Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Spirit of the Lord is upon us.

We who have been baptized into Christ, and who have received the Eucharist nourishment of Christ's body, are now sent out into the world as one Body of Christ, so that: the poor might be brought glad tidings, the captives might receive liberty, the blind might have their sight restored, the oppressed might be set free, and a year of favor might be proclaimed to the glory of God.

From this day forward none of us are allowed to say: "I am not part of this body...I do not share in this mission!" For we all have a role to play in building up the Body of Christ.

Sometimes, due to fear, trepidation, our own perceived inadequacy, or laziness, we hesitate to take our place in this Body of Christ - we hesitate to share in the mission of Christ to proclaim salvation and redemption for the sinner, the broken, the needy, the poor, the lonely, the lost.

Brothers and sisters, we must constantly and consistently remind ourselves of this mission.

Each year, our Holy Cross seminary in Notre Dame, Indiana holds a winter retreat for all the men discerning religious life as priests and brothers in Holy Cross. It is a time set aside at the beginning of the new school semester and time to reflect on this mission we have decided to take up as men who profess vows for the sake of this Body of Christ, made up of all kinds of suffering members who are in need of hope and of a restoration to life.

Earlier at the start of January, I was away from St. John Vianney to be on this retreat, and just arrived back at the parish last Monday, January 10th. In the intentional quiet time, I felt as though God was drawing me deeper into his own heart - to claim for my own place within this Body of Christ, and to see within myself a renewed understanding of the Spirit that Jesus has breathed and is breathing within me.

Brothers and sisters, we all need this. Perhaps in the coming weeks and days we step outside of our normal daily routine and take some quiet to be with the Lord and open our hearts to our fellow members of the Body of Christ, and our mission to the least of these. For then the Spirit of the Lord will truly be upon us.

Blessings,

Andrew Fritz, C.S.C.
Pastoral Associate

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

El Espíritu del Señor está sobre nosotros.

Nosotros, que hemos sido bautizados en Cristo, y que hemos recibido el alimento eucarístico del cuerpo de Cristo, somos ahora enviados al mundo como un solo Cuerpo de Cristo, para que: los pobres reciban la buena noticia, los cautivos la libertad, los ciegos la vista, los oprimidos la libertad, y se proclame un año de gracia para gloria de Dios.

A partir de este día a ninguno de nosotros se le permite decir: "¡No soy parte de este cuerpo... no comparto esta misión!". Porque todos tenemos un papel que desempeñar en la construcción del Cuerpo de Cristo.

A veces, debido al miedo, a la inquietud, a nuestra propia percepción de inadecuación o a la pereza, dudamos en ocupar nuestro lugar en este Cuerpo de Cristo, dudamos en compartir la misión de Cristo de proclamar la salvación y la redención para el pecador, el roto, el necesitado, el pobre, el solitario, el perdido.

Hermanos y hermanas, debemos recordar constante y constantemente esta misión.

Cada año, nuestro seminario de Holy Cross en Notre Dame, Indiana, celebra un retiro de invierno para todos los hombres que disciernen la vida religiosa como sacerdotes y hermanos en Holy Cross. Es un tiempo reservado al comienzo del nuevo Semester escolar y tiempo para reflexionar sobre esta misión que hemos decidido asumir como hombres que profesan los votos por el bien de este Cuerpo de Cristo, formado por todo tipo de miembros que sufren y que necesitan una esperanza y una restauración de la Vida.

A principios de enero, me ausenté de San Juan Vianney para asistir a este retiro, y acabo de regresar a la parroquia el pasado lunes, 10 de enero. En el tiempo de silencio intencional, sentí como si Dios me atrajera más profundamente a su propio corazón—para reclamar mi propio lugar dentro de este Cuerpo de Cristo, y para ver dentro de mí una comprensión renovada del Espíritu que Jesús ha respirado y está respirando dentro de mí.

Hermanos y hermanas, todos necesitamos esto. Tal vez en las próximas semanas y días salgamos de nuestra rutina diaria normal y nos tomemos un poco de silencio para estar con el Señor y abrir nuestros corazones a nuestros compañeros del Cuerpo de Cristo, y a nuestra misión con los más pequeños. Porque entonces el Espíritu del Señor estará realmente sobre nosotros.

Bendiciones,

Andrew Fritz, C.S.C.
