My Dear Parishioners,
 With Christmas and the Jubilee Year of Hope celebrations behind us and the decorations coming down, I want to extend a heartfelt thank you to everyone who contributed to our beautiful celebrations. I apologize in advance if I overlook anyone—so many of you deserve recognition.

First, a huge round of applause for those who set up the church and surroundings for Christmas and the Jubilee Year. The transformation was breathtaking! We also appreciate all the deacons, volunteers, altar servers, Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, lectors, greeters, ushers, cantors, choir members, musicians, sacristans, cleaners, live streamers, and parish staff. The list is endless! Thank you all for your dedicated efforts.

I also want to express my gratitude for the lovely cards and thoughtful gifts you gave us this Christmas. We have plenty of delicious treats to enjoy, and if you notice Fr. Biju and me gaining a few pounds, it's a testament to your generous spirits.

Most importantly, thank you for being such wonderful individuals. Serving you is a true joy, and I ask that you keep the entire staff at Sacred Heart in your prayers so that we may continue to serve you faithfully. May God bless you and your loved ones throughout the New Year of Hope.

With kindest regards and prayers,
 Fr. Krzysztof (Chris) Pipa, SVD

CHURCH BELLS FOR LIFE

On January 22, the bells at Sacred Heart will be ringing at 12:00 Noon in loving memory of the millions of unborn children that have since been lost to abortion.

The U.S. Coalition for Life (USCL), the nation's oldest pro-life research organization, is asking pastors of every pro-life denomination throughout the United States to ring their church bells on the 52nd anniversary of Roe vs. Wade.

Sponsoring the altar flowers is beautiful way to honor and remember loved ones.

You can reserve a particular Sunday for your dedication.

You can sponsor one or two vases.

Your dedication will be listed in the weekly bulletin and Flocknotes.

When Fr. Arnold Janssen founded the Divine Word Missionaries in 1875, his dream was to make Jesus known to every person in every nation. Today, he is remembered as a saint of the Catholic Church and as the founder of the Society of the Divine Word, the largest Catholic missionary order in the world.

This January, as we celebrate the feast day of this saint (January 15th), we want to share more of the story of this German priest and his religious SVD order.

Arnold Janssen was born on November 5, 1837, in Goch, a small city in lower Rhineland (Germany). The second of ten children, his parents instilled in him a deep devotion to religion. Each evening, his father would pray the Prologue to St John's Gospel, instilling in him a deep love of the Logos, the Incarnate Word.

He was ordained a priest on August 15, 1861, for the Diocese of Muenster and was assigned to teach natural sciences and mathematics in a secondary school in Bocholt. Due to his profound devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, he was named Diocesan Director for the Apostleship of Prayer. This apostolate encouraged Arnold to open himself to Christians of other denominations.

The second half of the 1800s were difficult times for the Catholic Church in Germany. Bismarck unleashed the "Kulturkampf" with a series of anti-Catholic laws, leading to the expulsion of priests and religious and the imprisonment of many bishops. In this chaotic situation, Arnold Janssen proposed that some of the expelled priests could go to the foreign missions or at least help in the preparation of missionaries. Slowly but surely, and with a little prodding from the Apostolic Vicar of Hong Kong, Arnold discovered that God was calling him to undertake this difficult task. Many people said that he was not the right man for the job or that the times were not right for such a project. Arnold's answer was, "The Lord challenges our faith to do something new, precisely when so many things are collapsing in the Church."

With the support of several bishops, Arnold inaugurated a mission house on September 8, 1875, in Steyl, Holland, thus beginning the Divine Word Missionaries. Already on March 2, 1879, the first two missionaries set out for China. One of these was the future saint Joseph Freinademetz.

The volunteers at the mission house included women as well as men. Practically from the very beginning, a group of women, including Blessed Maria Helena Stollenwerk, served the community. But their wish was to serve the mission as Religious Sisters. The faithful, selfless service they freely offered, and recognition of the important role women could play in missionary outreach, urged Arnold to found the mission congregation of the "Servants of the Holy Spirit" (SSpS) on December 8, 1889. The first Sisters left for Argentina in 1895.

In 1896, Fr. Arnold selected some of the Sisters to form a cloistered branch, to be known as the "Servants of the Holy Spirit of Perpetual Adoration" (SSpSAP). Their service to the mission would be to maintain an uninterrupted adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, praying day and night for the Church and especially for the other two active missionary congregations.

Thank you!

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in Him. Every day, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

Thank you for your generosity to the mission of serving the poor and less fortunate among us in our community.

