Women Disciples in The Service of The Lord

Our Gospel talks about the women disciples. Few women followed Jesus and ministered him. They did not have the title of apostles, but they were disciples of Jesus. The women were at the foot of the cross and also at the dawn of the resurrection. The risen Christ first appeared to Mary Magdalene. This woman disciple received the first mission from the risen Christ. Jesus told her, “Go and tell my brothers that I am risen. That’s why she came to be called as the apostle of the apostles. Jesus owed the care and formation of his childhood to our Lady. Son of God is also son of Mary.

The women disciples accompanied Jesus and his apostles in their preaching and bringing the good news to people. Jesus accepted women disciples in his ministry and the Church is blessed to have many women religious who are engaged in different kinds of ministries in the Church.

There are many women in the Church engaged in many ministries, giving consolation to many suffering people and giving a caring response. Women’s special gifts like generosity, practicality, intuition and tenderness are irreplaceable. And they make use of their special gifts in taking care of people who are in their care. May God bless all women who work in different ministries in the Church!

9 MONTH FOR LIFE NOVENA TO OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

MARCH 12 TO DECEMBER 12

NOVENA PRAYER

Virgin of Guadalupe, Patroness of unborn children, we implore your intercession for every child at risk of abortion. Help expectant parents to welcome from God the priceless gift of their child’s life. Console parents who have lost that gift through abortion, and lead them to forgiveness and healing through the Divine Mercy of your Son. Teach us to cherish and to care for family and friends until God calls them home. Help us never to see others as burdens. Guide our public officials to defend each and every human life through just laws. Inspire us all to bring our faith into public life, to speak for those who have no voice. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.

Our Father, 3 Hail Marys, Glory Be

We will have a crowning of Mary followed by Marian welcoming prayers and the recitation of the Holy Rosary with a light reception in the gathering place.

Please bring flowers for Our Blessed Mother

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, Jesus says
"Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."
Indeed, by helping the poor we can "bear much fruit" and we find that with Jesus we can do everything.
Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show that you are indeed the disciple of Jesus as it will bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and sometimes despair. Envelopes for monetary gifts are attached to the food collection boxes at the entrances to the church. They can be mailed to us or deposited in the collection tower near it. Please leave only non perishable food in the food boxes. Other donations can be made at our thrift store on Fair Street.
Thank you for your generosity.
God Bless you for your gifts of goods and prayers.

Preschool 10% of Collection

While part of Sacred Heart Catholic School, the Preschool is nonprofit and does not receive subsidized funding. We operate on our tuition and fundraising from generous parishioners. Many of our families do require some financial assistance in order for their children to receive the quality education set by the Diocese of Phoenix. We are blessed to have two certified teachers in our preschool and are able to accommodate 20 students. Thank you for your continued prayers and support. This weekend 10% of the collection will benefit our Preschool to support tuition scholarships.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal today! Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered mission territories because they are unable to fund essential pastoral activities needed in their communities.

Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States.

Please be generous.

More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions.

You can donate online or with your offertory envelope. Envelopes will also be available at both entrances to the church.

Walking Through the Mass – Sanctus
By Fr. Luke Spannagel

Last time, we took a closer look at the Preface, which in many ways sets the tone for the Eucharistic Prayer. At the end of the Preface, as the Diocese of Peoria teaches, “we join with the choirs of heaven in singing the endless song of praise. The Second Vatican Council teaches that the Liturgy is both a foretaste and promise of the heavenly Liturgy. The Liturgy on earth is united to the Liturgy in heaven, and this is made vividly clear when we join them in song. ‘Holy, Holy, Holy’ is a heavenly superlative acclamation of praise and worship” (“A Study of the Mass,” p. 13).

A Foretaste of Heaven

This next part of the Mass is called the Sanctus, perhaps more commonly referred to as the Holy, Holy, Holy. As is true with many parts of the Mass, we can find these words in the Holy Scriptures. The prophet Isaiah saw a vision of the Lord on a throne with angels singing, “Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of hosts!” (Is. 6:3). In St. John’s vision of heaven, the four living creatures continuously exclaim, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God almighty, who was, and who is, and who is to come” (Rev. 4:8). Perhaps we will also recognize the second part of the Sanctus from the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday: “Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest” (Mt. 21:9).

