Gospel Meditation
 Jesus went to those most in need. He forgave the sinner, ate with the outcast, defended, and fed those who were poor and hungry. He worked for true justice, risked being unpopular, willingly accepted suffering and death, and always stayed connected with his Abba, Father. Jesus also consistently reminded folks that God’s compassion, love, and mercy trump everything, even the law. This is the Christ that the Eucharist calls us to be. As we look around our churches, our towns and cities, and our world, there are many people who need to see the face and body of Christ. Some of those most in need may be right within our families. But it is always in the poorest of the poor and those most vulnerable that we find the greatest need. There are many who cannot function on their own. When the gift of the Eucharistic Christ takes root in our hearts, we can more readily see the face of Christ in others.

Many people are vulnerable. Highest on that list are the homeless. They show us the face of Christ. Whatever the cause, to have no place to go and no place to call home takes a toll on the human spirit. For Jesus when there were hungry people, they were fed. God asks us to do the same... feed people. There are many who are hungry physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Gifted by the Eucharistic presence of Christ, we can bring them Christ. Who are the hungry around us and how can we feed them?

When someone is hurting, you comfort them. When someone is hungry, you feed them. When someone needs clothes, you provide them. When someone is cold, you warm them. When someone is in prison, you visit them. With over a million people who are homeless and over a quarter of them children, it is important to ask the question, “why?” and strategize for ways to lessen or alleviate the problem. Nevertheless, we are not off the hook for responding to the immediate needs that present themselves at our doors. Whether a person’s current station in life is self-imposed or the result of being victimized, they are sacred vessels. We cannot lock the door and send them away and still believe we bear the Eucharistic presence of Christ. It doesn’t work like that.

Update from Deacon Matt

With all of the physical and emotional challenges of making the pilgrimage, Bennet struggled greatly. His anxiety grew daily, and he finally made the difficult decision to return home. He dared greatly, and I am inexpressibly proud of him. Bennet remains committed to praying daily for your intentions. Sometimes God's work is done by those on their feet, and sometimes by those on their knees. Please pray for him and for me, as we surely do for you. I continue on towards Santiago, custodian to your intentions. I am struggling through shin splints, but otherwise well. By happy providence, I am now also custodian to relics of Saints Francisco and Jacinta Marta, to whom our Lady of Fatima appeared. They are my companions on the road. When I return, these relics will belong to the parish. ~Yours in the footsteps of Christ, Dcn. Matt

Month Six

By month six baby is a little over twelve inches long from head to toe and weighs around 1 pound. Baby is pretty lean at this point, but his/her body is filling out proportionally, and soon will start to plump up. Your baby might respond to loud noises or mom's voice by moving in response. By this month, baby's lungs are completely formed, but not quite ready to function in the outside world. Baby is also practicing the sucking reflex on his/her thumb.

Find the illustration above and more information about a baby's development week by week at babycenter.com/pregnancy/week-by-week. Continue to pray for your spiritually adopted baby.
