The Right Attitude Before God

The Gospel talks about the virtue of humility. The scribes were driven by appearances. They were slaves to their vanity. Their interior security lasted only as long as praise flowed from the mouths of those around them. They were more driven by the applause of men than the approval of God. Since their piety was a mere show, it left no deep mark in their soul and could not free them from their disordered passions.

Externally they appeared religious, but within they were a seething mass of vice. In their greed, they “devoured the houses of widows.” Is our piety for show or for God alone? This is our choice: the applause of men or the praise of God.

Sometimes it is easy for us to get caught up in what others have -- what they are doing or saying. We fall into the trap of comparing ourselves with others, and probably most of the time we don’t measure up! It causes nothing but anguish. Yet, God doesn’t compare us to others. He loves us. He made us as we are, with our unique combination of talents and abilities. He measures our generosity not by what we give, but by what we hold back for ourselves. Remember, the happiest are not those who have everything but those who give everything they have.

We can depend on the words of Jesus to Saint Faustina: ‘Your duty will be to trust completely in my goodness, and my duty will be to give you all you need. If your trust is great, then my generosity will be without limit.’

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today,
 Jesus says to us, This is my commandment:
*“love one another as I have loved you . . .
 You are my friends if you do what I command of you.”*

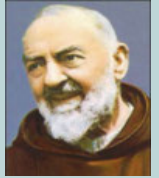

By your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you fulfill this commandment. When we visit our clients, our neighbors in need, we bring them goods whether it is food, help with bills or other obligations but more importantly sometimes we are their only social contact. The time spent listening and talking with them is so precious to them and they appreciate the prayers that we offer with them also. This is such a gratifying ministry and we invite you to join us in providing this much needed help to our neighbors in need. Thank you for your gifts of food, money and prayers. Consider coming to a meeting on Wednesdays at 9:15 am in the St. Anthony Claret room in the lower level of our church.

Walking Through the Mass – Eucharistic Prayer Options | By Fr. Luke Spannagel

Having just joined the angels in singing the Holy, Holy, Holy, we next kneel down in adoration for the Eucharistic Prayer. Why do we kneel at this time? We kneel to prepare ourselves for the Lord Jesus to be really, truly, and substantially present on the altar. As Fr. Stefano Manelli relates, St. Louis IX, King of France, who was known to be regularly at Mass and would kneel on the floor, once said, “At Mass God offers Himself as a sacrifice, and when God sacrifices Himself, kings should kneel on the floor” (Jesus Our Eucharistic Love, p. 24). Adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is really an extension of the adoration we have for Jesus on the altar after the Consecration and in the elevations of the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Mass.

The Commonalities and Differences between Eucharistic Prayers

You may have noticed that there are several options for the Eucharistic Prayer, which begins after the Sanctus. Although each Eucharistic Prayer is unique and has particular emphases, each has the same main elements, including the epiclesis, institution narrative and Consecration, anamnesis, oblation, intercessions, and concluding doxology. We will cover each element in detail as we continue.

Looking through our current Roman Missal, we find ten Eucharistic Prayers from which the priest can choose. The first four (The Roman Canon: Eucharistic Prayer I, along with Eucharistic Prayers II, III, and IV) are probably the most familiar, as they are often included in worship aids and other prayer books. The Missal also includes two Eucharistic Prayers for Reconciliation and four Prayers for Masses for Various Needs. These options have the following titles: “The Church on the Path of Unity”; “God Guides His Church along the Way of Salvation”; “Jesus, the Way to the Father”; and “Jesus, Who Went About Doing Good.” These last four prayers come with suggestions for when they might be appropriate to use; for example, the prayer “Jesus, the Way to the Father” would be a good fit for a Mass “For the Evangelization of Peoples” or “For Persecuted Christians.” There are also three Eucharistic Prayers for Masses with children (found in a separate book and prescribed only for Masses in which the majority of the participants are children).

Eucharistic Prayers I–IV

Sometimes people ask if I have a favorite Eucharistic Prayer. My honest answer is that each one is special in its own way. I really do like each of them! Eucharistic Prayer I includes many names of saints, which reminds me that we are supported by the witness and prayers of those who have gone before us (more on these saints in the near future). It also has several unique prayers for special days like Christmas and Easter. Eucharistic Prayer I is also called the Roman Canon, indicating its origin and centuries-long use in the Latin Rite of the Roman Catholic Church. Eucharistic Prayer II has some of the oldest known prayers in the Mass, which go back to the 200s A.D. I am always strengthened by the thought that those early saints and martyrs were praying almost word-for-word the same words we use today; that is unity throughout time and place! Eucharistic Prayer III notes the Holy Spirit in particular and has a place for inserting the name of the saint of the day or patron saints. Eucharistic Prayer IV is really a tour of salvation history and reminds me of the Gospel of St. John with phrases like, “And you so loved the world, Father most holy, that in the fullness of time you sent your Only Begotten Son to be our Savior.”

Phrases from Other Eucharistic Prayers

Among the other Eucharistic Prayers, here are a few phrases that I really love to pray: “Help us to work together for the coming of your Kingdom, until the hour when we stand before you, Saints among the Saints in the halls of heaven” (Reconciliation I). “May he make your Church a sign of unity and an instrument of your peace among all people” (Reconciliation II). “Lord renew your Church (which is in N.) by the light of the Gospel” (Various Needs I). “And so, having called us to your table, Lord, confirm us in unity...” (Various Needs II). “You are indeed Holy and to be glorified, O God, who love the human race and who always walk with us on the journey of life” (Various Needs III). “Open our eyes to the needs of our brothers and sisters; inspire in us words and actions to comfort those who labor and are burdened” (Various Needs IV).

After taking a closer look, we see there really is a rich variety in the different prayers we can use at the altar in the Mass.

Whichever of these Eucharistic Prayers is prayed, be assured that the same holy sacrifice of Christ takes place, glory and honor is given to God, and the very Body and Blood of Jesus becomes present on the altar in front of us!

Sacred Heart Catholic Preschool is nonprofit and does not receive subsidized funding. We operate on our tuition and fundraising. May 10, 2024 we will be holding our annual Trike-A-Thon. Why is our preschool an important factor of our community? This year, three students were observed during child directed enrichment time praying over their pretend breakfast. The teacher asked, "Why were you holding hands before eating?" One student stated, "Because we have to pray before we eat our lunch at school." The teacher asked him if he thanked God for meals at home. He said, "Of course, daddy makes us because we are a family." The teacher then stated, "Are we a family here at school?" Yes he replied.

Please consider being a donor towards our preschool. Your prayers and monetary support are greatly appreciated. Addressed preschool envelopes are located on the Information Table in the Gathering Area and can be placed in any Sunday collection, or dropped off at the school or church office. Checks should be made payable to the Preschool.
