RINCÓN DEL SACERDOTE

Monedas de cobre: no se puede operar un complejo eclesiástico moderno sin mucho dinero. Las monedas de cobre de la viuda simplemente no pagan las facturas. Por eso, es muy fácil para los obispos, pastores y administradores prestar atención a las fuentes de ingresos; ¡es mucho más difícil estar atento a las fuentes de gracia! Debemos darnos cuenta de que aquellos que dan de sí mismos en sacrificio están haciendo mucho más, a los ojos de Dios, que aquellos que dan de lo que les sobra. Si todos se sacrificaran, como lo hizo la viuda pobre, la Iglesia tendría fácilmente la base material para cumplir su misión. Pero parece ser cierto que cuanto más riqueza acumula una persona, menos generosa se vuelve en lo que respecta al sacrificio de ofrendas. Es triste decirlo, los ricos - y aquí incluimos a la clase media - parecen dar de su excedente ("ingreso disponible") en lugar de sacrificarse. Nuestra fe en Cristo siempre lleva un aspecto de sacrificio en nuestro peregrinaje. En última instancia, sacrificamos nuestro tiempo, nuestros esfuerzos y nuestros recursos económicos en proporción a las bendiciones de Dios que percibimos a nuestro alrededor. Que Dios nos dé ojos para ver Su mano en nuestra vida trabajando para Su mayor bien. P. Carlos

SEMANA nacional
DE CONCIENTIZACIÓN SOBRE VOCACIONES

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Ambas viudas en las lecturas de hoy dieron todo lo que tenían a la obra del Señor, una usó toda la comida que le quedaba para alimentar a Elías y la otra le ofreció dos monedas de cobre al tesoro del templo. Los mayordomos fieles dan todo lo que se les pide y confían en que el Señor será fiel a Sus promesas.

PRIEST CORNER

Copper Coins - One cannot operate a modern Church complex without lots of money. Widow's copper coins simply do not pay the bills. And so it's very easy for bishops and pastors and administrators to pay attention to the sources of income – it's much more difficult to be mindful of sources of grace! We must realize that those who give of themselves sacrificially are doing much more, in the eyes of God, than those who give from their surplus. If everyone sacrificed, as the poor widow did, the Church would easily have the material basis to accomplish her mission. But it seems to be true that the more a person accumulates wealth, the less generous he becomes as far as sacrificial giving. Sad to say, the wealthy -- and here we include the middle class -- seem to give out of their surplus ("disposable income") rather than from sacrifice. Our faith in Christ always carries an aspect of sacrifice on our pilgrim journey. Ultimately, we sacrifice our time, our efforts and our economic resources in proportion to God's blessings we perceive around us. May God give us eyes to see His hand in our life working for His greater good.
Fr. Charles

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Both widows in today's readings gave all they had to the work of the Lord, one using all her remaining food to feed Elijah and the other offering her two copper coins to the temple treasury. Faithful stewards give all that is asked and trust the Lord to be faithful to His promises.
