We would like to thank all of our parish staff who put in so many extra hours and all of our wonderful volunteers who worked so hard to make the Heritage Festival a success. Thanks to all who attended and supported the festival and all the related events. Let's all keep working to make our Sacred Heart Parish community stronger! God bless you all.

St. Vincent de Paul

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus asks Bartimaeus:
"What do you want me to do for you?"

And he answers, "Master, I want to see."

Let us ask Jesus for the grace to "see" our brothers and sisters who are poor and lonely.

Our ministry helps the poor in our community with food, shelter and clothing but more importantly sometimes no matter how great their worldly needs are they need time, companionship, someone to listen and hear their story. We are blessed to be able to spend time with our clients and neighbors, to listen and to pray with them.

Pantry need: 32-ounce plastic bottles of vegetable or canola oil. Thank you.

ANNOUNCEMENT

There is a Finance Council Meeting Wednesday, October 30 at 5:00pm. | Sacred Heart Room

Divine Mercy Chaplet together in song, every Friday

3:00 ~ 3:30p.m. in the Church.

All are welcome to join in this simple and powerful prayer given by Jesus Himself to St. Faustina and promoted by Pope Saint John Paul II.

God of all seasons, we thank you for Autumn. We thank you for the touch of coolness in the air that gives us a new burst of energy, for the coloring of trees that shows the creativity of the Divine Artist, for the falling leaves that reveal the strength of the branches, for the hues of fields that bring peace to our souls, for the smiles on pumpkins that bring joy to our children, for the fall harvest which brings us gratitude for the bounty of our land, for this change of seasons that reveals the circle of life. God of all seasons, as you transform the earth, transform us by your Spirit. Amen

Doug Leonhardt, S.J.

The mission of Justice, Peace and Integrity of Creation (JPIC) was defined by Pope Paul VI as that of "keeping the eyes of the Church open, its heart sensitive and its hand prepared for the work of charity which it is called upon to realize in the world."

At Sacred Heart, our JPIC ministries are committed to this mission in a wide variety of ways. Just Coffee is one of those ministries which supports a family run coffee grower cooperative in Mexico. Cafe Justo markets a pure, organic, fair trade coffee grown, harvested, and marketed in the spirit of justice. And the coffee is delicious!

Please stop by our Care For the Earth display case at the front of the church to see more information about this life changing cooperative, and how our own Just Coffee ministry supports them. And the next time you see the Just Coffee folks selling coffee at Sacred Heart, stop by to pick up a bag or two. As the holidays are approaching, keep in mind that this delicious coffee makes a great gift, too! Bless you for all you do for God's Creation.

Walking Through the Mass – How to Receive | By Fr. Luke Spannagel

You may have noticed that people receive Communion in different ways. Is there a right way? How exactly should we receive Holy Communion? First of all, it is important to notice that we receive Communion. Holy Communion is our greatest gift, a gift to be received through the generous love of Jesus. Holy Communion should never be taken by our own action. As The General Instruction of the Roman Missal states, “It is not permitted for the faithful to take the consecrated Bread or the sacred chalice by themselves and, still less, to hand them on from one to another among themselves. The norm established for the Dioceses of the United States of America is that Holy Communion is to be received standing, unless an individual member of the faithful wishes to receive Communion while kneeling” (GIRM, 160). Adjustments are possible for those unable to stand or kneel. Many churches have areas where Communion is brought directly to the pew for those who find walking to receive Communion difficult. The instruction makes clear that we are receiving the gift of Holy Communion and not taking this gift for ourselves, a truth we emphasize in the posture we observe as we receive the Sacred Host. For those receiving in the hand, we hold our hands steady with an open palm throne to receive Our Lord truly present. For those receiving on the tongue, we are still as we wait for the placement of the Sacred Host on the tongue

Why Do We Bow Before Receiving Communion?

