St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel the prodigal son repents and finds mercy in the heart of his father. Know that your penance during Lent can give the poor the grace of finding the merciful heart of God the Father.

The requests for help from our neighbors in need have become more than the donations that we have been receiving. Please look into your heart and pray for the guidance to find it possible to help our ministry to be able to fulfill these requests.

Thank you all that you have done in the past and for your careful consideration for help in the future.

God Bless you.

THE JUBILEE 2025 CORNER

Jubilee Year of Hope and upcoming events for Sacred Heart Parish.

What is Christian Hope?

By Courtney Mares

(excerpted from The National Catholic Register)

Christian hope is not optimism or wishful thinking. Hope is a theological virtue, essential to our faith, pointing us toward our ultimate meaning and end: union with God.

As the Church celebrates the Jubilee Year with the theme “Pilgrims of Hope”, Catholics worldwide are invited to pray and reflect on the virtue of Hope.

Hope is Misunderstood Today

The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines hope as “the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ’s promises and not relying on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit”.

St. Thomas Aquinas defines hope “as the virtue by which we trust God to give us everything that we need to get us to heaven”. Pope Benedict XVI, in his encyclical, Spe Salvi (Saved in Hope) writes that “a distinguishing mark of Christians is the fact that they have a future: It is not that they know the details of what awaits them, but they know in general terms that their life will not end in emptiness.”

In modern society, hope is often mistaken for mere positive thinking. Instead, Christian hope focuses on getting to heaven and is rooted in the trust that God will give us everything we need to get there. Benedict XVI explained in his hope-themed encyclical, “Biblical hope in the Kingdom of God has been displaced by hope in the kingdom of man, the hope of a better world.” But worldly solutions cannot fully satisfy the human heart. Benedict continues: “Let us say once again: We need the greater and lesser hopes that keep us going day by day. But these are not enough without the great hope, which must surpass everything else. This great hope can only be God, who encompasses the whole of reality and who can bestow upon us what we, ourselves cannot attain”.

Hope in an Age of Anxiety

Despair and presumptions are the two extremes that distort hope. Fr. Mike Schmitz explains that “the extreme of presumption means that I don’t really need God. I can do this on my own...Despair is “I don’t have Him. He’s not there.” Anxiety is often linked to a misplaced reliance on ourselves, rather than on God. True hope reminds us that we do not have to bear life’s burdens alone. With hope, there is a tranquility that should come, in spite of the difficulty, because we have confidence in God. Fr. Ezra Sullivan says, “With the virtue of hope, we anchor our hearts in heaven. It is what keeps us stable amidst the waves and the winds that threaten to crash our boat. It ties our heart to God.”
