Worshipping the Lord in the Church

We are reminded that God holds us accountable and wants us to be more responsible in our worship. Our hearts dedicated to God must be preserved from desecration. St. Paul asks, “Do you not know that you are God’s Temple and God’s Spirit dwells in you? Let us keep God’s dwelling place holy and consecrated always.

Jesus enters the temple and drives out the merchants and traders. His objection is not to the ritual sacrifices but to the abuse of religion for financial gain by merchants and religious leaders who were more concerned for money than the worship of God.

To purify the temple means to let God be supreme in our lives. That means that our business and financial dealings as well as our politics must be moderated by God’s law of justice and compassion. We should bring every aspect of our daily lives including family, work and recreation, into the temple, so that these can be purified, sanctified and placed under God’s protection.

Come join us on

DISCIPLESHIP

*"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son
and of the Holy Spirit."*

Matthew 28:19

As we contemplate the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity,
let us consider how we can follow the great commission
in our daily lives.

Mental Health Ministry

Education, Accompaniment, Advocacy

Our parish is working on implementing a Catholic Mental Health Ministry. Our mission is creating pastoral environments where people experiencing mental health challenges, those caring for loved ones who are mentally ill, survivors of friends and family members who have experienced loss through death by suicide, or anyone who needs support can share their experiences. The spaces will be open to individuals for Catholic faith sharing in an effort to grow spiritually and deepen their relationship with God.

The focus of this ministry is education, accompaniment, and advocacy.

Education

Education events around various mental health topics to help promote the reduction of mental illness stigma.

Accompaniment

Holding support groups for those experiencing a mental health challenge and those who care for them. We want to accompany, offer support, understanding and prayers as well as connect to community resources as needed.

Advocacy

Be the voice for those experiencing mental health and substance use challenges. Help others find their voice and speak for themselves looking at their capacities and strengths.

We are working with the Diocese to establish this ministry at Sacred Heart. More information will follow.

Missalettes

New missalettes for the season of Ordinary Time have been placed in the pews.

Please do not remove missalettes from the church.

If you need a missalette for someone who is homebound, please pick one up from the office. Thank you .

St. Vincent de Paul

As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity, we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise.

Your gift to St. Vincent de Paul will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them. Donation envelopes are located on the side of our food collection boxes at the entrances to the church. Thank you for your generosity to our clients.

With summer upon us we have many of our volunteers traveling so we are in need of more volunteers. Now might be a good time to come to one of our meetings to see if our ministry is a good place for you to give thanks to God for all that you have.

Join us in the St. Anthony Claret room in the lower level of the church Wednesdays at 9:15am. On the third Wednesday of the month, we meet in the evening at 7:00pm in the Forum.

Please consider joining us. Thank you.

ENGLISH BAPTISM CLASS

(Rom. 8:15)

Each year, on the Sunday following the Solemnity of Pentecost

We celebrate the Mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity, the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the Mystery of God Himself (The Catechism of the Catholic Church, #234). The Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is an absolute mystery. It is a mystery of faith in the strict sense, one of the mysteries that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God (The Catechism of the Catholic Church, #237). As the central Mystery of the Christian faith, this mystery reveals that the God whom we worship is neither absent from His people nor fully identifiable with them. The life of Our Lord on earth is a gradual revelation of this Mystery, culminating with the revelation of the Holy Spirit as a Divine Person on Pentecost. The logic of the sacred liturgy rightly places today's Feast on the Sunday after Pentecost.

The collect of our Mass expresses a living truth: that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore [God's] Unity, powerful in majesty (Collect, Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, The Roman Missal). This Mystery that God has revealed to us is more than a dogmatic, religious truth.

The Mystery of the Most Blessed Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. We do not worship an abstract thought or theory, a force or 'Supreme Being', but a Trinity of Persons who dwells in us through grace. The complexity of this Mystery, at face value, speaks to its truth. St. Thomas Aquinas observed that the truth of the Christian faith exceeds not only human minds but also those of angels; we believe in them only because they are revealed by God (De Rationibus Fidei).

