2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." - Jn 2:1-3

LETTER FROM PASTOR

How exciting that this week's Scripture readings are ones so close to my heart and work here at St Andrew's. Can you imagine having Jesus and the disciples at your wedding? It was in this context that the Lord performed his first miracle. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) in paragraph 1613 states, "The confirmation of the goodness of marriage and the proclamation that thenceforth marriage will be an efficacious sign of Christ's presence."

Efficacious means to produce its divinely intended effect. In other words, "Marriage in Christ becomes a sacrament- an image of the union of Christ and the Church which signifies and communicates grace." (CCC1617)

Thus, it makes sense that Jesus, the Bridegroom, would want to single out and elevate marriage because it is the sign here on earth that most points to the union with the Bride, His Church. Christ gives each sacramental marriage the graces to succeed in lifelong fidelity, joy, perseverance, and fruitfulness.

Venerable (and soon to be a saint), Fulton J. Sheen was a modern-day speaker of truth. One of his many books called, Three to Get Married, is a favorite of mine. Sheen writes, "The vocation to marriage is a vocation to happiness, which comes through holiness and sanctity. The love that sustains them at every step of the road is the Love that created them and witnessed their union. The sanctity of married life is not something that takes place alongside marriage, but by and through marriage."

In short, when we live out our vows, we help each other grow in holiness. In learning to hold back our snarky comments, acting more selfless, and being willing to sacrifice for the sake of the other, we are becoming saints. Marriage is supposed to be a saint-making machine! Our dependence on God, our invitation that He be central in our marriage, is the unity outside of ourselves that holds us together no matter what. Alone, we are not enough for one another, and it is easy to get tired and bored. "What binds lover and beloved together on earth is an ideal outside themselves." After all, we are flawed, selfish, and wounded human beings. We are going to disappoint and frustrate one another from time to time. "Selfishness is the enemy of love," so it is vital to reach out to the source of all Love, to learn how to love, forgive, and grow in selflessness.

Marriage is hard. I know; we have been at it for over forty-two years. Yet, it is the most tremendous vocation too. Anything worth doing is going to be challenging. One learns to persevere, prioritize the spouse over self, and readily forgive. Prayer is critical to the life of our marriage. When we weren't praying together, we were trudging by, trying to do all the heavy lifting ourselves until something more significant than we could handle occurred. When we intentionally began to pray together, inviting Christ into our marriage, something began to change. Something extraordinary began to happen. Christ came into our hearts in a way that allowed us to be more Christlike. There was increased peace, kindness, and love. "Authentic love of the other is accepted as a gift from God, a unique and irreplaceable gift."

Mary is our model, "Scripture mentions her before her Son as being present at the marriage feast of Cana. In no better way could she reveal the necessity of sacrifice for happy married love than by gently provoking her Son to work His first miracle and thus prepare His Hour of sacrifice on the Cross. By implication, the married couple was to love by sacrificing themselves for one another, as she surrendered her Son for the love of the world."

"If love does not climb, it falls." Isn't it time to invite Jesus to work miracles in your marriage?

- Barb Lishko,
Coordinator of Marriage Preparation and Adult Formation

Those couples planning to marry or who never married in the Catholic Church are invited to contact us in the Marriage Office. We are happy to answer questions and get you started. marriage@standrewchandler.com

Mark your calendars for Saturday April 2, 2022 from 9am -2pm for a mini marriage retreat. You Before Me, Always. More information to follow soon. Please take advantage of this great way to revive, revitalize, and rejuvenate your love for one another!

LAST WEEKS WORD OF THE WEEK

In case you missed last week's word of the week at Mass:

Baptismal Font

The baptismal font is a sacred container that holds holy water to remind us of our baptism into Jesus. Baptism means "to be immersed." As we bless ourselves with the Sign of the Cross while entering the nave, we invoke the memory of our immersion into the very life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. For Christians, baptism is not just a symbolic act. Scripture tells us that baptism is prescribed as the means of infusing grace, replacing circumcision.

