Intimacy with Christ during this Advent

People do not accept Christ out of love for the Church but they accept the Church out of love for Christ. Let us seek to love Christ and to make Him loved, and we will have rendered our best service to the Church. If the Church is the spouse of Christ, then like every spouse she will generate new children only in uniting herself to her Spouse through love. The fruitfulness of the Church depends on her love for Christ. The best service anyone of us can do for the Church is therefore to love Jesus and grow in intimacy with Him.

What does it mean to have a personal encounter with Jesus? It means saying, "Jesus is Lord!" the way that Paul and the early Christians said it, which determines a person's whole life forever because of it. Jesus is no longer just a memory, although alive and operative liturgically, but an actual presence. It also means not making any important decisions without having submitted them to Him in prayer. As we celebrate this mystery of Incarnation during these days, let us allow Christ to possess our heart and our whole being.

According to Jesus, among those born of women there has been none greater than John. But Jesus clarifies that there is a second birth that is much higher than being born of women, which is to be born of the spirit. Being bold and courageous even to the extent of laying down one's own life for the values that one upholds is a glorious disposition.

Those spiritually born are already dead to their ego. Like St. Paul, they too will be able to say, "I live, but not I, Christ lives in me. Through dying to their self, they have entered into the kingdom of heaven. They are fully alive in God. John the Baptist prepares the way, he baptizes with water while Jesus is the way. He baptizes with the spirit. Let us keep the image of mother Mary and John the Baptist during this season of Advent. Let us continue to rejoice and live faithfully our Christian call.

St. Vincent de Paul

As we begin Advent we are called to "Be watchful! Be alert!" as we stand in joyful anticipation for the grace of Christmas to once again bless our lives.

Thank you for supporting the Sacred Heart St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) Conference. St. Vincent de Paul helps with food, clothing, shelter and medical needs, essential auto repair, utilities and furniture, and provides referrals for clients to obtain additional resources.

This past year has been very rewarding for the 70 Vincentians and 36 volunteers who provided over 20,000 hours to our neighbors. In the past year, SVdP met with our neighbors (clients) 3538 times to understand their needs and provided financial assistance that helped 6482 people. The food pantry, including food donations and purchased items, provided 5264 nutritious food boxes for our Prescott neighbors.

The Sacred Heart Parishioners, local businesses, and civic organizations provide 100% of the SVdP budget. Sacred Heart SVdP is a qualified charitable organization, and your donation to SVdP entitles you to AZ tax credit.

May your Christmas Season be blessed with Peace and Love .

Walking Through the Mass – A Deeper Look at the Homily By Fr. Luke Spannagel

This week, we look more closely at the Homily. As the Diocese of Peoria teaches, the homily "serves as an integral link between the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Before the apostles recognized Jesus in the 'breaking of the bread,' he explained the Scriptures to them, 'filling their hearts with a burning desire.' The homily strives to kindle a fire of love for God and His Church. As a 'bridge' it draws us deeper into the mysteries we celebrate—most especially the mystery of the most Holy Eucharist" (A Study of the Mass, p. 9). So, as you can begin to see, the homily is really packed with a number of important goals!

Inspiration from the Church Fathers

One of the earliest written descriptions of the Mass is from St. Justin Martyr, who was writing a little earlier than 165 AD. As he describes the prayers and meaning of the Mass, I am always struck by how similar they are to our celebrations today. It is a great testament to the guiding work of the Holy Spirit and continuity of our Catholic faith and liturgy. When St. Justin describes the homily, he talks about how the leader exhorts the people to imitate the good things they have just heard. All these centuries later, preachers are still following this same pattern. The priest may use different kinds of homilies for different circumstances, taking into account what the people are like, what they know already, what kinds of involvement they have, what types of concerns are currently happening on the local level, etc. All of these elements will affect both what the faithful need to hear and how well they will understand it and live it out each day. No matter what the circumstances, and no matter what the background of the people is like, all homilies really have one thing in common: Jesus Christ who died and rose for us and our life in him. A wise old seminary professor once said, "If you never say anything else in the pulpit except Jesus loves you and wants you to be with him, the main essentials will always be in every homily."

A Bridge Between the Two Halves

So, our focus should always be on Christ, his love for us, and what that means in our lives. We focus on Christ's four-fold presence to us at every Mass: he is present in the Word of God, in the priest, in his assembled people, and especially in his Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist in a most unique way. We focus on Jesus through the Scriptures and God's loving Word to his people. We focus on Jesus dwelling among us, offering himself for our sins, rising in triumph, and continuing to be with us through the Holy Eucharist. The Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1346, states: "The liturgy of the Word and liturgy of the Eucharist together form 'one single act of worship'; the Eucharistic table set for us is the table both of the Word of God and of the Body of the Lord." It is important to remember that the Mass is not just a sequence of unrelated events: it is a perfect unity in Christ. The first half helps us get to know God (and ourselves), nourishing our faith in God; the second half helps us unite with him in body and soul. The hope of the homily, then, is to help bring these two halves together so that the faithful can go out into the world and really live the life of Christ.