God bless you and yours.

My Dear Parishioners,
As we embark on this new year, I would like to bring to your attention a cause that is close to our hearts and greatly in need of our support.

We are organizing a collection to support the Divine Word Missionaries in Murindó, Colombia. This mission is nestled in the pristine jungle along the banks of the Atrato River in Murindó. The Church of Saint Bartholomew the Apostle, a central part of this mission, is in urgent need of repair.

The missionaries in Murindó are dedicated to serving the Emberá Katío indigenous people. It is one of the poorest missions attended by SVD missionaries, operating without public services. The residents rely on nearby rivers and natural pools for their water needs.

Your generous donations will greatly help in providing much-needed support for the missionaries and the community they serve. Every contribution, no matter how small, will make a significant difference in improving their living conditions and aiding in the repairs of the church.

We deeply appreciate your willingness to assist us in this vital endeavor.

The second collection on January 19 will be allocated for this purpose.

Thank you for your kindness and generosity.

Sincerely,
Fr. Chris

Walking Through the Mass – The Dismissal | By Fr. Luke Spannagel

Having just received a blessing through the hands of the priest, we now come to our last instruction and response in the Mass: the Dismissal. For this part of the Mass, the Roman Missal gives four options that can be used by the deacon (if there is one) or by the priest himself:

“Go forth, the Mass is ended.”

“Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord.”

“Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life.”

“Go in peace.”

To any of these, the people respond: “Thanks be to God.” Additionally, you may know that during the Easter Octave and the close of the Easter Season, we also add a double “Alleluia” to the end of these dismissal phrases.

A Sending Forth

Do you notice anything consistent or repeated in these phrases of dismissal? They all begin with “Go”! Why do we say that? It definitely isn’t because the priest is ready to get on with his day! The Diocese of Peoria teaches, “After the [Prayer after Communion] beseeches God to give us grace to put our faith into practice, the Concluding Rite is ‘sending forth’ on this mission as disciples of Christ” (A Study of the Mass, p. 20). We have just prayed together, giving glory to God in the perfect Sacrifice of Christ in worship of the Father; after having been nourished by the Word of God in Scripture and the True Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, now we are ready to go forth out into the world. Each option of the dismissal is really an instruction: “Go forth”; “Go and announce the Gospel”; “Go in peace, glorifying the Lord”; “Go in peace.” In a real way, each of these phrases practically tells us what to do next, now that our time together at a particular Mass has drawn to a close.

As Edward Sri relates, “In the ancient world, it was customary to close an assembly with a formal dismissal. The early Christians felt the need to incorporate a similar conclusion to their liturgical assembly. From the fourth century onward, the Latin words Ite Missa est were employed for this task... What is most significant about this dismissal is that the whole liturgy receives its name, ‘the Mass,’ from the word Missa (‘dismissal’/‘sending’) in this closing line. This points to how the Mass ultimately should be seen as a sending forth. As the Catechism explains, the celebration of the Eucharist is called ‘Holy Mass’ (Missa) ‘because the liturgy in which the mystery of salvation is accomplished concludes with the sending forth (missio) of the faithful, so that they may fulfill God’s will in their lives’” (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, pp. 147–8; CCC, 1332).

... To Go Out on Mission

Did anyone notice that quote from the Catechism including the word missio sounds very much like mission? I have heard several priests explain that the end of Mass is truly a sending forth of the Christian people on mission. If you think about all we have received at the Holy Mass, our hearts and minds will be very full of God’s truth, goodness, and love. Of course, those are gifts that are meant to be shared! We live in a world that experiences the effects of sin and brokenness, a world that needs hope and light, a world that needs the fruits of the Mass!

As Edward Sri continues, “Jesus told the apostles, ‘As the Father has sent me, even so I send you’ (Jn 20:21). The Father sent the Son into the world, to die for our sins and give us a share in his divine life. As we have seen, the entire paschal mystery of Jesus’ passion, death... resurrection [and Ascension] is made present to us in the Eucharistic liturgy so that we can be more deeply incorporated into Jesus’ life and mission. The more deeply the Eucharist unites us to Jesus, the more we will radiate his life and his love in the world around us. The closing line of the liturgy, therefore, is not an aimless dismissal. It is a dismissal with a mission. It is a sending forth of God’s people to bring the mysteries of Christ into the world” (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 148). The next time you are leaving Mass, I challenge you to think joyfully of all the fruits of that Mass and then ask yourself: How can I share these fruits with the people I meet?
