Jubilee Year 2025

“The signs of the times, which include the yearning of human hearts in need of God’s saving presence, ought to become signs of hope. The first sign of hope should be the desire for peace in our world...”

- Pope Francis,
Jubilee Year 2025 Bull of Indiction

Bishop Dolan has designated Sacred Heart Parish in Prescott as a Jubilee Year Pilgrimage site. We will be receiving a Peace Pole from the Diocese to be installed outside our church and to clearly identify the parish as a Jubilee Site. There will be a special Mass celebrated by Bishop Dolan on the Feast of the Epiphany, January 5, at 9AM followed by a reception.

Our site and all pilgrimage sites within the Diocese of Phoenix will also have a poster with a QR Code. Each QR code will unlock a portion of an image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Pilgrims who unlock the entire image by visiting all the sites will be eligible to receive a gift from the Diocese. We will also have prayer cards for pilgrims to take with them.

The Vatican has set up a special website for the Jubilee year. On this site, you can find out more information about pilgrimages worldwide, register for Jubilee Year events, view the Jubilee Year calendar, Jubilee prayers and much more. There is also a mobile app that can be used for your convenience.

"AN INTRODUCTION TO PRAYER"
 by
BISHOP ROBERT BARRON

This book contains a collection of Bishop Barron's writings on prayer and is in response to Pope Francis' declaration of 2024 as a year of prayer in preparation for the Jubilee Year 2025.

The Books will be available in the Gathering Place a few days before Christmas.

Las Posadas is a religious Mexican tradition that re-enacts Mary and Joseph's search for shelter. Las Posadas take place December 16 to 24 and commemorate the journey that Joseph and Mary made from Nazareth to Bethlehem in search of a safe refuge where Mary could give birth to the baby Jesus. To re-enact this event people go from house to house, singing songs, and asking for a place to stay (rent-free).

You are invited to join us for Las Posadas at Sacred Heart!

"Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love"
-St. Teresa of Calcutta

"Material things do not give fullness to life. They are important but they do not fill life. Only love can do that."

Pope Francis at August 4 2024 Angelus

The Ignatian Solidarity Network offers a daily Advent Simplicity Challenge. Here is one of their reflections for us to contemplate as we prepare our hearts for Jesus:

Learn

We are now in a time of online shopping deals in anticipation of the holiday season. However, all of creation is in a state of anticipation this Advent and needs a break from the strains of consumerism. As we enter a time that is filled with advertisements and coupons encouraging us to buy more, the image of Jesus, born in a humble manger under a shining star, is a reminder that we do not need more material goods to live a good life focused on love and justice.

Pray

Today, pray for the grace to discern how much is enough and how you are being called to simplify this Advent.

Act

Unsubscribe from at least one email marketing campaign or unfollow a company or influencer on social media that might tempt you to buy more than is necessary or items you do not need.

Project Linus Organization

Is a 100% volunteer non-profit organization with our mission being "The best kind of sleep under heaven above is a blanket handmade with love."

Some of the children's classes at Sacred Heart and St. Vincent de Paul have been recipients of many new and fresh blankets from Project Linus.

We are always in need of yarn and fabric.
To become a "blanketeer" or donate new yarn or fabric, please call Dee at (928) 445-5851.

Walking Through the Mass – Concluding Rites and Blessing | By Fr. Luke Spannagel

Strengthened by the true presence of Jesus and following the Prayer after Communion, we are truly ready to go out into the world. What happens before moving from our pews to our cars? That would be the Concluding Rites. As The General Instruction of the Roman Missal lays out, “To the Concluding Rites belong the following: (a) brief announcements, should they be necessary; (b) the Priest’s Greeting and Blessing, which on certain days and occasions is expanded and expressed by the Prayer over the People or another more solemn formula; (c) the Dismissal of the people by the Deacon or the Priest, so that each may go back to doing good works, praising and blessing God; (d) the kissing of the altar by the Priest and the Deacon, followed by a profound bow to the altar by the Priest, the Deacon, and the other ministers” (GIRM, 90).

Many parts of the Concluding Rites mirror what we did at the very beginning of Mass, including the priest’s greeting and response from the people: “The Lord be with you.” “And with your spirit.” What happens next, though, is special to the end of Mass. It also happens to be one of my favorite things about being a priest: blessing the people.

What is a Blessing?

Our Catechism of the Catholic Church glossary includes a definition for Blessing: “A blessing or benediction is a prayer invoking God’s power and care upon some person, place, thing, or undertaking. The prayer of benediction acknowledges God as the source of all blessing” (CCC, p. 868). Furthermore, “Among sacramentals, blessings (of persons, meals, objects, and places) come first. Every blessing praises God and prays for his gifts. In Christ, Christians are blessed by God the Father ‘with every spiritual blessing.’ This is why the Church imparts blessings by invoking the name of Jesus, usually while making the holy sign of the cross of Christ” (CCC, 1671).

I love being able to ask God’s strength, help, and protection upon people through blessings. As the Catechism indicates, the act of blessing turns toward God and acknowledges all the good that comes from him and then asks a share of that good for a particular purpose. This is drawn out more clearly through the Solemn Blessings and prayers over the people that can be used at the end of Mass. When one of these is used, the Deacon or Priest will give an instruction after the priest’s greeting and people’s response: “Bow down for the blessing.” This instruction directs us to adopt a posture that prepares us for receiving the blessing from God through the ministry of his priest.

Examples of Blessing Used at Mass

Let’s look at some different blessing options for this part of the Mass. The Solemn Blessing for Ordinary Time II, echoing the words of Philippians 4:7, reads:

P: May the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge of God, and of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

R: Amen.

P: And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever.

R: Amen.

What a great blessing! Here we are invoking the peace of God, which is beyond our own abilities, upon the people to help them keep in mind the goodness of God. Sometimes the blessing will be in the format of four phrases with the people responding Amen in between, like in this Solemn Blessing for the Beginning of the Year:

P: May God, the source and origin of all blessing, grant you grace, pour out his blessing in abundance, and keep you safe from harm throughout the year. R: Amen.

P: May he give you integrity in the faith, endurance in hope, and perseverance in charity with holy patience to the end.

R: Amen.

P: May he order your days and your deeds in his peace, grant your prayers in this and in every place, and lead you happily to eternal life.

R: Amen.

P: And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever.

R: Amen.

As mentioned above, the priest may also use one of the Prayers over the People, such as #17:

P: Bestow increase of heavenly grace on your faithful, O Lord; may they praise you with their lips, with their souls, with their lives; and since it is by your gift that we exist, may our whole lives be yours. Through Christ our Lord. R: Amen.

P: And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever.

R: Amen.

Multiple Blessing Options for Mass

These are just three of the twenty Solemn Blessings and 28 Prayers over the People that are in the Roman Missal. That’s a lot of blessing possibilities! As the Roman Missal indicates, these blessings can be used at the discretion of the priest. There are some that are specifically laid out for Major Solemnities like Christmas, Epiphany, and Easter. But there are also many which can be used at any Mass.

Next time you are at Mass and the priest uses one of these special blessings, try to notice the ways the text acknowledges the goodness of God, and then be ready to receive a special strengthening help from our loving Lord!
