Worshipping the Lord
in the Church

We are reminded that God holds us accountable and wants us to be more responsible in our worship. Our hearts dedicated to God must be preserved from desecration. St. Paul asks, “Do you not know that you are God’s temple and God’s spirit dwells in you? Let us keep God’s dwelling place holy and consecrated always.

Jesus enters the temple and drives out the merchants and traders. His objection is not to the ritual sacrifices but to the abuse of religion for financial gain by merchants and religious leaders who were more concerned for money than the worship of God.

To purify the temple means to let God be supreme in our lives. That means that our business and financial dealings as well as our politics must be moderated by God’s law of justice and compassion. We should bring every aspect of our daily lives, family, work and recreation, into the temple, so that these can be purified, sanctified and placed under God’s protection.

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel the people ask:
"How is it such miraculous deeds are accomplished by His hands?"

Because of your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul many "miraculous deeds" are accomplished for the poor. When you gift our ministry with food, money, donations to our thrift store or shopping at our thrift store and your prayers know that through your kindness someone who is suffering will be touched by God in a miraculous way. God bless you for your generosity and compassion.

Join the TREE OF LIFE

Heaven has no limits, nor does our Tree of Life!

We want our Tree of Life to reach the heavens and be filled with leaves of love!

Sacred Heart Parish is the oldest parish in the Diocese of Phoenix. We have much to be grateful for and many reasons and ways to say “Thank You” to our loving God. Please consider letting others also acknowledge those special people and events in your life.

Share your gratitude, thoughts and memories on the Tree of Life.

The Tree of Life is permanently mounted on the north wall inside the foyer of the main entrance of the church. Each leaf you sponsor will be printed with your acknowledgement.

By placing a leaf on our Tree of Life, you are helping our mission of evangelization. Your support helps over 100 active Sacred Heart ministries. Our ministries are involved in the lives of hundreds of people throughout our Sacred Heart and Prescott communities. We help with Eucharist to the Homebound, Funeral Ministries and Homeless Suppers, just to name a few.

You can make a difference in our community!
Let's fill the canopy on the Tree of Life!

Prayerfully choose to be part of the Tree of Life!

SAY “YES” TO COMMUNITY IN TWO WAYS:

- 1) Your memorial becomes a part of the Sacred Heart Parish community. It becomes something that all others can prayerfully acknowledge.
- 2) Your financial contribution makes possible the work of our parish ministries. Your support impacts our immediate community and the community of the greater Prescott area.

PEOPLE OF ACTION BELIEF IN PRAYER

Our beautiful Tree of Life will display more than 200 leaves that are 1.5” x 4”. The number of characters and lines available for each leaf is limited only to how simple or complex you want the printing to be. You will need to indicate the type of leaf you wish to have, along with the inscription on the order form.

Proceeds from the Tree of Life go toward the stewardship efforts of our Sacred Heart Parish Ministries.

Brochures are available in the Church Office and on the table in the Gathering Place.

“The truth is that sitting in silence with the Lord is necessary for a fruitful Catholic life.

I want all Catholics to know that we don’t need to be afraid to spend time in silence with Jesus — that He’s waiting to love us and transform our hearts and lives.”

—Bishop James D Conley, Lincoln, Neb.

SPANISH BAPTISM CLASS

Monday, July 8 | 6:00pm to 9:00pm

in the Forum

Please call Jimena Aragon at 445-3141 to register.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Next week, our parish will take up the annual National Black and Indian Mission Collection. The Black and Indian Mission Collection exists to help local African American and Native American Diocesan Communities throughout the United States spread the Good News of Jesus Christ and respond to real and pressing needs on the ground. Your financial support of the three organizations of the Black and Indian Mission Office help form children in the faith, educate young people, and build hope – a hope often so hard to find in the areas our missionaries serve.

Please give by using your offertory envelope or online at <https://osvhub.com/sacredheartprescott/giving/funds>.

Envelopes are also available at both entrances of the church.

Walking Through the Mass – Saint Names in Eucharistic Prayer I By Fr. Luke Spannagel

As we have been reflecting on the Intercessions of the Eucharistic Prayers, perhaps it is a good time to address all those saint names in Eucharistic Prayer I. Who are all those people? Of course, the first list begins with Mary and Joseph and then the “blessed Apostles and Martyrs,” including Peter, Paul, Andrew (Peter’s brother), James (“the Greater”: the brother of John), John, Thomas, James (“the Lesser”: the son of Alpheus), Matthew, Bartholomew, Simon (“the Zealot”), and Jude (also called Thaddeus).

The First List of Saint Names

Continuing this first list of saints in Eucharistic Prayer I, as Charles Belmonte notes, “Five popes head the list: St. Peter’s first three successors, Linus, Cletus, Clement; then two popes of the third century, Sixtus II and Cornelius; Cyprian, Bishop of Carthage, the intrepid defender of Catholic unity; the deacon Lawrence, who when his persecutor demanded from him the ‘treasures’ of the Church, showed him hundreds of poor people; Chrysogonus, a Roman priest who carried out the holy work of comforting the Christians who were in prison; two brothers, John and Paul, both officers of the [Roman] imperial palace, who were put to death under [the emperor] Julian the Apostate; and lastly, Cosmas and Damian, two Oriental physicians who gave their aid freely, and at whose graves there occurred ‘yet more cures than they had effected in their lives’” (Understanding the Mass, p. 158).

The Second List of Saint Names

As for the second list of saints in Eucharistic Prayer I, we ask for “some share in the fellowship” of several saints who were martyrs. Belmonte continues, “It mentions, in the first place, John (here obviously St. John the Baptist), and then seven men, followed by seven women, all martyrs. Stephen is the first deacon, whose glorious martyrdom is recounted in the Acts of the Apostles (6:8-7:60). Two apostles come next: Matthias, elected to take the place of Judas (Acts 1:15-16) and probably left out of the first list so as not to exceed the number of twelve, and Barnabas, St. Paul’s companion in his first missionary journey. Ignatius is the famous bishop of Antioch, sentenced to be fed to the wild beasts in Rome under [emperor] Trajano. Besides their names and the place of their martyrdom, little else is known of Alexander, the priest Marcellinus, and the exorcist Peter, who were all put to death in the great persecution of [emperor] Diocletian. The list continues with the names of the two young girls, Felicity and Perpetua (their names form the expression ‘everlasting happiness’), who confessed their faith at Carthage [in North Africa]; and of Agatha and Lucy in Sicily. It concludes with the names of two young martyrs beloved by the Romans, Agnes and Cecelia; and of Anastasia, martyred at Sirmium and later honored in Rome” (Understanding the Mass, pp. 159–160).

All these saints are important because they were among the many early witnesses to Jesus Christ and the Christian faith. These are our spiritual fathers, our older brothers and sisters in Christ, who showed us that our faith was worth living and dying for. They showed us that, strengthened by the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist and the presence of the Holy Spirit in their hearts, they could overcome any persecutions and sufferings, even to the point of being killed. These saints give us great hope, and their prayers for us give us confidence that we, too, can live out the faith as they did, that we can live our life in Christ every day and look forward to the glory of heaven!