Charles Belmonte recalls how the Sanctus reminds us of the beautiful presence of the angels at the Mass: “We join our own voices with those of the hosts of angels in awe, wonderment, and great enthusiasm... St. John Chrysostom describes the presence of angels during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with these words: ‘The angels surround the priest; all the temple, especially the sanctuary, is populated with celestial hosts of angels who honor God, present on the altar’” (Understanding the Mass, p. 131). Have you ever thought of this? In a very real way, the Sanctus helps to remind us that our participation in the Mass is truly a foretaste of heaven. When we gather as the Body of Christ for the Mass, united with Jesus truly present, the WHOLE Body is present there! That means every member of the Christian faithful is present with us—all those around the world, all those from various times (including those who have gone before us), and all those who are gathered together in heaven around the throne of God... including the heavenly hosts of angels! Imagine telling your friends on Monday: “All the angels of heaven were at my church on Sunday!” It’s true!

Be praised, my Lord, for Sister Water, who is very useful to us, and humble
and precious and chaste.

Canticle of Creation
St. Francis of Assisi

“Water is a precious and finite resource to be protected and shared.” This was the focus of a message from Pope Francis last Fall marking World Food Day. The theme of the 2023 celebration was: “Water is life, water is food. Leave no one behind.” He reminded us that water must be safeguarded and managed in a sustainable way so that everyone can enjoy it. And he ended his message calling for urgent action: “Let us make haste, therefore, to give drink to the thirsty. Let us correct our lifestyles so that we do not waste or pollute. Let us become protagonists of that goodness that led St. Francis of Assisi to describe water as a sister ‘who is very humble, and precious and chaste.’

Your Care for the Earth Ministry has a display in the bulletin case outside the front entrance to the church that gives us all ideas on how to protect and manage this precious resource. Please stop by to find ways you, too, can be a part of the solution.

Excerpts from Catholic News Service

Walking through the Mass — Singing with the Angels

With this wonderful image in mind, when we sing the Sanctus, we are joining in the praise the angels are singing for God. What exactly is this song of praise? Charles Belmonte relates that a certain “Cardinal Bona (seventeenth century) explains that this hymn contains three praises and two petitions: First, we extol the holiness, power, and supreme dominion of God, when we say, ‘Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of [hosts].’ Then, we praise his glory which shines forth in all creatures, when we say, ‘Heaven and earth are full of your glory.’ Third, we laud Christ by saying, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.’ While saying this, we invite him to come to our souls with the same affection and devotion with which his Blessed Mother received him at the annunciation. The two petitions are: ‘Hosanna in the highest;’ we say it twice, asking for our salvation and everything that leads to it. The first petition is addressed to God, and the second to Christ” (Understanding the Mass, p. 133–134).

If praising the Lord with the angels is this exciting, just imagine how joyful we will be when Jesus is truly and substantially present on the altar!

Dear Friends of Sacred Heart School,

As St. Mother Teresa once said, "We are all pencils in the hands of God." I think I speak for all of the educators at Sacred Heart Catholic School when I say that we experience the 'hands of God' each and every day that we are working with students. My favorite moments of being an educator is when I've allowed the Holy Spirit to give me the words I needed to speak. I believe this is when we have the most impact with our students. I am always in awe when I am witness to students practicing their faith without prompting from an adult. I once looked out of my window at my former school and saw an 8th grade boy kneeling down in front of the Virgin Mary and Juan Diego statues. I later asked him what he was doing and he stated "I just felt like I need to pray the Rosary".

Just this past week at our school Mass, students were witness to a class mates baptism. As I looked around the church, all I saw were gleaming smiles and sheer excitement for the baptized student.

The Sacred Heart school family never cease to amaze me and bring sunshine to my life.

Yours In Christ,
Mrs. Shelly Cooper

Sacred Heart Catholic Preschool is nonprofit and does not receive subsidized funding. We operate on our tuition and fundraising. May 10, 2024 we will be holding our annual Trike-A-Thon. Why is our preschool an important factor of our community? This year, three students were observed during child directed enrichment time praying over their pretend breakfast. The teacher asked, "Why were you holding hands before eating?" One student stated, "Because we have to pray before we eat our lunch at school." The teacher asked him if he thanked God for meals at home. He said, "Of course, daddy makes us because we are a family." The teacher then stated, "Are we a family here at school?" Yes he replied.

Please consider being a donor towards our preschool. Your prayers and monetary support are greatly appreciated. Addressed preschool envelopes are located on the Information Table in the Gathering Area and can be placed in any Sunday collection, or dropped off at the school or church office. Checks should be made payable to the Preschool.
