THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. - Lk 3:21-22a

JAN 9, 2022

We, Fr. Robert S. Alinuzi, AJ, Fr. Edward N. S. Urassa, AJ, and Fr. Teilo M. Lwande, AJ, take this opportunity to pray for your blessings in the New Year 2022. Our sincere thanks go out to you for the Christmas season greetings you sent us through emails, phone calls, cards, and in-person conversations. As we continue to journey toward holiness, let's continue to pray for each other and strengthen our spiritual home at St Andrew the Apostle, where we belong.

LETTER FROM PASTOR

Happy New Year 2022!

Once again, I accepted the daunting task of writing for our Pastor Fr. Robert, while he is away in Uganda. I am excited to share some reflections of the season and ponder them along with you.

The Church, unlike secular society, does not quickly celebrate Christmas and hastily dismiss it as she moves to the next holiday. Rather, Christmas is a season to be enjoyed and entered into. Our beautiful Catholic faith which for over 2000 years, in her wisdom, immediately lays out for our consideration and inspiration, the lives of her saints and martyrs. Thus reminding us that this world is "not our final destination." Some of you may remember Msgr. Tom, who years ago was very fond of closing each sermon with those very words.

Immediately following Christmas is the Feast of St. Stephen, one of the first martyrs. Martyr means "witness," those who willingly sacrifice their lives rather than renounce their faith in God. We need their example of virtuous perseverance in the face of persecutions. Next comes the Feast of the Holy Family. God came into our broken world, through a family. The Church in promoting this feast, presents the Holy Family as the model and exemplar of all Christian families.

The twenty-eighth brought us the, Feast of the Holy Innocents, who were some of the earliest martyrs of the Church. They sacrificed their lives for a name they did not know, Jesus, and shed their blood as Christ would later do for us all. The Holy Innocents died because of Him and for Him. They gave their precious lives so that God's plan could be fulfilled in His Son, Jesus. At the beginning of the new year comes the feast of Mary, Mother of God on January first. Dom Vonier, O.S.B, an Abbot in England once wrote,

"True civilization is easily tested by its attitude towards motherhood." He goes on, "There was a time when the world's evil did frighten my soul, when I looked upon it with scared eyes and an anguished heart, as if it were something mighty with power and substance in it. But from the day when I began to understand [Mary's] motherhood more clearly, and to love it more ardently, my soul has ever made merry of the idle efforts of the princes of darkness to cow man's spirits into timidity through their idle attempts at establishing a mendacious sovereignty of gloom. The Creator of the starry skies smiles sweetly at you, oh fairest of all women, and you return his smile in triumphant peace, and I know that with God smiling at his sweet Mother the grim powers of evil are already defeated."

Yes, that was a mouthful, and much to chew on. Essentially, I meant it to be a reminder for all of us of the sublime power against evil in the humble presence of our Mother Mary. We need not worry, have anxiety or be fearful. Christ has conquered death and evil has no power over us unless we consent to it. Let 2022 be a new beginning in a deeper relationship of love with our Blessed Mother.

Finally, Fr Mike Schmitz leaves us this little gem of a homily from the Epiphany. Here is the link to the audio, 01/02/22 It's Not About You - Bulldog Catholic or you can also search for it. This powerful short homily is a great way to reorder ourselves. There is a trap, especially now, for us to think everything is about us. I invite you to commit to listening to it, and ponder it in prayer asking yourself, is this ever me? What must I do to combat this destructive habit?

Today's feast of the Baptism of the Lord is another way the Church teaches us about Christ's humility and willing obedience to do the Father's will. He entered the waters of His baptism not to wash away His sin, as He had none, but to take on ours, and crucify them as a perfect sacrifice to the Father to expiate for us.

May we never take our own Baptism for granted. This indelible mark, has marked us for Christ, and it is in imitation of Him that we must pick up our own crosses.

Be blessed,

Barb Lishko
Coordinator of Marriage and Adult Faith Formation

WE are responsible for the effort not the outcome. What efforts will you make to solidify your heavenly destination in 2022? Small doable steps- Adoration, more Mass, devotion to our Lady, confession etc

Jan 15/16- your Builder shall marry you, Wedding Feast at Cana

Jan 22/23-One body different parts. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me

Jan 29-30-Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, 1Cor 13-still more excellent way. Love. Prophet not accepted... (reminder about Candlemas)

LAST WEEKS WORD OF THE WEEK

In case you missed last week's word of the week at Mass:

The Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

St. Matthew, in his Gospel that we hear today, recorded that the Magi brought three gifts, each also having a prophetic meaning: gold, the gift for a king; frankincense, the gift for a priest; and myrrh — a burial ointment, a gift for one who would die. St. Irenaeus (d. 202) offered the following interpretation for the gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh respectively: King, God and Suffering Redeemer as well as virtue, prayer and suffering.

