27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female."- Mk 10:3-6

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

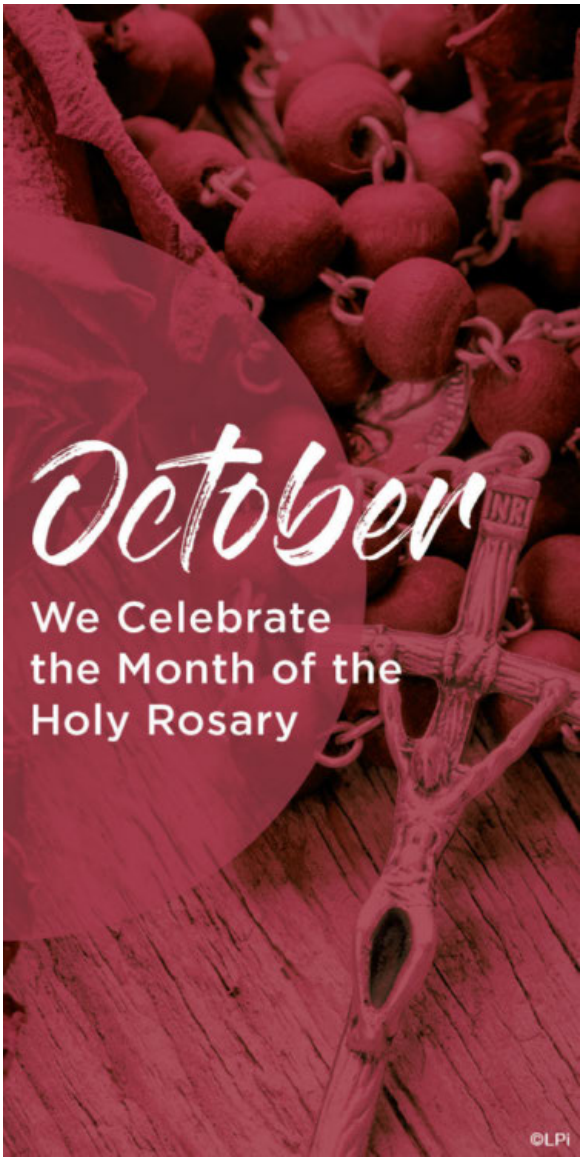
Dear Friends,

This past weekend, I gave you an accountability of what your contribution towards the Together Let us Go Forth Capital Campaign is doing to enhance our evangelization and disciple-ship efforts. I shared with you about the pews being refurbished and expected to be re-installed hopefully by the middle of next month. Meanwhile, the cement floors on which the pews will be returned should have been done by the time you are reading this article. Also, the painting of the pictures of Mother Mary and St. John at the foot of the Cross should be accomplished by October 29 at the latest. I will be updating you on these projects as new information become available. Now, what next? Well, the month of October will focus on two major things events - 40 days for Life and our parish Fall Festival. To remind us of the evils of abortion and grave loss to human life on daily basis, we have as usual, displayed the little crosses in our courtyard with each cross signifying a baby aborted. It is hoped that this will not only be a reminder of the seriousness of this silent murder but also a call to pray and speak about it.



The next big event is our forthcoming Fall Festival. This week-end after all Masses, the Pastoral Council members and other ministry members will be at the exits handing you a Memorial Mass & Fall Festival packet (one per family). Some of you may have already received yours at Religious Education or Pasta with Pastor events this past week. Please take some time to read my letter enclosed in the packet as well as all the other information on this event that will take place on Sunday, October 31st.

This special Mass and Festival will be a chance for our parish to come together as a family and mourn the losses due to the pandemic as well as celebrate the fact that a parish that prays together grows stronger! And we will celebrate the Festival with games, entertainment, and trunk or treating!

The Knights will be offering FREE burgers, hot dogs, fries, and cotton candy. We just need you to RSVP so we can plan accord-ingly. Please invite your family, friends, and neighbors as this Memorial Mass & Fall Festival is open to ALL! I look forward to seeing you all.

St. Andrew, I love you

Your Pastor,
Fr. Robert

LAST WEEKS WORD OF THE WEEK

In case you missed last week word of the week at mass:

The Symbols of the Four Evangelists

The four evangelists are the four Gospel writers: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. They are represented by symbols first found in Ezekiel 1:1-21 and a similar description is found in Revelation 4:6-8. These images inspired St. Irenaeus to liken them to the four Gospel writers because of the content of their Gospels and particular focus on Christ.

