Altar Flowers

We will not have altar flowers during Lent. This is a solemn time in our Church for reflection and contemplation as we prepare for the festive remembrance of Christ’s resurrection. You may donate flowers to Honor and Remember loved ones and help us beautify our Altar for Easter Day.

Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

This is a great way to keep in touch with their own parish.

St. Vincent de Paul

Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of the holiest of Christian weeks. Let us pray for the grace to take up our own cross and to follow Jesus through death to new life. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and mercy into our hearts and into the hearts of those suffering in poverty. Please help us replenish our food pantry shelves which are dwindling because of the needs of our community. Everything you give us is used and much appreciated. We especially need right now nutritious cereals, canned chicken and canned tuna. Thank you for returning the grocery bags filled with food for our Easter Food Boxes. We appreciate your generosity to the needy that we serve. God Bless you during this Holy Week.

HOLY LAND SECOND COLLECTION

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few. The pandemic had hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. The war made their situation even more dire. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org or www.custodia.org. You can give by using your offertory envelope, using a special collection envelope in the pew or by giving online at: https://osvhub.com/sacredheartprescott/giving/funds.

PLENARY INDULGENCES – WHAT IS AN INDULGENCE?

(excerpted from the Diocese of Phoenix Website)

A Plenary indulgence is a great gift and mercy from the Church, and a powerful way to receive grace for the remission of sins. Bishop Dolan has decreed six pilgrimage sites during the Jubilee Year – a visit to one or more of these sites provides the opportunity to obtain an indulgence, provided that the necessary conditions are met.

The following “General remarks on Indulgences” from Gift of the Indulgence summarizes the usual conditions given in the Church’s law (cf. Apostolic Penitentiary, Prot. N. 39/05/I):

1. This is how an indulgence is defined in the Code of Canon Law (can. 992) and in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (n. 1471): “An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints”.
2. In general, the gaining of indulgences requires certain prescribed conditions (below, nn. 3, 4), and the performance of certain prescribed works... [in this case, those granted for the Jubilee Sites]
3. To gain indulgences, whether plenary or partial, it is necessary that the faithful be in the state of grace at least at the time the indulgenced work is completed. [i.e. one must be a Catholic, not excommunicated or in schism.]
4. A plenary indulgence can be gained only once a day. In order to obtain it, the faithful must, in addition to being in the state of grace:
 - ◆ have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin;
 - ◆ have sacramentally confessed their sins;
 - ◆ receive the Holy Eucharist (it is certainly better to receive it while participating in Holy Mass, but for the indulgence only Holy Communion is required);
 - ◆ pray for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff.
5. It is appropriate, but not necessary, that the sacramental Confession and especially Holy Communion and the prayer for the Pope’s intentions take place on the same day that the indulgenced work is performed; but it is sufficient that these sacred rites and prayers be carried out within several days (about 20) before or after the indulgenced act. Prayer for the Pope’s intentions is left to the choice of the faithful, but an “Our Father” and a “Hail Mary” are suggested. One sacramental Confession suffices for several plenary indulgences, but a separate Holy Communion and a separate prayer for the Holy Father’s intentions are required for each plenary indulgence.
6. For the sake of those legitimately impeded, confessors can commute both the work prescribed and the conditions required (except, obviously, detachment from even venial sin).
7. Indulgences can always be applied either to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, but they cannot be applied to other persons living on earth.
