Holiness in Married Life

Marriage, like Holy Orders, is one of the sacraments of service. The Church has always spoken of marriage as having two purposes – the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of children.

The sacrament exists for the salvation of others. Husband and wife must care for each other in many ways pooling finances, making meals for each other, cleaning the house, caring for each other when they are sick, listening to another when they are frustrated or lonely.

But ultimately, the most important thing you will do for one another is to care for each other's souls. The spouses the greatest good is that we are saved, that we go to Heaven. It is your mission to help your spouse get to Heaven.

You must pray for one another, pray with each other – drag each other to Mass and to confession when they are lazy or procrastinating or distracted.

Set a good example for each other. Remind each other of the Gospel, commandments. Correct one another with gentleness and humility. Encourage each other to strive further in overcoming selfishness, and living your life in love for others.

Today our Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven; let our hearts ascend with Him.

Listen to the words of the Apostle:

If you have risen with Christ, set your hearts on the things that are above where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God; seek the things that are above, not the things that are on earth.

For just as He remained with us even after His ascension, so we too are already in heaven with Him, even though what is promised us has not yet been fulfilled in our bodies.

St. Vincent de Paul

Today we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. As we celebrate the feast of the Ascension, we are reminded that Christ's saving work on earth continues through his disciples . . . and now through us.

The Sacred Heart Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is pleased to present to you, our benefactors, the following statistics of the work that has been completed from October 1, 2023 through March 31, 2024.

Clients served 4548      Home visits 460
Office/other visits 1608

Laundry vouchers 329	Food boxes 3853

Walking Through the Mass Background of the Eucharistic Prayer By Fr. Luke Spannagel

What is the background for the Eucharistic Prayers? We begin with what Jesus himself said and did. Fr. Guy Oury writes, “According to St. Paul and Saint Luke, Jesus ‘gave thanks’ (1 Cor. 11:24; Lk 22:17). According to Saint Matthew and Saint Mark, he ‘said [a] blessing’ (Mt. 26:26; Mk 14:22). The two expressions are equivalent. They designate a blessing prayer of thanksgiving that was customary among the Jews. The ritual of the Passover meal, which may have been the setting for the institution and first celebration of the Eucharist, included such a prayer” (The Mass, p. 92–93). If we look through the Gospels, we will see Jesus often giving thanks. This reminds us of the word Eucharist, which means thanksgiving!

The Jewish Roots of Eucharistic Prayers

As Edward Sri observes, “Scholars have noted that the Eucharistic prayer has roots in the Jewish table prayers recited at every meal. Near the start of the meal, the father of the family or the one presiding over the community would take bread and speak a blessing (barakah) which praised God, saying: ‘Blessed are you, Lord, our God, king of the universe, who has brought forth bread from heaven.’ The bread was then broken and given to the participants, and the people began eating... When the meal neared its conclusion, the presider prayed a second and longer barakah over a cup of wine. This blessing had three parts: 1) praise of God for his creation; 2) thanksgiving for his redemptive work in the past (for example, the giving of the covenant, the land, the law); and 3) supplication for the future, that God’s saving works would continue in their lives and be brought to their climax in the sending of the Messiah who would restore the Davidic kingdom” (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 93). Doesn’t that structure and content sound familiar? Sri goes on to say that this pattern was found in early Eucharistic prayers and is still present today. We also see this pattern in the writings of St. Justin and St. Hippolytus.

The Promises to the Jews Fulfilled in Jesus

It makes sense that Jesus prayed in the pattern of the Jewish people of his day. What was different, and what changes these prayers for us, is when Jesus said, “This is My Body. This is My Blood.” As Fr. Oury continues, “In his blessing prayers, and especially the one he spoke on the eve of the Passion for the institution of the Eucharist, Jesus went beyond the blessing prayers of his contemporaries. He referred to more than the benefits of creation or the blessings of the history of salvation in the Old Testament. He showed the promises fulfilled in himself... At the Last Supper Jesus left his disciples a memorial of his covenant. He left them certain actions to be perpetuated: breaking and distribution of bread, presentation of the cup, together with the words of institution” (The Mass, p. 94).

Loving God,
as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children,
so you give life and care
for your Church.
Bless these women, as we celebrate this day in their honor.

May they be strengthened as Catholic mothers.
Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor and appreciate them with a spirit of profound respect.
May the example of Mary, mother of Jesus, inspire them to live their vocation as Catholic mothers and call their children to faith.
Guide and protect them in challenging times and help them to continue to trust in you all the days of their life.

–Archdiocese of New Orleans

Background of the Eucharistic Prayer

Knowing more about the Jewish background can be a great help to us in understanding customs and references we find in the Scriptures as well as seeing how many prayers of the Mass took shape. Above all, this background can help us understand even more clearly the longing for the Messiah and the amazing gift that Jesus is as he is truly present with us! As we continue our journey through the parts of the Mass, the notes of thanksgiving and praise will continue to be present, as well as ongoing reminders of how Jesus is truly present with us and why the Mass is such a unique and perfect prayer of praise to the Father.
Challenge for the week: See how many times you notice “thanks” present in the Mass!

9 MONTH FOR LIFE NOVENA TO OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE MARCH 12 TO DECEMBER 12

NOVENA PRAYER

Virgin of Guadalupe, Patroness of unborn children, we implore your intercession for every child at risk of abortion. Help expectant parents to welcome from God the priceless gift of their child's life. Console parents who have lost that gift through abortion, and lead them to forgiveness and healing through the Divine Mercy of your Son. Teach us to cherish and to care for family and friends until God calls them home. Help us never to see others as burdens. Guide our public officials to defend each and every human life through just laws. Inspire us all to bring our faith into public life, to speak for those who have no voice. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.
