Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last Sunday we celebrated the Feast of the Epiphany, of the manifestation of God to the Three Kings... Today the Church presents us with another divine epiphany: the Baptism of the Lord.

In the Baptism of Jesus, the mystery of the Trinity is revealed for the first time. The three divine persons become sensible: the SON in the person of Jesus who is being baptized by John; the HOLY SPIRIT in the form of a dove; the FATHER through the voice of heaven.

This testimony is timely. Because now Jesus ends his life withdrawn from Nazareth. He has lived there like any of his contemporaries, ignored by the world. Nothing he does attracts attention. He is one more man of the many who now come to be baptized by John. It is impossible to recognize God in Him.

The Father and the Holy Spirit must intervene with a solemn witness. In this way they present to the world the divine origin of Jesus. The Baptism of the Lord is, then, the preparation and introduction into His public life.

That is why the messianic anointing by the Holy Spirit happens, as announced by the prophet Isaiah in today's first reading: "Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am pleased, upon whom I have put my spirit; he shall bring forth justice to the nations." (Isaiah 42:1-4. 6-7)

But the Baptism of Jesus indicates not only the anointing by the Spirit, but also His connection with the Father, His attitude before the Father. Everything He says and does is to fulfill His messianic mission, He does in obedience and love of the Father. He unconditionally makes Himself available to the will of the Father. Nothing can get in His way; He remains faithful to His Father until death on the Cross.

Our own Baptism also has the same characteristics as that of Jesus. And it has to be so, because this sacrament incorporates us into Christ, configures us with Him.

Our Baptism fills us with the power of the Holy Spirit and unites us with God's fatherly love. It is a communion with the Trinity: By Baptism we become brothers and sisters of Jesus, children of God the Father and temples of the Holy Spirit.

But our Baptism not only gives us the same gifts as that of Jesus, but also demands of us the same attitude: the attitude of familial bond, obedience, availability and love before the Father. Baptism is only the first step on the long road to the Father. We know that the meaning, the goal of our earthly life is: to go to the Father, to return to the Father's House.

If we reflect on today's Gospel, an obvious question arises: Why does Jesus allow Himself to be baptized by John, becoming common with sinners? Christ is free from sin: that is why He does not need to be baptized. But He wants to stand in solidarity with us sinners. Thus He can point us to the way of salvation and precede us in it.

And at the same time it indicates the condition to start that path: we have to recognize ourselves as sinners before God. It is like the foundation of our Christian-being. Because only sinners seek and need Baptism. That is why the Pharisees do not submit to the Baptism of John: they believe themselves to be exempt from it.

It is not because of our personal merits that we receive God's salvation, but because of our sins. We must not put our trust in our own strength, but put it in the mercy, forgiveness and love of God.

Dear brothers and sisters, this is the mystery of our life and death as Christians. This is the mystery that reveals to us the Baptism of Jesus and our own Baptism:
The only thing that saves us and that will save us, at the end of our lives, is the goodness, the merciful love of the Father.

Gratefully yours in Jesus,

Pastor

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

El domingo pasado celebramos la fiesta de la Epifanía, de la manifestación de Dios a los Reyes Magos... Hoy la Iglesia nos presenta otra epifanía divina: el Bautismo del Señor.

En el Bautismo de Jesús se revela por primera vez el misterio de la Trinidad. Las tres personas divinas se hacen sensibles: el HIJO en la persona de Jesús que está siendo bautizado por Juan; el ESPÍRITU SANTO en forma de paloma; el PADRE a través de la voz del cielo.

Este testimonio es oportuno. Porque ahora Jesús termina su vida retirado de Nazaret. Allí ha vivido como cualquiera de sus contemporáneos, ignorado por el mundo. Nada de lo que hace llama la atención. Es un hombre más de los muchos que ahora vienen a ser bautizados por Juan. Es imposible reconocer a Dios en él.

El Padre y el Espíritu Santo deben intervenir con un testimonio solemne. Así presentan al mundo el origen divino de Jesús. El Bautismo del Señor es, pues, la preparación e introducción en su vida pública.

Por eso se produce la unción mesiánica por parte del Espíritu Santo, como anuncia el profeta Isaías en la primera lectura de hoy: "Aquí está mi siervo al que sostengo, mi elegido con el que me complazco, sobre el que he puesto mi espíritu; él hará justicia a las naciones". (Isaías 42,1-4. 6-7)

Pero el Bautismo de Jesús indica no sólo la unción por el Espíritu, sino también su conexión con el Padre, su actitud ante el Padre. Todo lo que dice y hace para cumplir su misión mesiánica, lo hace en obediencia y amor al Padre. Se pone incondicionalmente a disposición de la voluntad del Padre. Nada puede interponerse en Su camino; permanece fiel a Su Padre hasta la muerte en la Cruz.

Nuestro propio Bautismo tiene también las mismas características que el de Jesús. Y tiene que ser así, porque este sacramento nos incorpora a Cristo, nos configura con Él.

Nuestro Bautismo nos llena de la fuerza del Espíritu Santo y nos une al amor paternal de Dios. Es una comunión con la Trinidad: Por el Bautismo nos convertimos en hermanos de Jesús, hijos de Dios Padre y templos del Espíritu Santo.

Pero nuestro Bautismo no sólo nos da los mismos dones que el de Jesús, sino que también nos exige la misma actitud: la actitud del vínculo familiar, la obediencia, la disponibilidad y el amor ante el Padre. El Bautismo es sólo el primer paso en el largo camino hacia el Padre. Sabemos que el sentido, la meta de nuestra vida terrenal es: ir al Padre, volver a la Casa del Padre.

Si reflexionamos sobre el Evangelio de hoy, surge una pregunta obvia: ¿Por qué Jesús se deja bautizar por Juan, haciéndose común con los pecadores? Cristo está libre de pecado: por eso no necesita ser bautizado. Pero quiere solidarizarse con nosotros, los pecadores. Así puede indicarnos el camino de la salvación y precedernos en él.

Y al mismo tiempo nos indica la condición para iniciar ese camino: tenemos que reconocernos como pecadores ante Dios. Es como el fundamento de nuestro ser cristiano. Porque sólo los pecadores buscan y necesitan el Bautismo. Por eso los fariseos no se someten al Bautismo de Juan: se creen exentos de él.

No es por nuestros méritos personales que recibimos la salvación de Dios, sino por nuestros pecados. No debemos poner nuestra confianza en nuestras propias fuerzas, sino ponerla en la misericordia, el perdón y el amor de Dios.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, éste es el misterio de nuestra vida y muerte como cristianos. Este es el misterio que nos revela el Bautismo de Jesús y nuestro propio Bautismo:
Lo único que nos salva y que nos salvará, al final de nuestra vida, es la bondad, el amor misericordioso del Padre.

Agradecidamente vuestro en Cristo,
