Walking Through the Mass — The Great Amen By Fr. Luke Spannagel

Amen! Today we look at our response at the end of the doxology: the Great Amen. After the priest sings or says, “Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever,” the people respond with, “Amen!” What exactly does Amen mean? Amen is a special word that most often is understood to mean, “So be it.”

What Does the Word “Amen” Mean?

As the glossary of our Catechism says, Amen is “A Hebrew word meaning ‘truly; it is so; let it be done,’ signifying agreement with what has been said. The prayers of the New Testament and of the Church’s liturgy, and the Creeds, conclude with ‘amen.’ Jesus used the word to introduce solemn assertions, to emphasize their trustworthiness and authority” (CCC, p. 865). As Edward Sri writes, “‘Amen’ transliterates a Hebrew word that affirms the validity of what has been said and was often used in liturgical settings. For example, when the Levites sang, ‘Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting,’ the people joined in this blessing of God by exclaiming, ‘Amen!’ (1 Chr 16:36).” Sri goes on to say, “Most notable is how the angels and saints in heaven cry out ‘Amen’ as they sing their part in the chorus praising God in the heavenly liturgy. In the book of Revelation, every living creature in heaven and earth and under the earth says, ‘To him who sits upon the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might for ever and ever!’ And in response, the angelic creatures say ‘Amen!’ as if to shout out, ‘Yes! May the Lord be blessed and honored forever!’”

(A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 120).

What Is the “Great Amen” in the Mass?

Ok, so why is the “Amen” of this part of the Mass called the “Great Amen”? Fr. Oury teaches, “The Amen of the people has special importance at this moment of the celebration. It is more than ever a response and assent. Concerning it Bossuet wrote: ‘In the Book of Revelation the elect are represented to us as ever singing Amen to God. Amen in sacred parlance is Yes, a firm and definite Yes that conquers assent, or rather, the whole heart. That is how they love in heaven. Ought we not do so on earth?’” (The Mass, p. 103). Similarly, Charles Belmonte instructs, “This is the most important Amen in the Mass. It is for us both a resolution and a prayer. A resolution upon which our love for God blooms; a prayer based on the future hope of resurrection”

(Understanding the Mass, p. 163). —Continue on page 5

A woman with an unexpected pregnancy may have any number of fears and challenges: facing judgement from her friends and family, losing her job or housing, or being abandoned by the father of her child. Inspired by the Blessed Mother's example and guided by the Holy Spirit, may we offer Christ's presence and love to mothers in their time of need through our faithful service and support. You can Help. For more information contact Walking With Moms in Need Linda Wood 520-403-1179

St. Vincent de Paul

The Gospel today hits home closer than we may think. What traditions do we blindly cling to? Perhaps it is just enough for us to go to Mass on Sunday. Do we keep the letter of the law and miss entirely the spirit of the law? Interior righteousness means a heart turned to God. Purity of heart is expressed in righteous living, self-giving for the sake of others. As you give your gift to the poor through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, in your heart you also will find the good news of God's love. Thank you for your continued support of the mission of serving the poor of our community. God Bless you for your selflessness in helping us to do God's work.

The parish-owned house at 221 N Summit Avenue (formerly Father Gary's home) has been renovated and is available for rent. The house has two bedrooms and 1 bath. The rent is $1,400 per month and the tenant is responsible for utilities. Our preference is to rent to a parishioner. If you are interested, please contact Jim at the parish office at 928-445-3141.

How Should We Say The "Great Amen"?

If we think about our journey through the Mass, it makes sense to say this Amen is the most important. Take a moment to think about what has recently happened in the Mass: bread and wine were brought forward, along with all our prayers and sacrifices offered in union with Jesus. Through the words and actions of Jesus, the priest prayed the Eucharistic Prayer, and the bread and wine have been changed into the very Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity on the altar: Jesus himself is truly present with us! This is Almighty God with us! This is Jesus who loved us so perfectly that he gave everything for us! This is the moment of Jesus being offered to the Father in perfect praise, and we have been invited to join with Jesus!

Hopefully, we are so excited about what has just taken place that we want to belt out our Amen with great joy and fervor! With this mentality of joy and celebration, Belmonte quotes St. Jerome: "Let us sing or say the Great Amen with all our hearts united to all our brothers. Let it resound the whole world over, as the Amen of our early brothers in the faith 'resounded in heaven, as a celestial thunderclap in the Roman basilicas'" (Understanding the Mass, p. 163). Wouldn't that kind of "Amen" get the attention of our neighbors? "What was that loud sound that shook the ground? Oh, it was the Catholics at Mass singing Amen!"

God is Love

1 John 4:16

“I believe that Saint Francis is the example par excellence of care for the vulnerable and of an integral ecology lived out joyfully and authentically....He shows us just how inseparable the bond is between concern for nature, justice for the poor, commitment to society, and interior peace.”

Laudato Si Encyclical (10)

The 2024 Season of Creation starts September 1, the Day of Prayer for Creation, and ends October 4, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of ecology. The theme of this year’s celebration is “To Hope and Act with Creation.” Throughout the Season, the world’s 2.2B Christians come together to care for our common home.

In Pope Francis’ Message for the Day of Prayer for Creation, he urges us to become “tillers of the garden.” We can take that quite literally! Our bulletin case at the front entrance of the church focuses on gardening. Growing a Garden. Organically. Choosing Native Plants. Composting. Setting up a Rain Catchment System. Watering with a Drip System. Attracting Pollinators. All of these are signs of Hope and Action with Creation. And best of all, growing food (and flowers!) will bring you joy! Thank you for all you do to care for the Earth.

WE ARE IN NEED OF ADDITIONAL USHERS

at the 5:00pm Sunday Mass.
If anyone is willing to volunteer,
please contact the parish office.

Thank you for your willingness to serve.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

This week our special collection supports the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. Your donation helps restore the Church and build the future in more than 25 countries still struggling to recover from former communist rule and now the war in Ukraine. Funds from this collection support reconstruction, education, formation, and poverty outreach. Thank you for your generosity to the collection today.

For more information, please visit www.usccb.org/ccee.

Please give by using your offertory envelope or online at <https://osvhub.com/sacredheartprescott/giving/funds>.

Envelopes are also available at both entrances of the church.