"For from the newborn infant to the old man bent with age, as there is none shut out from baptism so there is none who does not die to sin in baptism."
 -St. Augustine of Hippo AD 421

ADORATION CORNER (TEAM JESUS)

Adoration with the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The Catechism reveals how the Church is immersed in the Scriptures, and so practicing lectio divina with the Catechism in Adoration will always bring us back to Jesus, who is at its center. As you pray with a paragraph of the Catechism in the Eucharistic presence of Christ, recall the five steps of lectio divina: Read, meditate, pray, contemplate & resolve.

Here's an example to read: CCC 2567- God's love.

St. John Neumann (1811 to 1860)

Bishop in Philadelphia and first American Bishop to be canonized
 "How much I love you, O my Jesus. I wish to love you with my whole heart; yet I do not love you enough. My lack of devotion and my sloth make me anxious. I have one desire, that of being near you in the Blessed Sacrament. You are the sweet bridegroom of my soul. My Jesus, my love, my all, gladly would I endure hunger, thirst, heat, and cold to remain always with you in the Blessed Sacrament."

The weekend of January 22-23, 2022, Father Michael Drea will be visiting our parish on behalf of Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS). Fr. Michael Drea serves at the National Chaplain for Mission Development for FOCUS. He was ordained in 2004 by Sean Cardinal O'Malley for service in the Archdiocese of Boston. Prior to his role at FOCUS, he served for seven years as Senior Catholic Chaplain at Harvard University where he invited FOCUS to serve with him on campus. In addition, he has served as pastor for two different parishes in the Archdiocese, as well as a member of the FOCUS Board of Directors and on various other boards of trustees. Father Drea is a proud alumnus of Boston College where he received both his undergraduate and graduate degrees. FOCUS is a national organization serving college students on more than 180 campuses across the United States and six international locations.

Almost 800 FOCUS missionaries on these campuses invite students into a relationship with Christ and His Church, while equipping them for a lifetime of Catholic evangelization. Fr. Drea is excited to be with you soon and share the hope of the New Evangelization! To learn more, please visit www.focus.org.

FUNERALS/BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT

Are you dealing with grief or sadness from a loss, whether it's recent or not. Join others in the same place; consider attending one of our drop in bereavement support meetings. These meetings are facilitated by the Funeral Ministry Coordinators.

BABY BOTTLE DRIVE

January 15, 2022 will kick off our 2022 Baby Bottle Drive. Bottles will be available in the Church Lobby. Pick one up, fill with your donations and then return them to the receptacle located in the narthex.

Please fill your bottles and return them by February 20, 2022.

All proceeds from this event will help support the Aid to Women's Centers and their Outstanding Works.

The Aid to Women Center is also in need of Diaper Bags, Diapers and Baby Wipes...these items are given to expectant mothers for their newborn baby. Please place these items in the wagon located in the narthex. May God Bless You for Your Generosity.

SACRED SORROWS

All grieving mothers are invited to a 4-day, 3-night healing retreat March 10-13, 2022 in Los Altos, CA at the Jesuit Retreat Center. Visit www.sacredsorrows.org for resources and information about retreats and gatherings for grieving mothers, grandmothers, and the people who love them.

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT

Next bereavement support meeting will be Thursday, January 27th at 7pm in room A

SEASONS OF HOPE

Adult Bereavement Support Group

Monday evening session starts January 31, 2022 at 6:30 pm.

Seasons of Hope is a Christ-centered support group that meets for six consecutive weeks. Any parishioner who is mourning the loss of a loved one is encouraged to attend and bring a guest.

Registration fee is $20 to cover cost of Seasons of Hope journal and program materials. Please bring a bible.

Pre-registration is required and the deadline is January 24, 2022. Please contact Florence at 480-899-1990 x 135 or send an email to seasonsofhope@standrewchandler.com to register. Payment is to be paid on the first day of session (no one will be turned away for inability to pay).

MUMS AFTER DARK

MUMS After Dark will be on Friday, January 21st in the Adult Center at 6:30pm. Barbara Waterkotte is our guest speaker and she is speaking on The Saints our Intercessors. Please bring something to share!

