WINTER WARM UP

The Warming Program at the Salvation Army will again open their doors for the homeless from November 2, 2026, to March 2027, we here at Sacred Heart have provided meals for many years and we are seeking more parishioners to help out. New this year we can bake the desserts at home then bring them in with the entree and salad for 30 people each night, the entree and salad must not be made at home, all meals must be packaged and unopened, one can also buy large serving of entree at Costco and Walmart for heating at the center.

Many past helpers coupled with others to bring in the meal. The drop off time is between 3 and 4pm The Salvation Army is located at 231 S. Montezuma Street. The Chefs at the Salvation Army are also running a fundraiser to buy new boots to keep the men warm this winter. Boots locally cost $29 to $39 and the chefs are negotiating a 10 percent off at Ross. If you are moved to help out, you can buy boots and donate them or drop a check for a donation for the boots at the Salvation Army Office.
