Psalm 114 Talks about the Exodus

Verses 3-4 states, “The sea looked and fled, Jordan turned back. The mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs.” These verses are alluding to the Forty years of history of the Exodus. God’s action was more than the history of Israel; in fact it was a miracle. The Red Sea parted; the Jordan River stopped flowing so Joshua could lead the people into the land flowing with milk and honey, and Mount Sinai was shaken by a volcanic eruption and an earthquake. For God the mountains skipped like rams.

Verses 5-6 states, “Why was it, sea, that you fled? Jordan, that you turned back? You mountains, that you skipped like rams? You hills, like lambs of the flock.” Here the psalmist asks the Red Sea, the Jordan River and Mount Sinai why they did all that, but they do not answer.

Verses 7-8 states, “Tremble, earth, before the Lord, before the God of Jacob, who turned rock into pools of water, stone into flowing springs.” The psalmist answers with his imagination. He says, Tremble, O earth, the whole natural world. The world is twisting, squirming, and wriggling away backwards from the presence of the Lord in awe and wonder.

The psalmist’s point is that all these events are moments in God’s history because God is present in all that happens. God is also present to us now in all the events we have to live through. God gives us a spring of water that wells up in us to eternal life. We know that God is like that. Therefore, all we can do is just adore at the presence of the Lord in the here and now.

“I AM THE GOOD SHEPHERD WHO LAYS DOWN HIS LIFE FOR THE SHEEP.” ~JOHN 10:11

EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS TO FOCUS ON VOCATIONS

In just three months, tens of thousands of Catholics will gather in Indianapolis for the nation's first Eucharistic Congress in more than eight decades. While the main focus is clear—to adore Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament—participants will also notice a heavy emphasis on vocations.

Religious communities from across the country will be attending, many underwritten by Serra International, which is organizing a large area in the convention hall that will be teeming with sisters and brothers. The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring an entire section to showcase diocesan priesthood, with a small army of priests on hand to talk with young men.

Also in attendance will be hundreds of seminarians, many of whom will have just completed the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage, an ambitious project that will see thousands marching toward Indiana along different routes totalling 6,500 miles.

The connection between the Eucharist and vocations is clear: Three-quarters of recently ordained priests regularly participated in Eucharistic Adoration before entering seminary. And at Catholic youth events, even those offering sports and high-energy activities, teen participants still rank one “activity” as their favorite: Adoration.

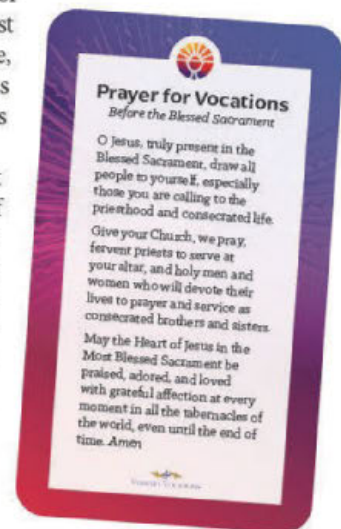

As the Church prepares for this historic event, let's ask our Eucharistic Lord for an outpouring of vocations!

Archdiocese of Oklahoma City

Above: Last year, the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City led more than a thousand faithful Catholics in a two-mile Eucharistic Procession—one of the longest in the country.

Masthead photo: Fr. Peter Mangum of the Diocese of Shreveport celebrates atop a climbing wall during a vocations summer camp. Beside him is Fr. Kelby Tingle, who attended the diocese's “Mission Possible” camp as a teen and is about to celebrate a much bigger achievement—his first year of priesthood.

Prayer for Vocations Before the Blessed Sacrament

O Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, draw all people to yourself, especially those you are calling to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Give your Church, we pray, fervent priests to serve at your altar, and holy men and women who will devote their lives to prayer and service as consecrated brothers and sisters.

May the Heart of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament be praised, adored, and loved with grateful affection at every moment in all the tabernacles of the world, even until the end of time. Amen!