YOUNG ADULT FORMATION FOR SINGLES

YOUNG ADULT FORMATION

Inviting all single Catholic men and women between the ages of 19 and 27 to consider participating in our upcoming formation programs. The men's is entitled Viri Virtutes (Men of Virtue) and the women's is Feminae Fide (Women of Faith).

We understand the challenges you are facing today if you want to be rooted in your Catholic faith. Our Catholic anthropology gives us a rich and hopeful understanding of masculinity and femininity—often very much at odds with the views presented in today's culture. But swimming upstream is not impossible when you know how to navigate the waters and if you are doing so with others.

With that in mind, these 12-week programs are designed to help you develop a deeper understanding of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ, what is God's plan for men and women, some practical help on how to live your life in a virtuous and fruitful way and to be open to God's vocational plan for you. It will also be an opportunity to meet and befriend other like-minded Catholics.

Feminae Fide begins on January 13th and Viri Virtutes on January 20th. For the course description, time and place and how to register, visit the websites: FemFide.org and ViriVirtutes.com

ULTRASOUND FUNDRAISER

The Knights of Columbus will be hosting an Ultrasound Fundraiser on February 5th, 2022 at 6pm in Hennessey Hall. Knights will out in the courtyard selling tickets after masses, starting January 15th and 16th.

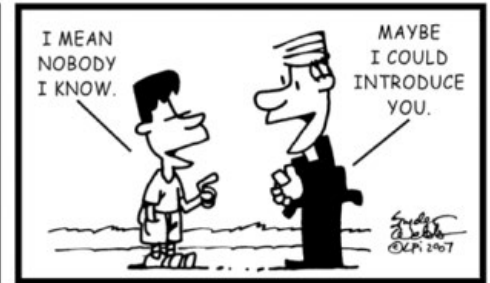

A graphic for a seminar titled "A Day with Patrick Madrid". The background is a stylized, colorful illustration of a desert landscape with mountains and palm trees. At the top, the text "A DAY WITH" is in a small, white, sans-serif font. Below it, "PATRICK" and "MADRID" are written in large, bold, black, sans-serif font, with a circular portrait of Patrick Madrid in the center. Below the name, there are two location and date icons: a clock for "Saturday, March 26, 2022" and a location pin for "St. Andrew the Apostle Church". Below this, a paragraph of text reads: "Best-selling author and radio host Patrick Madrid will visit St. Andrew the Apostle Church on Saturday, March 26 to present a seminar covering the following:". This is followed by three session titles, each underlined: "SESSION ONE: 'RECENT SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERIES THAT POINT TO THE EXISTENCE OF GOD'", "SESSION TWO: 'IS EVERYTHING UP FOR GRABS? A CRITIQUE OF MORAL RELATIVISM'", and "SESSION THREE: LIVELY QUESTION & ANSWER DISCUSSION". At the bottom, there is a QR code and the text "Register online at patrickmadrid.com/st-andrew-church". A dark blue banner at the very bottom contains the text "FIRST 100 SEMINAR TICKETS ARE FREE USING PROMO CODE 'MADRID'*".

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 16, 2022
2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

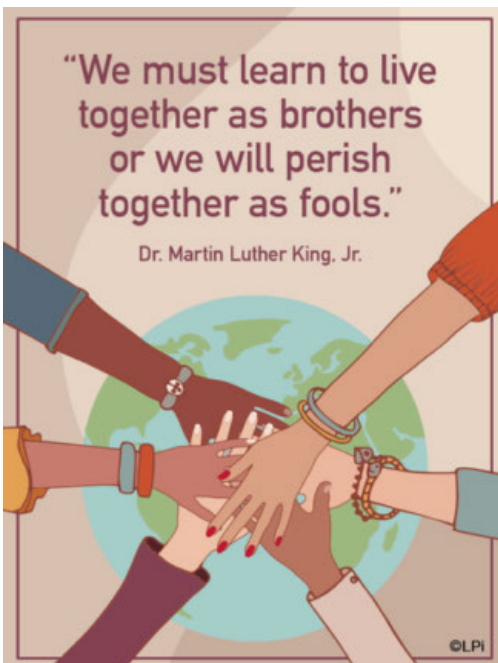

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.
