Christ The King of Our Hearts

Truly, Christ is the King of the Universe and our hearts. It is easy for people to acclaim Christ as the King and Lord, in the Churches and in their homes. But it is difficult for people, to acclaim Christ as the Lord and King in the working places, in matters of personal choices and decisions and in the relationship with one another.

Jesus Christ proclaimed in the Gospel, "I am the Way, the True and the Life." There is no doubt that Jesus is the Truth and He is the Kingdom. Jesus Christ, not only preached about the Kingdom of God, but He is the Kingdom of God. Those who belong to Jesus, belong to the Kingdom of God. This Kingdom of Grace is never imposed on anyone, and our Lord always respects our freedom.

There are people who belong to the Truth and there are people who belong to the falsehood. Falsehood is not just saying lies occasionally. It is the fundamental option, the person makes, to be away from God and the Truth. There are people who prefer falsehood, because, they choose the wrong values.

Christ, however, is a King who does not kill anyone. On the contrary, He dies for everyone. He does not spill the blood of anyone, He sheds His blood for all. He does not sacrifice anyone, He sacrifices Himself for His friends. Jesus is a King who really puts Himself at the service of His subjects. His love is selfless, compassionate, forgiving, and unconditional. He is a King with a saving and liberating mission: freeing us from all types of bondage, enabling us to live peacefully and happily on earth, and promising us an inheritance in the eternal life of heaven.

He would be King of your soul but in order to let Him be that you must dethrone the false gods that seek to own you and manipulate you. But you must be the actor, you must take the initiative. Christ will not do it all for you, but He will do everything with you.

We shall surrender our lives to Jesus today and we shall give priority to his teaching in our daily choices, especially in moral decisions. We should not exclude Christ our King from any area of our personal or family lives. In other words, Christ must be in full charge of our lives, and we must give him power over our bodies, our thoughts, our heart and our will.

"Above all, let us not forget to thank: if we are bearers of gratitude, the world itself will become better, even if only a little bit, but that is enough to transmit a bit of hope."

Pope Francis

Gratitude is at the top of our minds during this holiday season. One way we can show gratitude for all the gifts of the Earth is being conscious of the food we consume and what we do with our leftovers. Did you know that about 40% of food in the U.S. goes uneaten - as much as 20 pounds of food per person each month?! You can do your part to reduce food waste first by trying not to overbuy when planning holiday meals. Then use or share the leftovers. If you aren't into leftovers, take them to the purple tent at the Prescott Farmers Market for composting. It's easy and free!

Another way you can care for our common home during the holidays is to recycle. Yes, it's profitable again! Your Care For the Earth Ministry went on a virtual tour of the facility that processes the City of Prescott recycling materials. It's an amazing operation, and all the effort we put into recycling pays off when manufacturing facilities purchase it to make new products, like playground equipment, benches, decking, clothes and more!

May you enjoy a Happy (and hopeful) Thanksgiving!

Walking Through the Mass – The Homily | By Fr. Luke Spannagel

After hearing God's Word to us in the Scriptures and especially the life and words of Jesus in the Gospel, next comes an opportunity to reflect more deeply on those words in the homily. As the Diocese of Peoria teaches, after the Gospel, we move into the "Second Half" of the Liturgy of the Word, which "consists of the homily, the Profession of Faith and the Prayers of the Faithful. These three 'moments' in the liturgy act as a bridge between the Liturgies of the Word and Eucharist" (A Study of the Mass, p. 9).

The Root of the Term

What is the homily exactly? "Homily" comes from a Greek word that means "explanation." The purpose of the "homily is to break open the Scriptures and lead us in a deeper understanding of the mysteries we celebrate" (A Study of the Mass, p. 9). From the glossary of our Catechism, the homily is "[p]reaching by an ordained minister to explain the Scriptures proclaimed in the liturgy and to exhort the people to accept them as the Word of God" (CCC, p. 882). According to the New Catholic Encyclopedia, "a homily is a more or less brief, instructive discourse on a passage of Scripture wherein the spiritual lesson of the Scriptural text is made clear... It is generally to be instructive, informal, and intelligent" (p. 271). Some might say that is a tall order!

Who can give the homily? As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal states, "The Homily should ordinarily be given by the Priest Celebrant himself or be entrusted by him to a concelebrating Priest, or from time to time and, if appropriate, to the Deacon, but never to a lay person. In particular cases and for a just cause, the Homily may even be given by a Bishop or a Priest who is present at the celebration but cannot concelebrate" (GIRM, 66). The reason that only a Bishop, priest, or deacon gives the homily in the liturgy is directly tied to the proclamation of the Gospel. One of the gifts a man receives at ordination is a particular grace for the special purpose of preaching and teaching the Gospel. Although the wording is slightly different now, I recall very clearly the part of the diaconate ordination rite where the Bishop handed me the Book of the Gospels and said, "Receive the Gospel of Christ, whose herald you now are. Believe what you read, teach what you believe, and practice what you teach." Every now and then when preparing the homily, I will think of these words which remind me that I have been chosen for this ministry. I will read through the Scriptures and recall for myself that Jesus has asked me to share these truths with God's people, hopefully to help them understand more fully, grow in faith, and live more consistently in his love.

A Link Between the Liturgies

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal teaches, "The Homily is part of the Liturgy...for it is necessary for the nurturing of the Christian life. It should be an explanation of some aspect of the readings from Sacred Scripture or of another text from the [prayers of the Mass] and should take into account both the mystery being celebrated and the particular needs of the listeners" (GIRM, 65). So, while the homily may most commonly be about the readings used in the Mass, it would be appropriate for the preacher to also reflect on one of the prayers of the Mass. I somewhat regularly will refer to phrases in the Prefaces before the Eucharistic Prayer, especially on special Feast Days when those prayers are specific to the celebration. Do we always have the homily? As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal says, there should be a homily at every Sunday and Holy Day Mass when there is a congregation. It is recommended on other days, especially on the weekdays of Advent, Lent, and the Easter Season, as well as on other "festive days and occasions" when more people are joining for the celebration (GIRM, 66). Next time, we will look more into the homily and how it helps serve as a link between the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Quienes son los del Grupo A

Nosotros los AA somos personas que hemos llegado a entender y admitir que no podemos controlar nuestra forma de beber. Nos hemos dado cuenta de que tenemos que vivir sin alcohol, si hemos de evitar el desastre para nosotros mismos y para la gente más allegada a nosotros. No imponemos nuestra experiencia con la bebida a otros, pero la compartimos cuando se nos pide.

Entre nuestros miembros se pueden encontrar personas de todas las edades y de diversa procedencia social, económica, étnica y cultural.

Estamos unidos por nuestro problema común: el alcoholismo. No creemos tener la única solución al problema del alcoholismo. Sabemos que el programa de AA nos da resultados, y hemos visto que también funciona para todos los principiantes, casi sin excepción, que deseen sinceramente dejar la bebida. El alcoholismo es uno de los principales problemas de salud en Norteamérica. Se calcula que millones de personas todavía padecen, tal vez innecesariamente, esta enfermedad progresiva. Como miembros de AA, nos alegramos por la oportunidad de compartir nuestra experiencia en detener esta enfermedad con cualquiera que busque ayuda.

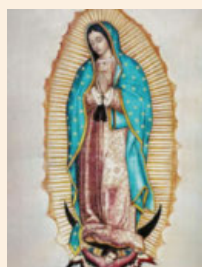

Si usted o alguien que conoce mira signos de descontrol en su manera de beber, por favor compartir esta información ya que próximamente habrá un grupo de AA que sesionara los viernes a las 7 pm.