St. Matthew: a divine man
St. Mark: a winged lion
St. Luke: a winged ox
St. John: a rising eagle

ADORATION CORNER

St. Therese of Lisieux (1873 to 1897)
Doctor of the Church and Carmelite Nun

GOOD NEWS NEWSLETTER

"Good News" is a parish quarterly newsletter sponsored by the Stewardship Council. The newsletter is designed to tell the stories of how the gospel message is being lived through the people, exhibited through the ministries/organizations, and demonstrated in the events that occur in around the St Andrew the Apostle parish community. Stories focus on staff members, volunteers, and include information on specific ministries. The "Zooming In" page contains pictures of current events. Also featured are articles that focus' on some aspect of our Catholic Faith. Future editions are planned to include stories about parish youth programs.

The current edition of the newsletter can be found in the Friday Flash. Prior editions can be found in the parish website under the Stewardship tab. Printed copies are available at the parish office.

We are always seeking volunteers to write, edit, take pictures and help with distribution and marketing of the newsletter. We are interested in hearing your suggestions about potential stories that would benefit our readers. Please email your thoughts, suggestions or ideas about the newsletter to stewardship@standrewchandler.com

MUMS

VETERANS WARMTH

Knights of Columbus will be collecting New and Slightly Used Coats for Our Veterans (Men and Women)...we are also in need of scarfs, gloves, hats, blankets and socks. Bins will be located in the Northex for yourgenerous donations from 10/02 thru 10/17/2021. These will be distributed to Our Veterans who otherwise may have to go without. This year do to the Covid-19 Pandemic Veterans are in more need than ever... Please help us keep Our Veterans warm this winter.

AN INVITATION TO EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Jesus invites you, personally, to be with Him in Eucharistic Adoration at St. Andrew's Adoration Chapel on the First Friday and First Saturday of very month! Adoration is rightly given to God. We, the creature, owe this to our Creator and God. Jesus Christ is fully present, as He promised us, in the Most Blessed Sacrament. In this devotion we call to mind the Life, Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Our Lord. During this holy hour we seek to be with our Lord as He requested on the night of His betrayal, "So you could not keep watch with me for one hour?" (Matt 26:40) Through our time in adoration we pray and meditate on the mercy of God, praying for the conversion of souls, the sanctification of sinners, and the mitigation of the terrible punishment foretold in Fatima in 1917. It is a time to pour out your own troubles to Him who loves you and comforts you. It is a time to sit and listen, to hear His quiet voice in your heart. It is a time that you will find peace, clarity, and refreshment.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION....WHEN, WHERE, WHO?

Adoration in the Chapel will follow 8:30 a.m. Mass on: First Fridays 9 a.m.- 6 p.m. First Saturdays 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. (ending before 5 p.m. Mass) Please note the dates as follows for the remainder of the year. Mark your calendars! October 1 & 2, November 5 & 6, December 3 & 4 The WHO part of this is YOU! Come and visit Jesus at any time even if you can't sign up for a specific hour. We are the apostles of Christ today. Jesus calls out to each of us uniquely with great love. He has invited you; He is waiting for you; He is longing for you.

STEWARDSHIP

Whenever the word Stewardship is mentioned everyone cringes and thinks "O boy, asking for more money". While money is important to balance the budget, Stewardship is much more. Consider the following.

In 1992, the United States Conference of Bishops published Stewardship, A Disciples Response. The Bishops defined a Christian Steward as one who:

1) Receives God's gifts gratefully: We have gifts or skills such as: speaking before a group, being an engineer, a successful business owner, a nurse or a teacher - do we say "Thank You God for these gifts"?

2) Cherishes and trends God's gifts responsibly: We understand the value of those gifts and use them in a responsible, moral and Christian manner.

3) Shares God's gifts with love and justice:
We use these gifts not only to benefit ourselves, but do we also use them to help our friends, neighbors or our parish?

4) Return God's gifts with increase: In a Gospel reading, a business owner, before going away, gives 5 talents to a servant tocare for. The owner returns to find the servant has invested the 5 talents and now returnsto him 10 talents. Will our gifts be of greater value when we return them to God?Stewards acknowledge that God is the Creator and Ower of all and shares of their gifts out of Love for God and one another.

To learn more about Stewardship, go to the Stewardship tab on the parish website and read Fr. Robert's letters on Time, Talent and Treasure. Questions regarding Stewardship may be emailed to: Stewardship@standrewchandler.com.
