATE THE PARISHIONERS WHO HAVE SUPPORTED US IN THE PAST AND WARMLY WELCOME NEW GUESTS.

We wish to send a big thank you to all of the parishioners who helped with replacing the missalettes on November 26. So many people volunteered that we completed the job in just a few minutes. Thank you so much for your commitment to Sacred Heart parish. Small things like this show just how much we can do when we work together in Christian unity. May God bless all who give of their time to help our parish!

January 6 — February 10, 2023

You are familiar with the Nicene Creed which we recite every Sunday at Mass.

But do you do so mechanically, unthinkingly?

Do you know what each word means?

What about “Only Begotten”, “consubstantial” and “proceeds from the Father and the Son”?

This 6 week course, with videos and study guide by

Bishop Robert Barron

along with the

Catechism of the Catholic Church, guides us line by line into the depths of this 4th century statement of faith. There’s awesome fellowship too!

Amen!

DISCIPLESHIP

Jesus answered them,

*"Go and tell John what you hear and see:
the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them."*

Matthew 11:4-5

What Jesus offers are not things that people want (as in Christmas gifts) but things they need: sight, the ability to walk and to hear, especially to hear the good news. A steward might be thinking: How can we bring these necessities to the needy around us?

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION OUTSIDE OF THE MASS

Extra Ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion outside of the Mass or more commonly called Minister of Care (MOC) at Sacred Heart, are the beautiful faith filled volunteers who present the Holy Eucharist to our Catholic community members who are unable to attend Mass.

These Catholic community members are in nursing facilities, assisted living residences, in the hospital or are just homebound in the Prescott area. These brothers and sisters in Christ desire the Living Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. On any given Sunday these volunteers are out in our community serving these members our community.

On the weekdays, the wonderful women of the Legion of Mary are doing the same mission with vigor and love for our Lord and our community members.

But the need is great and the laborers of the harvest are few. All of these groups are in desperate need of more volunteers to assist them in this ministry.

PLEASE, IF YOU FEEL THE CALL TO SERVE THESE MEMBERS OF OUR CATHOLIC COMMUNITY OR HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, feel free to contact me, Deacon Ernie Gonzales at: egonzales@sacredheartprescott.com

"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light."

Isaiah 9:1

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us that the good news can be seen, touched, felt and heard through the lives of God's people. We are now charged to take up the ministry of Jesus's, but we can't just ask people to take our word for it, our actions must speak for us.

Christmas is a time of love and gift-giving. You have shown your love by your generosity in the gifts and money provided for our very successful Children's Christmas Party which was held yesterday. Thank you for your willingness to share your treasure. The children were thrilled with our Celebrating Jesus' Birthday theme.

Registration for our Christmas Food Boxes continues through December 17th with applications available at the church office, our SVdP office and at our Thrift Store. SVdP office 121 N. Summit hours are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday between 9:00am and 1:30pm and Wednesday from noon until 3:30pm. Thrift Store on Fair Street Monday through Saturday from 9:00am to 3:00pm, Distribution of food boxes is December 20.

Please continue to drop off your food contributions for these Christmas food boxes by December 14th. Needed items are: stuffing mixes, gravy, canned yams large and small, instant mashed potatoes. These can be left in our collection boxes at the entrances to the church. If you can donate turkey or hams, please take them to our office or our thrift store at the above locations and hours. Please do not leave perishable items in the church as they will unfortunately need to be discarded.

We celebrate you and your willingness to help us help the less fortunate in our community.

God Bless you for all that you do for them showing God's love.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Help aging religious. Senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have devoted their lives to prayer, service, and works of mercy. Most ministered for little or no pay. Today, their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings. Your gift to today's Retirement Fund for Religious collection helps to furnish medications, nursing care, and other necessities. Please give generously by using a second collection envelope or by giving online at:

Our Lady of Guadalupe
Unveiling the image's hidden meaning

Our Lady of Guadalupe's dark complexion and mixture of indigenous and Spanish features, Our Lady of Guadalupe represents the unity of all people. She gazes downward with the tender, loving expression of a mother gazing at her child.

- Clouds—The image, the Virgin is surrounded by clouds, showing that she is from heaven.
- Sun—There are three suns represented in the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The first sun, not visible in the image is cosmic, casting light on the Virgin's left side and creating a shadow. Golden rays from the second sun, behind her, signify that she is the "Mother of Light" and greater than the Aztec sun god, whom she eclipses. The third sun is represented by the four-petaled flower on her tunic, indicating that she is about to give birth to the "Almighty Sun."
- Cross medallion—Around her neck, Mary wears a gold medallion engraved with a cross. For indigenous people, the medallion symbolized consecration, so the medallion around Mary's neck meant that she was consecrated to Jesus.
- Hands—In the image on the tilma, Our Lady is shown in a position of dancing prayer, with her knee bent in movement.
- Mantle and Tunic—Mary's rose-tinted, flowery tunic symbolized the earth, while her turquoise, starry mantle represents the heavens. The mantle also indicates that she is royalty since only the native emperors wore cloaks of that color.
- Black ribbon—The black ribbon around Mary's waist shows that she is expecting a child.
- Flowers—Nine golden flowers, symbolizing life and truth, adorn Mary's dress.
- Four-petaled jasmine—The only four petaled flower on Mary's tunic appears over her womb. The four-petaled jasmine represents the Aztecs' highest deity, Ometéotl. While Ometéotl remained distant, the image of Mary shows that the one true God chose to be born of a woman, making Himself accessible to all.
- Moon—The Virgin stands on a crescent moon. The moon symbolizes the Aztec moon god, fertility, birth and life.
- Angel—An angel with eagle's wings appears below Mary's feet. The angel holds up the pregnant Virgin, signifying that the child in her womb is the offering that please God.

Thank You for Your Prayers!

Father Ralph would like you all to know that his surgery went well.

He would like to thank all of you for your prayers, well wishes and offers to help. He is very appreciative.

He will be recuperating for a little while now. If you would like to send a card, please send or deliver it to the parish office.

Please continue to pray for Father Ralph's speedy recovery and his return to ministry very soon!