ADORATION CORNER (TEAM JESUS)

To Practicing lectio divina with Sacred Scripture will help deepen your experience in Adoration. As a reminder, the steps are:

1. Read: What does the Scripture text say in and of itself?
2. Meditate: What does the Scripture say to me?
3. Pray: Converse with the Holy Spirit of Jesus about what the Scriptures are saying to me. Acknowledge my thoughts, feelings, and desires about what the Scriptures are saying to me and relate them to God. If the Scriptures bring to mind a particular person or an event, share that with God. (You may want to use a journal to record those thoughts.)
4. Contemplate: Allow myself to be in the stillness of the gaze of Christ as I look at him.
5. Resolve: What concrete action will I take in my daily life in response to lectio divina?

Here's an example to pray with:

Lord Jesus, as I sit here before your presence in the Blessed Sacrament, the Suscipe prayer comes to my mind:

Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty,
my memory, my understanding,
and my entire will,
all I have and call my own.
You have given all to me.
To you, Lord, I return it.
Everything is yours;
do with it what you will.
Give me only
Your love and your grace,
that is enough for me.
St. Ignatius of Loyola

MARCH FOR LIFE!

Saturday, January 15, 2022. We will hear some outstanding speakers including our own Bishop Olmsted and Evangelist, Alveda King, niece of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Our Respect Life ministry, with the generous help from our Knights of Columbus, have chartered a bus to take us! We will meet in our St. Andrew's church parking lot at 9:45 AM for check-in to depart at 10 AM and return by 2:30 PM.

The bus will drop us off at the Cesar Chavez Memorial Plaza (201 W. Washington St.) at about 10:30. There will be several food trucks, some music, tables to purchase T-shirts, and pick up your Rose(s) for Life purchase to place on the Wall of Remembrance near the Rally stage.

After a brief address at 11:15 AM the March begins at 11:30 AM along Washington Street to Wesley Bolin Plaza (1700 W. Washington St.) for the rally. This March is a leisurely 1.5 mile walk. The Rally begins at 12:30 PM at the Arizona State Capitol with uplifting and inspiring speeches and concludes by 2:00 PM. We'll meet the bus at 2:00 PM near Wesley Bolin Plaza for our ride back to St. Andrew's, arriving by 2:30 PM.

Email us at: respectlife@standrewchandler.com to reserve your seats now!

Visit: www.azliferally2022.org for more information and to purchase your Rose for Life donations that support Pregnancy Resource Centers in AZ.

YOUNG ADULT FORMATION FOR SINGLES

YOUNG ADULT FORMATION

Inviting all single Catholic men and women between the ages of 19 and 27 to consider participating in our upcoming formation programs. The men's is entitled Viri Virtutes (Men of Virtue) and the women's is Feminae Fide (Women of Faith).

We understand the challenges you are facing today if you want to be rooted in your Catholic faith. Our Catholic anthropology gives us a rich and hopeful understanding of masculinity and femininity—often very much at odds with the views presented in today's culture. But swimming upstream is not impossible when you know how to navigate the waters and if you are doing so with others.

With that in mind, these 12-week programs are designed to help you develop a deeper understanding of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ, what is God's plan for men and women, some practical help on how to live your life in a virtuous and fruitful way and to be open to God's vocational plan for you. It will also be an opportunity to meet and befriend other like-minded Catholics.

Feminae Fide begins on January 13th and Viri Virtutes on January 20th. For the course description, time and place and how to register, visit the websites: FemFide.org and ViriVirtutes.com

St. Andrew's Life Teen is excited to announce that KAIROS XXX is back! This retreat is for all junior and senior high school youth as they prepare to take the stage in cap and gown. We all know that what we expected on graduation day, versus what we encountered in the real world were drastically different. Kairos is a unique and intensive retreat where your young person will encounter our Lord at the very core of their being, and ask themselves how they will walk with Him when they step out into life beyond the walls of school. Don't miss out on this definitive retreat that could set the tone for the future your young person chooses to take. Dates and registration details can be found on our website or feel free to contact our Youth Minister Kristen Hew.
