The Divine Authority of Jesus

People encountered Him as a brother, as a unique teacher, and as the Holy One of God. A true prophet speaks with authority because it is God who speaks through him.

Jesus was recognized as a person of authority because of the word that He spoke and the good deeds that He did for others. Ultimately, His authority was rooted in God, in the Spirit of God that descended upon Him at His baptism.

God's life-giving, liberating power was working through Jesus, and, so, He was recognized by others as authoritative. The power of God's love working through Him gave Him that authority which people found so attractive and so new.

We are happy to submit to His authority, to His Lordship, because we recognize that in doing so we will have life to the full, and, like the man in the gospel, be freed of those spirits that prevent us from becoming the person God intends us to be. Man can be freed from all the evil forces by the power of Jesus.

Our Lord's words awake trust and make fear disappear. His parables attract toward God's love, not toward a blind submission to the Law. His presence makes liberty grow, not slavery; He raises up love for life, not resentment. Jesus heals because He teaches us to live only out of goodness, forgiveness, and love that excludes no one.

SALE THIS WEEKEND | NOVEMBER 18 AND 19

Due to the holidays being on the 4th weekend we are selling one week early so you can plan your holiday needs and gifts appropriately.
Cash or checks only .

St. Vincent de Paul

The good news of today's Gospel is the extravagance of what is being given us. All we need do is be faithful in "small matters". The cost of fidelity has no comparison to the reward given.

This weekend grocery bags will be distributed for food donations for our Christmas Food Box project. Please take a bag after Mass and donate what you can.

Also starting today and for two weeks decorated boxes are in the gathering place for donations of toys and gifts for children ages 2 through 13 for our Children's Christmas Party.

Please drop off money or gift cards to our office. Applications for the party are available at our office, at the church and school offices and at our thrift store on Fair Street.

The Children's Christmas Party will be

Saturday, December 9 from 10:00am to noon.

Christmas Food Box distribution is Thursday, December 21

at our office at 120 N. Summit.

Registration forms are available at the above locations.

Registration for both events is necessary.

Thank you for contributing to these projects.

Please be generous in this week's special collection For the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, more than 11% of the population lives in poverty. Through this collection, you support programs that address the root causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect remain in our diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects.

Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and support those working on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd.

Donate by using your offertory envelope or one of the envelopes located at both entrances of the church.

You can also give online at:

Walking Through the Mass – “The Fifth Gospel” | By Fr. Luke Spannagel

More on the Gospels? This week, for our final Gospel topic, we are going to discuss the fifth Gospel. Fifth Gospel?! But Father, you went into detail last time about why there are four Gospels! Before I cause too much confusion, let me clarify that the fifth “Gospel” is not one that is written. It is the place where Jesus lived, the place where he walked on the water and worked miracles, the place where he celebrated the Last Supper with the Apostles, and the place where he carried the Cross and offered himself as the perfect sacrifice to the Father for the forgiveness of sins: the Holy Land.

The Land Where Jesus Walked

A New Catholic Encyclopedia article quotes Gino Concetti’s 1974 article in L’Osservatore Romano: “The geographical and historical setting... bears a quite special witness (to Christ). It has been said that the Holy Land is itself a Gospel, the fifth Gospel. The judgment is not an exaggerated one. [...] Those places that Christians have venerated, since the beginning, as sacred because sanctified by the Savior, are still able today, 2000 years later, to re-echo his voice and his message” (New Catholic Encyclopedia, p. 245). Similarly, Pope Francis recently encouraged journalists to “keep telling stories from the Holy Land, calling it the ‘Fifth Gospel,’” a title which “has been invoked by popes from Paul VI to Benedict XVI to describe the Holy Land” (Courtney Mares, Pope Francis: The story of the Holy Land is the “Fifth Gospel” CNA, January 17, 2022). The Holy Land is more than a spot on the map half a world away: it is a true witness to the Lord Jesus as the place where he lived and walked and died for our sins! Since I had the privilege to spend some time in the places where Jesus walked, the words of the four Gospels truly do feel different. Standing by the shore of the Sea of Galilee and feeling the afternoon breeze, it is not hard to see where a large crowd could have gathered to listen to Jesus. Experiencing the dusty, dry environment brings a deeper understanding of the moment Jesus asks the Samaritan woman for a drink. Walking up the stone steps in part of the Old City of Jerusalem, the Way of the Cross is vivid and closer.

Unfortunately, the Holy Land continues to be a place of turmoil and violence. As an important center for three world religions (Christianity, Judaism, and Islam), there has been a long history of ongoing tensions. Although leaders have worked together to secure and protect important religious shrines and historical places, the struggle for territory and control has long made the Holy Land a place of unrest and uncertainty. Sadly, this uncertainty has at times prevented many Christians from journeying to Israel and walking in the places and pathways that Christ walked, losing an opportunity to grow closer to him by walking in his footsteps. May our respect for this unique “fifth Gospel” inspire us to pray always for peace and justice and for the opportunity for each soul to freely seek out the true Savior of the world, Jesus Christ.

SACRED HEART SCHOOL CORNER

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you to everyone who supported students and myself through pledges for the annual Jog-a-thon fundraiser. The students brought in over $9,000 in pledges and Mrs. Cooper and Smore (my dog) brought in almost $3,000. Together we raised $11,881!!!

Unfortunately, this meant that Smore and I had to wear a school uniform all week. Fortunately for the students they were able to wear free dress for an entire week.

These types of fundraisers help to lessen the gap between the tuition charge to families and the actual cost to educate each child. We thank you for your support of Catholic education.

Yours in Christ,

Mrs. Shelly Cooper
