Walking Through the Mass – Doxology
By Fr. Luke Spannagel

Today we are in the homestretch of our journey through the Eucharistic Prayer of the Mass! At the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer, the priest prays some very special words: The Doxology. The glossary of our Catechism defines doxology as a “Christian prayer which gives praise and glory to God, often in a special way to the three divine persons of the Trinity” (CCC, 875). The Catholic Source Book tells us the word doxology comes from the Greek doxa, which means “glory.” In our tradition, the Gloria can be referred to as the “Greater Doxology” and the prayer “Glory Be” the “lesser doxology” (The Catholic Source Book, p. 7). There are many doxologies found throughout our prayer, including those in the Bible. For example: “For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.” (Romans 11:36). Another example is: “To him be glory now and to the day of eternity” (2 Peter 3:18).

Gratitude for Participation in Jesus’ Offering
As for the doxology of the Eucharistic Prayer, the priest raises the chalice and paten, and sings or says: “Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever.” As the Diocese of Peoria teaches, “These words of praise addressed to the Father summarize well the reality of what has just taken place: the sacrificial offering of the Son to the Father through the Holy Spirit” (A Study of the Mass, p. 16). For me as a priest, this is always a truly special moment where I feel an overlapping mix of unworthiness and joy. Elevating Jesus in the Eucharist above the altar, I am often struck with a sense of being allowed to participate in something truly amazing! Here is Jesus truly present, being offered to the Father through this moment in the Mass. This moment of elevation reminds me of Jesus on the Cross—lifted up, giving everything in love for us. As I hold Jesus up above the altar, I feel that the gesture is saying to God the Father: “Here is Jesus, your Beloved Son; here is the One who loves us perfectly and gave everything for us!”

Fr. Guy Oury mentions this “offering gesture” and how “the offering is that of the Son and at the same time that of the Church. The Mass is inseparably both—an offering made by Christ and by the Church. It is one through the other. The sacrifice of Christ makes possible the sacrifice of the Church and evokes it in response. The Church, to speak in figure, receives the offering from the hands of Christ. He instituted it for the Church, which presents it with him” (The Mass, p. 103). I’m often amazed at the humility of Jesus: in his generosity and love, he invites us through the priest to join in this moment of offering and praise! —Continue on page 5

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks "Do you also want to leave?" We must ask ourselves if we really want to hear the good news of his love for us and for others. Is the word of God able to break into our consciousness, change us and call us to hear the cries of the poor? Please consider joining us in our ministry of serving the poor of our community. Come on Wednesday to the St. Anthony Claret room of the church at 9:15 to meet our group and sit in on a meeting. We can find a job for you and train you to help us on our mission. God Bless you for considering this invitation.

ARE YOU,
OR SOMEONE
YOU KNOW,
SUFFERING FROM THE LOSS OF A LOVED ONE?

The Bereavement and Grief Support, six week educational program offered by Sacred Heart, consists of weekly sessions that help people to know what to expect and not to expect during the grieving process. It gives you the opportunity to share your thoughts and feelings in an environment of understanding and empathy. It also gives you the tools you need for your recovery and healing.

The next program will begin on Wednesday, September 11, 2024
Please give us a call so we can reserve a place for you, as space is very limited.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This collection supports the Church in more than 25 countries that struggle to recover from former communist rule. It also aids communities throughout the region that are affected by the war in Ukraine. Funds support pastoral care, catechesis, renovations, and seminary formation. Your support restores the Church and builds the future in this region. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection next week.

You can find more information at www.usccb.org/ccee. Please give by using your offertory envelope or online at <https://osvhub.com/sacredheartprescott/giving/funds>. Envelopes are also available at both entrances of the church.

United with the Church,
Both on Earth and in Heaven

Charles Belmonte breaks down the words of this doxology, highlighting the ways we are invited into this moment through Jesus, "Through him: Through Jesus' mediation, we have access to God... With him: We are children of God, through the adoption Christ merited for us... In him: There is one and the same life in him and in us... In the unity of the Holy Spirit: The Church is a unity brought together by the Holy Spirit. He joins us together as believers and gives us the life of grace by which we become children of God. He dwells in us, enabling us to offer the sacrifice of praise to God, together with the entire Church" (Understanding the Mass, p. 162).

This moment of the Mass brings us to the great culmination of the Eucharistic Prayer and the one perfect sacrifice of Jesus. As some saints have reminded us, in a very real way we are joined with the angels and saints in the heavenly liturgy. As Jesus is offered to the Father through the Holy Spirit, it seems that all of creation should burst forth together in praise and joy. How can we hold back in the midst of such a wonderful gift? As we will see, we all have a response at this moment that praises God: The Great Amen!

CURSILLOS IN CHRISTIANITY

Pronounced “kurr see yo”

Do you want to grow closer to the Lord? Do you know how to grow closer? I am sure some of you have heard of Cursillo and for those of you who have not “ Listen with the ear of your heart.”

Cursillo has its roots in the Catholic Church in the 1940s in Spain and has extended its program internationally and across various Christian denominations over decades. .It has been with the Catholic Church here in the Phoenix diocese for over 60 years. The word Cursillo means “short course.” Thus, the Cursillos in Christianity means “a short course in Christianity.”

Cursillo offers a simple method to seek and develop a Christian spirituality, mentality, activity and community. Participating in the Cursillo movement provides an encounter with self, Christ and others.

Cursillo has numerous talks with Spiritual Advisors. This can be priests, nuns and deacons and lay persons and dialogues about such topics as habitual grace, layperson in the Church, actual grace, piety, study and action, Sacraments and activities beyond the Cursillo. Participating in the Cursillo Movement is a joyful proclamation of being Christian. It will change your life!

The next Women’s Cursillos weekends are scheduled for October 17-20 in Camp Verde and November 7-10 in Phoenix.

The next Men’s Cursillo is scheduled for October 24-27 in Phoenix.

If you would like to know more about this program or to reengage with current Cursillo activities in the Prescott area, please contact:

Michael King, Sacred Heart Cursillo Parish Rep at 928-925-3645 or mandmking68@gmail.com.
