Identity of Jesus Lamb of God

John the Baptizer is walking along with two of his followers. Suddenly they come across this strange man from Nazareth and John speaks some strange gibberish about a “lamb of God.” At once John’s friends drop him like a hot potato and start following Jesus. What was it about Jesus that made people drop everything, from fishing nets to tax receipts, and take off after Him?

“Look – the Lamb of God!” The Lamb clearly signified the image of sacrifice to that Jewish audience. Lambs were offered in the temple as expiation for sins. At the end of the Gospel, John the evangelist tells us that Jesus was crucified on the day of the preparation for the Passover. This was the day when the lambs were offered in the temple.

While all these offerings were going on in the temple, the real Lamb of God was being slain on Calvary. A real contrast: thousands of lambs slaughtered to no effect in the temple while the one perfect, saving sacrifice occurred beyond the temple precincts. But there is this similarity: Just as the Jews were saved by the Passover animal, so are we saved by the human Lamb of God.

SPECIAL NOTE

FROM

FR. RALPH BERG

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

This is a very difficult time for all of us. Change is never easy. These past years, it has been a joy and privilege for me to serve the people of Sacred Heart, and to share so much of our faith journey with you.

The Claretians have been in Arizona for more than a century. The memory of the many wonderful and faith-filled Claretians priests and brothers have blessed and inspired us. The vast majority of these great men are already at peace and happiness in the Lord's eternal Kingdom.

At the same time, we Claretians have been inspired and strengthened by you and the thousands of parishioners and other people of faith who have shared our journey. There is no possible way for us to adequately thank you for all that you have been for us and all you have done for us. I am comforted with the certain faith that we will be together again, and we will have all eternity to thank you for the blessing you have been for us.

Now, as we look to the future, we are filled with trust and confidence that the Lord, who has guided us so lovingly and so faithfully in the past, and who is with us in this challenging moment, will be with us in even greater and more wonderful ways, in the future.

Even though, in a short time, we will physically leave the ministry of these past years, Sacred Heart Parish will always be a part of the "Claretian Family." God bless you all! You will always be in my prayers and in my loving memories.

Your brother in the Lord,
Fr. Ralph Berg, C.M.F.

St. Vincent de Paul

In this Sunday's Gospel Jesus tells his disciples to
"Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while."

Vincent de Paul, a great man of action was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God's love overflowed into practical love for the poor. Please say a special prayer for the poor and forgotten, as you consider your gifts to the clients served by the Sacred Heart Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul ministry. We appreciate all that you do for this mission of charity serving the poor of the Prescott area. God Bless you and your families.

"To preserve the natural world as the primary revelation of the divine must be the basic concern of religion."

Thomas Berry, CP

The U.S. bishops state in "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship": "We have a moral obligation to protect the planet on which we live — to respect God's creation and to ensure a safe and hospitable environment for human beings, especially children at their most vulnerable stages of development. . . . Our Conference offers a distinctive call to seriously address global climate change."

NETWORK, a national Catholic advocacy organization founded by Catholic sisters in 1972, works to achieve equity and justice for everyone. They have created a resource to help us discern how to be faithful voters in keeping with Catholic Social Teaching. You can find their 2024 Equally Sacred Checklist online by simply searching by the title. In the resource, you'll find headings like: Freedom to be Healthy; Freedom to Live on a Healthy Planet; Freedom to Care For Ourselves and Our Families. Each topic includes questions such as these: "Will you vote for candidates who support ending hunger in our nation, who will ensure all eligible voters have access to voting, who will address pollution and toxic dumping, and who will address skyrocketing housing costs . . . ?"

Let us all pray for wisdom as we educate ourselves on how to vote for candidates who promote the common good and preserve our natural world. Bless you for all you do to care for our common home.
