A Message from

FR. CHRIS AND FR. BIJU

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

As we enter the Advent season, we pray that you find moments of quiet reflection and prayer, making space for the Lord in your hearts.

Advent draws us into a season of change, longing, and expectation. As the days grow shorter and the darkness increases, we light candles on our Advent wreaths, reminding us that Jesus is the true light of the world, the light that shines in the darkness.

As a parish family of Sacred Heart, we have shared so much over the past four months since we arrived as new priests in the community. We've witnessed the joy of baptisms, the union of marriages, and, sadly, the loss of loved ones, celebrating their lives through Masses. Each of these occasions has been a precious moment for us to grow closer to God, our Father.

This is also a time to look back and express our gratitude to so many in our community for their generous offerings of time, talents, and treasures.

As we approach Christmas, let us give thanks for all the blessings that God has bestowed upon us, especially His extraordinary presence among us and His gift of salvation. Please be assured of our prayers.

Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Support those who have given a lifetime

Women and men religious have dedicated their lives to service praying, teaching, and caring for those in need usually for little to no pay. Today, their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings. Your donation provides for the essential care, medicine, and daily needs of thousands of senior women and men religious. Please give generously.

Please donate by using your offertory envelope or one of the envelopes in the pews or on the information tables in the church. You can also give online at:

Walking Through the Mass – Prayer After Communion | By Fr. Luke Spannagel

“Let us pray.” Following Holy Communion and our time for prayer, we prepare to go forth out into the world. This is called the Prayer after Communion. As the General Instruction of the Roman Missal says, “To bring to completion the prayer of the People of God, and also to conclude the whole Communion Rite, the Priest pronounces the Prayer after Communion, in which he prays for the fruits of the mystery just celebrated...The people make the prayer their own by means of the acclamation Amen”(GIRM, 89). According to the Diocese of Peoria, “Often times [this] Prayer beseeches God to put the graces received in the Eucharist into practice, and to bring the celebration to fulfillment in Heaven. [This] Prayer often indicates our mission as disciples of Christ in the world” (A Study of the Mass, p.20).

Short, Quick and Wonderful Prayers

These prayers can very often be short and quick... although to miss them is truly to miss something wonderful. For example, consider these Prayers after Communion from the Solemnities of our Lord during Ordinary Time:

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi): “Grant, O Lord, we pray, that we may delight for all eternity in that share in your divine life, which is foreshadowed in the present age by our reception of your precious Body and Blood. Who live and reign for ever and ever.”

The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus: “May this sacrament of charity, O Lord, make us fervent with the fire of holy love, so that, drawn always to your Son, we may learn to see him in our neighbor. Through Christ our Lord.”

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe: “Having received the food of immortality, we ask, O Lord, that, glorying in obedience to the commands of Christ, the King of the universe, we may live with him eternally in his heavenly Kingdom. Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.”

While I certainly would enjoy sharing many more of these rich prayers, these examples give us a good idea of what we are praying at this part of the Mass. We are recalling the amazing gift we have received. We are asking that the fruits of Jesus truly present will strengthen us in his love as we go out in the world. We are looking toward sharing the fullness of life with our loving Lord in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Preparing to Go Forth as Missionary Disciples

As Charles Belmonte teaches, the Prayer after Communion actually helps very well to pull together what we have heard, said, and done at the Mass: “We have been nourished with the ‘bread of life,’ the food which is the source of our fortitude. This virtue of fortitude enables us to sustain the daily combat against our passions and our weaknesses... The virtue of fortitude goes hand in hand with the capacity of sacrificing oneself... The Gospel is addressed to weak, poor, meek and humble men, to peacemakers and to the merciful, but, at the same time, it contains a constant appeal to fortitude. The Gospel often repeats: ‘Fear not’ (Mt 14:27). It teaches man that, for a just cause, for truth, for justice, one must be able to ‘lay down one’s life’ (Jn 15:13)... We can profit a lot from the Prayers after Communion by using them as an inspiration for personal reflection during the course of the day”(Understanding the Mass, p.191–3).

Being honest with ourselves, we know that sometimes at this point in the Mass we are looking ahead to what is next, perhaps a nice family meal or enjoying the big game. The Prayer after Communion, however, reminds us that the fruits of the Mass don’t just take place within the church walls—they also happen in our minds and hearts. As we get ready to go forth, hopefully we have been strengthened with resolve for faithfulness. Hopefully, our hearts have become more like the One who loves us best. So, instead of thinking past this moment in the Mass to your exit plan from the parking lot, why not use this as one last opportunity to put everything together and really prepare to go out into the world as a missionary disciple of Jesus Christ? If we do this, we won’t as easily forget the great graces we have received at the Holy Mass. Instead, we will actively carry them with us throughout the day—and even better—share them with others!

SACRED HEART SCHOOL CORNER

SPAGHETTI WESTERN DINNER

Sacred Heart Catholic Preschool and School lives by our Mission Statement which states that we are a community of faith, dedicated to providing an education that promotes academic excellence, quality of character, social responsibility, and spiritual growth. We recognize we cannot do this without the support of our Parish, Church and School families.

Our 14th Annual Spaghetti Western Dinner which kicks off Catholic Schools Week is scheduled for January 26, 2025. During this schoolwide fundraiser, we raffle off various thematic baskets. Would you please consider donating items or a whole basket? Example items could include gift cards, assortment of sweet treats and/or desserts, beers or other fine adult beverages, lottery and/or movie tickets, pet items, etc.

If you'd like to donate, please contact me at jwagner@shcsprescott.com or call me directly at 928-445-3141 ext. 472 or drop off items at the Church or School office before January 6, 2025
