The Basic Commandment of Love

"The Lord our God is the only one" is the message of the Bible. Only virtuous persons will understand the ways of the Lord and walk courageously. Jesus in the Gospel talks about love of God and love of neighbor as the greatest commandment.

Love of neighbor is the concrete way of showing our love to God. Both are two sides of the same coin. This love is worship and is more important than any holocaust or sacrifice.

Our Liturgy on earth reflects the beauty and peace of heavenly life. What these two commandments have in common is the call to love; where they differ is in the object of that love.

The first commandment calls us to love God and the second to love our neighbor. The priority is given to God. The two commandments also differ in the intensity of the love they command. It is only God who is to be loved with all our heart, all our soul, all our mind and all our strength. It is only God who is deserving of the love of all our being. To love God in this way is to be caught up in God's love for humanity and that is where the second commandment comes in. Love of neighbor is where the pure and total love of God invariably leads us.

The keyword is relationship; relationship with God, with ourselves and with our neighbor. May our worship help us to experience God's love in our hearts!

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR THE CONSOLATION AND RELIEF TO MAUI

As you know, the 5th Sunday collection in July was for disaster recovery. One half of that collection was sent to Operation Underground Railroad to help stop trafficking of children. The other half of that collection will be sent to the Hawaii Catholic Community Foundation ("HCCF") to provide direct assistance to the victims of the devastating fires on Maui. Per the Bishop of Honolulu, HCCF was established in 2008 as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation to support parish and school communities in Hawaii. They have set up a dedicated webpage for donations to go directly to HCCF to support relief efforts for those affected by the wildfires. This is our opportunity to show our solidarity as Catholics and lend a helping hand to those who have lost so much. We will hold off sending our parish contribution to allow time for those who wish to make additional contributions through our Parish. Please make checks payable to Sacred Heart Parish and note that the contribution is for Maui. We will then make one contribution to HCCF on behalf of our Parish.

If you wish to give directly please visit: <https://tinyurl.com/MauiCatholic>.

As always, thank you for your generosity to help those in need. God bless you.

St. Vincent de Paul

Today we hear Jesus say to us,

"For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

The challenge is to let go so God can lead us.

Through your gifts to the society of St. Vincent de Paul area families were helped with food, assistance with rent and utility bills, etc. and most importantly were able to experience the presence of God in their lives because of the charity given to them.

Thank you for your continued support and God bless you.

THAT MAN IS YOU!

Fall Semester Commences Saturday, September 16
7:30-9:00am | St Anthony Claret Room

A weekly two semester men's program hosted by Sacred Heart Parish combines scripture, solid secular research and fellowship to address the pressures and temptations facing men in our current society.

Men attending this program have been extremely pleased by the content of the program, small group dialogue and fellowship that are part of every week's gathering. These men and the Core Team feel this program brings a unique opportunity for men of our Parish area to enhance and grow in their spiritual lives and thus their lives in general.

No fee for this program.
Free offerings will be accepted but are not required.

Coffee and light snacks provided.

Walking Through the Mass – Liturgy of the Word

By Fr. Luke Spannagel

Every Mass, after the Collect, we all sit down and begin the part of the Mass called the Liturgy of the Word. We listen to some readings from the Bible, and we stand for a special reading from the Holy Gospels. As we will see, there is a very thoughtful selection of the different readings and good reasons for why they are arranged in a particular way. As an overview, the Liturgy of the Word includes:

- First Reading, usually taken from the Old Testament
- A sung or recited Responsorial Psalm
- (On Sundays and Solemnities)
A Second Reading from the New Testament (other than the Gospels)
- The Alleluia or Gospel Acclamation
- A reading from the Gospels

The Liturgy of the Word also includes the Homily, the Profession of Faith (Creed), and the Prayers of the Faithful with a concluding prayer. In the weeks ahead, we will take a closer look at each of these parts of the Liturgy of the Word.

The Word of the Lord

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal states, “For in the readings, as explained by the Homily, God speaks to his people, opening up to them the mystery of redemption and salvation, and offering spiritual nourishment; and Christ himself is present through his word in the midst of the faithful. By silence [listening to the readings] and singing [responding] the people make this divine word their own, and affirm their adherence to it by means of the Profession of Faith; finally, having been nourished by the divine word, the people pour out their petitions by means of the Universal Prayer for the needs of the whole Church and for the salvation of the whole world” (GIRM, 55).

A Three-Year Cycle

How are the readings chosen each week at Mass? Is there a pattern or certain order? Yes! Sunday readings are divided into a three-year cycle. (The readings for daily Mass are on a two-year cycle with one reading from various parts of the Bible and a Gospel reading each day.) For the Sunday readings, Cycle A focuses on the Gospel according to St. Matthew, Cycle B focuses on St. Mark, and Cycle C focuses on St. Luke. The Old Testament readings correspond to the subject of the Gospel. For example, if the Gospel is about Jesus being persecuted or people trying to kill him, the First Reading might be about one of the prophets and the conflicts he had with people. Or, if the Gospel is about the Eucharist, the First Reading might be about manna, a sacrifice, a shared meal. The Gospel of St. John is used during special times of the Church year (e.g., Christmas, Lent, Easter), during the summer Sundays of Cycle B, and it also usually has a corresponding First Reading from the Old Testament.

Tying It All Together

The Second Reading, which follows a different type of arrangement, is most often from a Letter of St. Paul to a community or individual. As we move through the three-year cycle, we also sometimes have a Second Reading from one of the other New Testament letters. Instead of mixing and matching New Testament readings to the Gospel, the Second Reading generally goes in a semi-continuous reading from one Sunday to the next (for example, in year C, the Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time features Galatians 3:26-29; the Thirteenth Sunday continues with Galatians 5:1,13-18; and the Fourteenth Sunday continues with Galatians 6:14-18; etc.). Reading one of the letters in this way provides an ongoing teaching on various aspects of the faith, especially the moral life. With all these wonderful readings, connections, and various focuses among them, it is easy to see why during some periods of Church history priests would give homilies anywhere from an hour and a half to three hours in length! Aren't you glad that most preachers try to focus on just one main idea each week?