IDEAS FOR ACTION

HOLY FATHER: DO THESE FOUR THINGS

In a papal message for World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis used the term “con-vocation” to explain that a vocation is not an isolated “me-and-God” experience. Instead, young people hear God’s call within a real Church community. He offered four concrete ways to help youth discover their vocations, emphasizing these things should be done together:

1. Co-teach with a catechist
2. Visit a convent or monastery
3. Assist missionaries
4. Spend time with parish priests

Note that none of these involve phones or social media. How can you organize real-life activities for youth in your parish?

SERRA CELEBRATES 100 MONTHS THE GLOBAL ROSARY FOR VOCATIONS

For 100 months, Catholics from around the world have joined a massive video/phone call during which they pray the rosary to intercede for vocations. Created by Tim O’Neill in 2015, the Global Rosary brings together Serra Clubs comprised of lay people dedicated to promoting priesthood and consecrated life. “In its simplicity it becomes quite a feat,” said Tim. “It gives a chance for people worldwide to visit beforehand and after... The most powerful way we Serrans connect is through prayer.”

THE VOCATION OF MARRIAGE SOLVING DATING DILEMMAS

The stats on Catholic marriages are alarming: for every ten weddings in 1970, today there are only two. Percentage-wise, that’s a steeper decline than priestly ordinations.

For young Catholics looking for love, the Catholic dating scene is not just frustrating, it’s downright discouraging. That was certainly the experience of Rachel Hoover Canto, whose new book on dating, Pretty Good Catholic, offers counter-cultural advice for how to date well, stay chaste, and find a good Catholic spouse.

After Rachel graduated from college, she watched her friends get married while she suffered through some tough breakups. That got her thinking deeply about the whole Catholic dating situation, which has its own set of quirks and challenges. Trying to be proactive, she started a Catholic singles group, interviewed people from CatholicMatch, and consulted dating experts. The result is Pretty Good Catholic, which serves as a how-to guide for even the most discouraged single man or woman.

Cristina Pineda, an LA-based celebrity matchmaker who also happens to be a faithful Catholic, offered high praise: “I wish I had this book when I was single,” she said,

STORYBOOK ENDING

While writing Pretty Good Catholic, Rachel Canto took her own advice and found the love of her life. She and her new husband live in Nashville.

One Hail Mary

Sometimes it’s the simple things! A traditional practice that’s making a comeback is helping kids pray for their future vocations by saying one Hail Mary each night: “Mother Mary, as you said yes to the angel Gabriel, help me say yes to God’s call. Hail Mary, full of grace...”

Holy Eucharistic Adoration

Eucharistic Adoration is a quiet time of private conversation with our Lord Jesus exposed in a consecrated host on the altar.

Simply enjoy the peace that comes from being in the Presence of Our Lord. The mere fact that you take time to spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is, in itself, a great prayer of faith.

This silent time with Jesus blesses us with an escape from the world's distractions to bring our struggles before Our Lord, opening the opportunity for healing, guidance, forgiveness, and peace.

THE CATHOLIC BUSINESSMAN: A NOBLE CALLING?

Ken Darnell is a Regional Vice President for Legatus, an international organization of Catholic Presidents, CEO's

Too often, a business leader is viewed in a negative light where greed is good, and the bottom line is purely numbers driven. But a Catholic businessman has a greater, more meaningful, task. He is a leader of people; he provides not only for his own family but for his workers and their families, for the communities in which they reside and, ideally, for society through the goods and services they provide.

As a community, We invite you to pray a nine day Novena on their behalf. The Novena can begin on April 18th or 19th.

Please pray that their hearts be open to receive an outpouring of grace from the Holy Spirit. We are one parish family united in the Body of Christ. God bless you all.

Serra Club offers a monthly Holy Hour and Rosary for Vocations on the 3rd Wednesday of each month after the 8 am mass.

Won't you please offer a prayer on that day for future vocations to the church?

“And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every infirmity. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; ³⁸ pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest.”
