The Glory of Virginity

St. Paul gives a piece of advice to the virgins in the first letter to the Corinthians. In the early Christian community some of the widows did not remarry and they remained celibates for the service of the Lord and for the community.

Paul highly appreciates the life of virgins for the following reasons: Time is running out and people are already living in the apocalyptic age. The second coming of the Lord is close by and the world is going to end soon. So, he advised the married people to live as though not really married in the sense to live like virgins.

He encouraged the singles not to get married, because the world is coming to an end. He encouraged the virgins to live that way that they would be better prepared to receive the Lord when He comes to the world.

All consecrated persons choose the life of virginity and celibacy to imitate the lifestyle of Jesus Christ while He lived on this earth. The life of virginity makes them available totally for the kingdom of God and their lives call for total self-sacrifice and offering to the Lord and the Church counts on them, as they imitate the bridal nature of the Church, eagerly waiting for Jesus Christ, her Bridegroom.

“The truth is that sitting in silence with the Lord is necessary for a fruitful Catholic life.

All are welcome to join in this simple and powerful prayer given by Jesus Himself to St. Faustina and promoted by Pope Saint John Paul II.

Walking Through the Mass – The Epiiclesis By Fr. Luke Spannagel

Continuing now with the individual parts of the Eucharistic Prayer, we come to a really action-packed moment: the Epiiclesis. What is the “Epiiclesis”? How do we even pronounce it? (A common pronunciation is Epp-eh-lee-sis.) Charles Belmonte teaches, “In the Epiiclesis, the priest requests God the Father to send the Holy Spirit so that the bread and wine offered may become Christ’s Body and Blood and so we may be able to celebrate the Eucharistic mystery, and to make all the effects of the sacrament operative in us. At the same time, the priest extends his hands, palms downward, over the chalice and host, and traces the sign of the cross over them. With this gesture, he asks God to pour his blessing over the gifts offered and to turn them into his Son’s body and blood” (Understanding the Mass, p. 135). That is a lot of action for a few quick words! This is an important moment because it gives us notice about what is soon to come: the changing of the bread and wine into the very Body and Blood of Jesus.

Why Bells Are Sometimes Used during the Epiiclesis

According to the Diocese of Peoria, “The Epiiclesis is the invocation of the Holy Spirit upon the gifts to be offered... It is through the power of the Holy Spirit who descended upon the apostles at Pentecost that the priest, through his hands, offers the human gifts and earthly elements to be consecrated into Godly gifts and heavenly realities. Often we may hear the ‘sanctus bell’ to call our attention to this invocation and calling down of the Holy Spirit” (“A Study of the Mass,” p. 14). This might be a good time to mention the use of bells which, depending on your local traditions, you may hear a few different times during the Eucharistic Prayer, including at the Sanctus, Epiiclesis, elevation of the Body and Blood of Jesus after Consecration, and after the priest receives Communion. Why bells? Perhaps especially our students will recognize the importance of bells (or similar signals), which help call our attention to a significant moment. For me, during my school years, the lunchtime bell was always a welcome sound! Similarly, during the Eucharistic Prayer, the sound of a bell can direct our attention to important moments, such as kneeling in preparation for Jesus who is to become present, asking the Holy Spirit to make our gifts of bread and wine worthy for the sacrifice of Mass, looking upon our Lord truly present in adoration elevated above the altar, or in our immediate preparation for Holy Communion. Although some may note that the bell is a tradition from times past when people often didn’t know the language of the prayers, in humble honesty, many of us will recognize that we still often need a call to attention so we don’t miss these important moments.

VOLUNTEERS ARE GREATLY NEEDED TO SERVE OUR LORD

Extra Ordinary Ministers of Holy Communion outside of the Mass or more commonly referred as Ministers of Care (MOC) at Sacred Heart, are volunteers who present the Holy Eucharist to our Catholic community members who are unable to attend Mass.

These Catholic community members are in nursing facilities, assisted living residences, in the hospital or are just homebound in the Prescott area.

These brothers and sisters in Christ desire the Living Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

A Prayer Asking for the Holy Spirit's Help

Although we normally think of the Eiclesis as the calling down of the Holy Spirit in anticipation of the changing of the gifts into the Most Holy Eucharist, as is often the case with the prayers of the Mass, there is even more there. Fr. Guy Oury explains, "The sign of acknowledgment and acceptance by God will be fruitful union with the sacrifice... But there can be more than one reason for this prayer. It may be to ask for acceptance of the sacrifice. It may also be to ask for fruitful participation in the sacrifice through Holy Communion. Or it may be to ask for the Consecration" (The Mass, p. 100). The bottom line is that we know we need the Holy Spirit's help! To celebrate the Mass faithfully, receive Communion faithfully, and live faithfully: for all these acts, we need the Holy Spirit.

So, the next time you hear that bell or see the priest extend his hands palms-down over the offering, remember that we are asking the Holy Spirit to sanctify the gifts and each one of our hearts!