The indwelling of the God in the soul through grace is our participation in the life of the Trinity, our sharing in the divine nature. To live our lives in manner befitting our dignity as children of God, we need to keep this truth in the forefront of our minds. On this Trinity Sunday we ought to ask God to grant us a profound spirit of adoration for the Triune God, of imitation of such profound love and of reparation for the sins of both commission and omission in a world where so much has been done and continues to be done to deny this truth; and where as a result, iniquity has abounded and the charity of many has grown cold (Cf. Mt. 24:12). Very cold. No priest, no Catholic can recite the prayers proper to this Feast and maintain that God wills a multiplicity of faiths or religions. St. John asks: Who is the liar but the he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son (1 Jn. 2:22). It is madness to think and act otherwise.

—Peter Ignotus from Catholic Insight

Walking Through the Mass - Introduction

By Fr. Luke Spannagel

Over the next several months, we will explore the most common things Catholics want to know about the Mass, like the following:

Why is the Mass so important?

Why do we stand, sit, and kneel at specific times during the Mass?

Where did the prayers we say at Mass come from?

When does Jesus actually become present in his Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity?

How do I pray better at Mass?

The first question that we need to talk about, the one that underlies all the other questions you might have regarding the Mass, and the question you probably haven't asked yourself, is this:

What is the Mass? This is a really important question, and we'll be deepening the answer to this throughout the series. However, as we begin, I want to give you for starters a way you can think about the Mass:

- The Mass is our participation in the one perfect Sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross.
- The Mass is our participation in true communion with God and one another.
- And the Mass is our taste on this earth of the full perfection we will experience in the Kingdom of Heaven.

The Mass is the perfect worship of the Father in heaven, and it is an inestimable source of gifts and blessings for us as well.

In this series, we will be exploring each of the parts of the Mass, beginning from that first moment when we walk through the church doors. We will start our journey next week, so keep an eye out for this column in the bulletin.

The Sensational Desert

The prickly pear are bright pink
The sand is warm and makes me think
Of lizards in the sand
And cactus wren flying in a band

The wind is whistling in the valley
Cattle gathering in a rally
Cowboys rounding up horses trotting
Fluffy clouds cover the sky dotting

The rain in the desert smells fresh, green
When spring comes flowers seen
Blooming flowers scented sweetly
Desert tortoise eating neatly

Honey from cactus is the best
Smooth and sweet, better than the rest
Javelina crunching on prickly pears
Try some rattlesnake if you dare

I feel the heat softly blowing through my hair
Gently stroking the mane of my mare
Be careful to avoid the saguaro cactus
To do this you must practice

The desert delights the senses

CRISTO EN NUESTRO VECINDARIO

Estás buscando una manera de despertar tu fe?

¿Estás interesado en aprender más acerca de Jesús?

¿Deseas estudiar las Sagradas Escrituras?

¿Quieres reunirte con personas de fe en tu parroquia?

Entonces ¡Cristo en Nuestro Vecindario es para ti!

Los invitamos a participar en este nuevo programa

“Cristo en Nuestro Vecindario”

desarrollado por nuestro Obispo John Dolan.

El programa consiste en estudiar, discutir y meditar las Escrituras dominicales, a través del cual conoceremos mejor a Cristo, nuestra fe crecerá y compartiremos con nuestros hermanos Católicos para formar una comunidad más fuerte fundada en el Amor de Jesucristo. Un año completo de Escrituras dominicales se divide en sesiones de varias semanas o mini sesiones. Los grupos pueden decidir hacer una pausa para una serie y luego reanudar cuando comienza una nueva serie. Cada serie tiene un tema, como Adviento o Pascua, para que el grupo aborde un tema determinado en su fe. Otros temas incluyen sacramentos, vocaciones, perdón y muchos más. Se formarán grupos de hasta 10 personas para reunirse semanalmente en la parroquia por una hora cada Viernes a las 6:00pm empezando Junio 30, 2023.

VAMOS! ANIMENCEN E INCRIBANSE A ESTE SU PROGRAMA
