LETTER FROM PASTOR

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR 2022

Dear Friends,

We have come to that special moment of the year when we once again rejoice and celebrate the birth of God's only son Jesus, as our savior. Even though we continue to celebrate this event amidst the pandemic challenges as we did last year, this year is nevertheless still unique in very many ways for our parish. We have continued to grow in our faith through the various sacraments we celebrated, the journeys towards holiness and their focuses on the cross during Lent, the Eucharist in the weeks preceding the feast of Corpus Christi and journey towards Bethlehem during this past advent season.

As I ponder the ramifications of the celebration of these events in the context of God becoming a fragile man in the small family of Mary and Joseph in Nazareth, I am in awe by just how incredible this is. In this state of awe, especially during this particular Christmas season, let us give gratitude for the many blessings we have received as individuals but also as the family of St. Andrew the Apostle. Let us recall that lying in that manger in total poverty and surrounded by the discomfort and cold of that environment, the little family of Joseph and Mary beheld, adored and protected the hope of the entire world. With that little family surrounding that manger, with their nearest companions being the shepherds and their animals, and the angelic choir, let us rejoice and reclaim that hope for ourselves.

Reflecting more deeply on this, I am reminded of a Christmas Homily that Pope Benedict XVI delivered some years ago on the gospel of the mid-night Mass which I also shared two years ago. In his reflection, he looks to the reaction of these Shepherds spoken of in Luke's Gospel after the Angels depart which says: "The shepherds said to one another: Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened for us (cf. Lk 2:15). The shepherds went with haste to Bethlehem, the Evangelist tells us (cf. 2:16). A holy curiosity impelled them to see this child in a manger, who the angel had said was the Savior, Christ the Lord. The great joy of which the angel spoke had touched their hearts and given them wings." Benedict continues, "Let us go over to Bethlehem, says the Church's liturgy to us today. Trans-eamus is what the Latin Bible says: let us go 'across', daring to step beyond, to make the 'transition' by which we step outside our habits of thought and habits of life, across the purely material world into the real one, across to the God who in his turn has come across to us (in poverty). Let us ask the Lord to grant that we may overcome our limits, our world, to help us to encounter him, especially at the moment when he places himself into our hands and into our heart in the Holy Eucharist."

Indeed, we are challenged today to encounter Christ in a way we have never done before especially during this pandemic. Let us approach this Christmas as an opportunity for all of us to receive Christ as he enters into our lives and into our families from a new perspective. As we do so, let us ask ourselves this fundamental question: What is it that we need and what is it that we might offer God back, as a libation and as St. Andrews? The God of the universe desires that we might know Him and love Him deeply through our focus on this little baby boy who is also very present in the Eucharist. This is the invitation we have all been given this Christmas, how will we now respond?

In responding, we must draw a great lesson from the example of the holy family and their infant child Jesus. We must be ready to quit complaining about the little discomforts we encounter in this world and instead be grateful for the abundant blessings we have received in the course of the year as a result of God-becoming-man in that manner of the manger.

My dear friends, may God bless you all most abundantly this Christmas season and may He continue bless our wonderful parish of St. Andrew the Apostle the entire coming year of 2022. As we enter into this new year 2022, we look forward to establishing perpetual adoration here in our parish as a means of perpetuating the presence of this new born child among us. St. Andrew, know that I am looking forward to that moment with greater anticipation. Will you join me?

St. Andrew, I love you all very much! Merry Christmas!

- Fr. Robert

LAST WEEKS WORD OF THE WEEK

In case you missed last week's word of the week at Mass:

The Feast of the Holy Family

The devotion to the Holy Family was born in Bethlehem, together with the Baby Jesus. The shepherds went to adore the Child and, at the same time, they gave honor to His family. Later, in a similar way, the three wise men came from the East to adore and give honor to the newborn King with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh that would be safeguarded by His family.

ADORATION CORNER (TEAM JESUS)

If we want any relationship to grow, it is good to be intentional and consistent with our commitment to adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. The resolution we commit to with Jesus can be as simple as discerning with the Holy Spirit the next time we can visit the Adoration chapel. Once we come to a time that works best for us, we can pencil the date in our calendar. As the maxim of the Desert Fathers teaches, to pray always we must "pray at specific times" and pray often (CCC 2697).

St. Peter Canisius (1521 to 1597) Doctor of The Church and Confessor

Do we hesitate to cover a particular hour of adoration at our local Eucharistic Adoration Chapel? We should follow the example of St. Canisius who was 'on fire' for the love of the Eucharist and would spend hours in Eucharistic Adoration. His love for the Blessed Sacrament is reflected in his writings: "Why do we speak of someone being 'on fire with love?' The answer is simple. Fire not only strives for union with what it embraces but seeks to transform whatever it embraces into itself. Love does likewise. As it happens to a coal, to be changed and totally converted into fire, so by a worthy reception of the Eucharist, we become changed in a wonderful manner into Christ, are made partakers of His divine nature, and grow somehow to be the very blood-brother (blood-sister) of Him (Jesus Who is), Our Head." St. Canisius was the instigator in having the Council of Trent pass a little known decree urging the daily reception of Holy Communion.

REFLECTIONS FOR ADVENT

REFLECTION - GOSPEL

December 26, 2021

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

All in the Family

At first glance, we can often find the image of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and the Christ Child intimidating — who are we to aspire to that level of discipleship? How could we ever hope to conform ourselves to that mold? Sometimes, it can even be painful — perhaps we hail from a broken family or struggle with a broken relationship within our family, or perhaps we long to be a mother or a father ourselves and that state in life has eluded us.

But the image of the Holy Family is, in reality, a beautiful invitation to us all, no matter our vocation or our state in life, and the example of Mary, Joseph and Jesus is rich with the symbolism of stewardship.

You need not be a biological mother who has carried a child in her womb to be a mother in spirit. Who in your world needs you to love them with the heart of a mother?

The same goes for fatherhood. The Church and the world are crying out for the courageous witness of Christian men like St. Joseph. Who can you love with the steadfast, selfless protection of a father?

Who in your life needs you to love them with the faithful, unconditional love of a son? Who needs your gentle and constant love as a daughter?

We are the Body of Christ, friends. Those of us rejoicing in heaven, those of us suffering in purgatory, and those of us struggling here on earth. We are the great family. Let us love each other well.
