The Power of the Word of God

Our holy Scripture is filled with examples of the power of the Word of God. God speaks, God acts and God transforms the world. We come to know how God the Father keeps all His promises and achieves His will. The rain and snow do not stop half way. They do their job to make the earth fruitful before they go back as vapor or steam. That is the cycle in nature.

We have the same cycle in spiritual life. God gives us His gift and it makes our souls fruitful and we return the gift to Him in our prayer. We all have received various spiritual gifts; they could be forgiveness, discerning spirit, peace of heart, generosity, kindness and love of God.

Every petition in the prayer "Our Father" expresses a gift God wants to give us. God wants to show us the holiness of His name; He wants us to accept His kingdom and let Him rule our life. He wants us to do His will. He wants to give us His daily bread and forgive our sins and He does it.

He wants to keep us away from all evil. These gifts are His rain and snow to us and go back to Him as our prayer. The prayer - "Our Father" expresses the will of God. It will always be heard.

The Legion of Mary invites all parishioners to join us on the feast day of Our Lady of the Rosary

Providing Dental care for the underserved of Yavapai County.
Pain relief, extractions, fillings, cleaning, denture repair, dentures.

The Homeless Minorities Older people Low income adults

There is a dentist shortage and a dental crisis in America. The Arizona Department of Health Services has listed the Prescott-Prescott Valley area as a dental shortage area. Nationally, only 50% of dental adults have dental insurance (CDC). Medicare does not provide dental coverage. Dental care is more than cleanings, fillings, or extractions; dental care is also pain mitigation. Many of these people live with pain everyday. Dental care means improving their appearance; it means making people more employable.

Please consider a donation of volunteer time, equipment, or money. Make your checks payable to SVDP District 10 Community Dental Clinic. Mail to P.O. # DISCIPLESHIP

They said to him, "Because no one has hired us."

Matthew 20:7

How blessed are those who provide jobs for others. How blessed are those who pay an adequate wage. How blessed are educators who teach and train people. How blessed are those who offer relief to those who have lost their jobs. How blessed to be a steward and care for others!

Due to a generous parishioner donation, Bishop Barron's book, This is My Body will be made available to parishioners in the coming weeks. This is the book mentioned by Deacon Tony at our first Eucharistic Encounter night on September 6th.

Here is a brief description of the book from Bishop Barron's website:

This Is My Body: A Call to Eucharistic Revival is designed to accompany the revival. In this brief but illuminating text, Bishop Barron offers a threefold analysis of the Eucharist as sacred meal, sacrifice, and Real Presence, helping readers to understand the sacrament of Jesus' Body and Blood more thoroughly so that they might fall in love with him more completely.

Discover the profound truth flowing out of Jesus' words at the Last Supper: "Take, eat; this is my body. . . . Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant." We are grateful for the generosity of our parishioners and encourage you to take one book per family. There will also be some books available in Spanish.

Join us as we continue to journey through the Parish revival year.

Walking Through the Mass – Responsorial Psalm | By Fr. Luke Spannagel

Sing a joyful song unto the Lord! As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal states, “After the First Reading follows the Responsorial Psalm, which is an integral part of the Liturgy of the Word and which has great liturgical and pastoral importance, since it fosters meditation on the Word of God” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 61). (The “P” in the word “Psalms” is silent, so it sounds like “Salms.”)

According to the Glossary in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, a Psalm is “A prayer in the Book of Psalms of the Old Testament, assembled over several centuries; a collection of prayers in the form of hymns or poetry. The Psalms have been used since Jesus’ time as the public prayer of the Church.” There are 150 Psalms altogether, varying in length from very short (Psalm 117 has only two verses) to incredibly long (Psalm 119 has 176 verses!).

Every Condition and Time

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal indicates that the Responsorial Psalm should be sung, and that if “the Psalm cannot be sung, then it should be recited in a way that is particularly suited to fostering meditation on the Word of God” (GIRM, no. 61). We typically repeat a refrain in between the verses. The refrain gives a brief line for meditation, summarizing a theme of a particular Psalm. Speaking of the Psalms, the Catechism states, “Prayed and fulfilled in Christ, the Psalms are an essential and permanent element of the prayer of the Church. They are suitable for men of every condition and time” (CCC, no. 2597).

Speaking of the use of Psalms in earlier times, the Catechism notes, “The Psalms both nourished and expressed the prayer of the People of God gathered during the great feasts at Jerusalem and each Sabbath in the synagogues. Their prayer is inseparably personal and communal; it concerns both those who are praying and all men” (CCC, no. 2586). The Psalms still have great value for us as well.

“Whether hymns or prayers of lamentation or thanksgiving, whether individual or communal, whether royal chants, songs of pilgrimage or wisdom-meditations, the Psalms are a mirror of God’s marvelous deeds in the history of his people, as well as reflections of the human experience of the Psalmist [the person writing the Psalm]. Though a given psalm may reflect an event of the past, it still possesses such direct simplicity that it can be prayed in truth by men of all times and conditions” (CCC, no. 2588).

Jesus Prayed the Same Words

Charles Belmonte reminds us to sing the Psalms with faith and joy, recalling the exhortation of St. Paul: “St. Paul recommends that the faithful gathered waiting for the coming of the Lord sing together psalms, hymns, and spiritual canticles (see Col 3:16). The heart shows its joy by singing. Thus St. Augustine says rightly, ‘to sing belongs to lovers.’ There is also the ancient proverb: ‘One who sings well prays twice’ ” (Understanding the Mass, p. 88).

I appreciate thinking of how our Lord Jesus would have also sung and prayed these same words in the Psalms. Since we know from the Gospels that he regularly went to the Jewish prayer gatherings, we can conclude that he would also have sung the Psalms regularly. There were times he referred directly to the Psalms, such as when he started praying Psalm 22 from the Cross: “My God, My God, why have you abandoned me?”

It doesn’t get much better than spending a little time with the Lord using the exact words he used to pray. The next time you have 20 seconds to spare, try praying Psalm 117. If you have 20 minutes, check out a longer passage, like Psalm 119. If you are really feeling bold, try to sing one, whether at Church, working outside, or in the shower. It is always “good to praise the Lord!” (Psalm 92:1)