I often see people bowing before approaching the minister. Should I do that also? Yes! As the GIRM continues, “When receiving Holy Communion, the communicant bows his or her head before the Sacrament as a gesture of reverence and receives the Body of the Lord from the minister... When Holy Communion is received under both kinds, the sign of reverence is also made before receiving the Precious Blood” (GIRM, 160). As I have often shared when teaching children about postures of prayer and reverence, our sign of reverence actually provides an opportunity for our bodies to help remind our minds and hearts who we believe is before us. We believe that Jesus, Almighty God, Second Person of the Trinity, is there before us in the Holy Eucharist. Our bow helps us recall that he really is there and that we believe he really is there! Like so many parts of our lives that are repeated regularly, we may risk just going through the motions at this part of the Mass. However, if we do that, we would be overlooking Jesus truly there before us! The next time you are approaching Holy Communion, take the challenge of really bowing with reverence and recall Jesus is there. Perhaps pray to yourself those words of St. Thomas: “My Lord and My God” (John 20:28). Along these lines, the Diocese of Peoria says, “Even the procession toward Communion is a great ritual act, as we humbly approach the Lord Jesus. The Bishops of the United States have asked that we make a bow as a sign of reverence toward the Eucharist before receiving... It is an encounter as we receive him—Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity!” (A Study of the Mass, pp. 19–20).

Practical Tips for Receiving Communion

How about some practical tips? Absolutely! As I mentioned above, one great way of being in the mode of “receiving” is to stay still as the minister brings the Host to you. As a practical note, I have often noticed that some people will lunge forward toward the Sacred Host, or at times those intending to receive on the tongue will even bite the host or lick upward. For those receiving in the hand, I have noticed that sometimes people will already be closing their hand before the Host is placed there. I presume these might be ways of trying to help the minister; however, it truly is easiest and perhaps the most prayerful if you remain still until Jesus in the Sacred Host comes to you.

For those receiving in the hand, Fr. Oury notes that St. Cyril offers instruction: “When you approach, do not come with palms of the hand spread flat, nor with fingers wide apart... [M]ake him a throne with your left [hand]. In the hollow of your hand receive the Body of Christ and answer: Amen... [C]onsume [The Host] and be careful that none of it be lost... Tell me, if you were given some grains of gold, would you not guard them with the greatest care so as not to lose any one of them and be the poorer? Should you not be even more careful not to let drop the least particle of what is more precious than gold or precious stones?” (The Mass, pp. 121–2; Mystagogical Catechesis 5, 21). St. Cyril reminds us to have a worthy reception of the King of Kings, certainly both in receiving him well and also in honoring his presence in even the smallest fragments. St. Cyril invites us to examine our hands and fingers for any particles of the Eucharist after we have received Our Lord.

One last practical tip might be to think about what you are saying when you say, “Amen.” I encourage you to make it a vigorous Amen, reminding yourself that word means, “Jesus, I believe you are really here.” This Amen is an important prayer of faith at the moment of receiving Holy Communion. Charles Belmonte reflects further on the Amen: “Yes, Lord, I believe. I love and I hope in you. I know my time of waiting is over, for my hope is now made into a reality which fulfills the deepest needs of my faith and my charity. You are mine, and I am yours... My soul worships you in stillness” (Understanding the Mass, p. 187). Let us make this beautiful prayer of faith our own, the next time and every time we say Amen and receive the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus!

Queridos padres de niños y jóvenes:

Esta Encuesta Familiar Católica ayudará a nuestra parroquia a comprender mejor a su familia y su vida como padre. ¡Los resultados de la encuesta son muy importantes!

Se utilizarán para crear un plan parroquial para apoyar a los padres de niños y jóvenes, y para involucrar a toda la familia en la formación en la fe, desde el nacimiento hasta la graduación de la escuela secundaria.

La encuesta solo tardará entre 8 y 10 minutos en completarse.

¡Si tienes algo de tiempo, se les agradece de antemano que nos ayuden a llenar esta encuesta!

Muchas Gracias y Dios los Bendiga.
