The Divine Power of Jesus Christ

God uses His power to create, to govern, to heal and to forgive His people. Jesus exercised His divine power while He lived on this earth. He used His power to perform miracles, to drive out the demons and to heal the sick. Jesus shared this power with His disciples. The power of Jesus is not to dominate, control and manipulate others. Jesus used His power to serve, to heal and to forgive. Our mother Church received this power from Jesus, when Jesus gave the power to apostles to preach and to heal.

God shares His authority with the Pope and the other Church leaders for the spiritual welfare of His children. The power given to the Church leaders is to serve the community. Some of you are ministers in our Church. Some are ushers, others are lectors, choir members, Eucharistic ministers, greeters, altar servers, sacristans and so on. They do a wonderful job and are appreciated by the people and blessed by the Lord.

Jesus said to Simon, "You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church." Peter was given the keys to the Kingdom which admit a man to Heaven or exclude him from it, and that to Peter was given the power to absolve or not to absolve a man from his sins. This power given to Peter has descended to all the Bishops of Rome throughout all the ages, and it exists today in Pope Francis, who as the direct successor of Peter, is the head of the Church and the Bishop of Rome. So let us pray for the Pope who is charged with upholding and defending the Church's teachings.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Walking Through the Mass – The Second Reading By Fr. Luke Spannagel

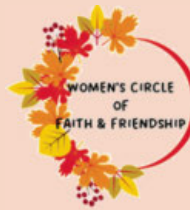

On Sundays and Solemnities, after the Responsorial Psalm, we always hear the proclamation of the Second Reading, which is taken from the New Testament books (other than the Gospels) and is generally continuous from one week to the next. While St. Paul is the most prolific of the New Testament writers, we also have readings from St. John, St. Peter, St. James, and others. Although the sentences in these readings are sometimes long and a little awkward (because they were originally written in Greek, not English), they are packed with great wisdom and directives for Christian living. As Edward Sri writes, “Though often selected independently of the First Reading and the Gospel, these New Testament writings reflect on the ministry of Jesus Christ and his saving work and the meaning it has for our lives. They also draw out the practical applications of our life in Christ and exhort us evermore to ‘put on Christ’ and turn away from sin”

(A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 64).

How to Live in Christ Daily

As we look through the books of the New Testament, we see how each writer was addressing a person or particular community with their own strengths and weaknesses. The writer knew his audience and, through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, taught these people what God asks of us and how to live in Christ every day. These readings call us to faithfulness and generosity in loving one another. Sometimes we hear joyful words of truth: “Beloved, see what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are” (1 Jn 3:1). We also hear words of consolation: “We always pray for you” (2 Thes 1:11). At other times, we will hear exhortations to holiness, such as, “Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?” (1 Cor 3:16) and “do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh” (Gal 5:13).

These writings are beneficial to us because St. Paul and the other writers were all helping early Christians understand how to live in an anti-Christian world (recall that Christianity was illegal in the Roman Empire during the first centuries of the Church). The writers provided answers to difficult questions, gave explanations for why we do certain things and not others, and exhorted the people to holiness and fidelity even in the midst of daily struggles and persecutions.

During our Fall Session we will read “You are Never Alone”. We will reflect on the miracles told in John’s Gospel and see how God is still active and at work in our lives. We are stronger than we think because God is nearer than we know. When Jesus is in our lives, we are truly never alone.

The Second Reading . . .

How to Live as a Christian in the World

A couple of very common questions today are: “How do I really live as a Christian in the world? How do I make what I do on Sunday last all through the week?” Thanks to these New Testament Readings, we have answers to these questions. Look through the readings for any Sunday, and what do you see? “Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ” (1 Cor 11:1); “For you are all one in Christ Jesus” (Gal 3:28); “For he is our peace” (Eph 2:14); “Seek what is above” (Col 3:1); “that you may not grow weary and lose heart” (Heb 12:3); “Be doers of the word and not hearers only” (Jas 1:19); “Compete well for the faith” (1 Tim 6:12); “Children, let us love...in deed and truth” (1 Jn 3:18); “He will wipe every tear from their eyes” (Rev 21:4); “Always be ready to give an explanation...for your hope” (1 Pet 3:15). Does it feel like we could keep going and going? We really could! At every Sunday Mass and on Solemnities, the Second Reading is packed with wisdom from the saints to help us become saints, too!

Annual Jog-a-thon CHALLENGE

• The Students of Sacred Heart Catholic School have once again challenged me to raise more money for the Jog-a-thon than the entire student body. They won't tell me what they have in store for me if I lose....

• In past years they have, slimed me, ice bucketed me, and made me wear a hot dog costume all day.
• Please help save me from this unknown fate and sign up to support me with your pledge. Pledge sheets are available at the school office or on the school website.
