LETTER FROM PASTOR

Blessings and joy to you all!

I have opted to share with you a homily recently given by a local priest, Fr Sergio Muñoz Fita, Pastor at St Anne's in Gilbert. I humbly submit in part his powerful words for your prayerful consideration.

"The world needs to find reasons to be more humane. God teaches us to be human by becoming one of us. During Advent, the time of preparation for the great feast of the birth of Jesus, the central figure was a pregnant woman, carrying in her womb the Savior of the world. We saw her visit Elizabeth on that page of the Gospel that is a true hymn to motherhood. The Son of Mary, an embryo only a few days old, sanctifies with his hidden presence his cousin John the Baptist, who was by then a well-formed six-month-old baby. Later, in Bethlehem, we contemplated again the marvel of the birth of the Word Incarnate. Once more we find ourselves before an exaltation of the mystery of human life which, at the same time, was threatened from the beginning by the wrath of King Herod, who attempted to kill the Author of Life without conscience or compassion. Nevertheless, Life overcomes and today we celebrate the manifestation of Christ as the beloved Son of the Father, formed in the womb as Isaiah told us, to be a covenant of the people and a light for the nations.

A pregnant mother, a newborn child, a powerful man trying to take the baby's life... One would hope that two thousand years after those events, the world, especially our Western world with its Christian roots, would have finally learned its lesson. However, it is sad, tragic, and terrible to see that in the 21st century we continue to stumble over the same stone, seeking the elimination of defenseless human lives. A few days ago, I read a news story with this headline: "Abortion Was the Number One Cause of Death in 2021". The information in the story gave some figures that I will now share with you. Obviously, these figures are not "revealed truth", but I think they can help us to get an idea of the magnitude of the silent genocide that is taking place before our eyes.

According to this research, more than 42% of all total deaths in 2021 were of children in the womb. Last year, 2021, approximately 101.5 million people died. More than 42 million were aborted children.

Dear brothers and sisters, the evil of abortion has reached apocalyptic proportions. With no other subject is our hypocrisy as a society more evident. As St. John Paul II said, "What sense is there in speaking of the dignity of man, of his fundamental rights, if we do not protect an innocent person, or even facilitate the means or services, private or public, to destroy defenseless human lives?" (November 2, 1982)

I cannot help but draw a sad comparison with the current situation with covid. In the last two years, we have lived through a terrible time with everything that has happened in the wake of the coronavirus. The word pandemic has been used to talk about the seriousness of the disease. Countries have invested extraordinary resour-es to curb and mitigate the impact of the virus. This catastrophe has affected the existence of probably everyone on the planet. Many have the feeling that life in our societies has been completely turned upside down. Many, many people have died, and are dying, and almost all of us know someone or have a family member who has died as a result of the coronavirus. If this has been done by a virus that, according to data from the World Health Organization, killed approximately 3.5 million people last year, what should the public authorities and society, do to eradicate an evil such as abortion, which in the same period of time has taken the lives of 42.5 million children? For every victim of coronavirus in 2021, 12 children died in the womb. If with the coronavirus, which counts among its victims almost 4 million dead, we use the word "pandemic", what term should we use for abortion, with more than 40 million innocent human losses? Something has to be really wrong with us if as individuals we end up getting used to this tragedy, and as a society, we describe this evil as a right (reproductive right) instead of using the right word, genocide. Lord, have mercy on us!

Thank you, Father Sergio, for your passionate wisdom on so grave an issue. The numbers are staggering and cannot simply be ignored. As human beings we cannot claim to care about the death of our fellow brothers and sisters from every other sort of cause yet continue to ignore the one we can do something to reduce or eliminate. We cannot in good conscience persist in closing our eyes and ears to their silent screams. This is not about politics. It is about the God-given right and dignity of every human life preborn or otherwise. There are over 3000 pro-life clinics and agencies to assist women in need in the U.S. There is always an option to protect these precious resources, and future citizens. PRAY to end abortion. If you are tired of the silent carnage and want to do something positive, we can help. respectlife@standrewchandler.com

LAST WEEK'S WORD OF THE WEEK

In case you missed last week's word of the week at Mass:

Water & Wine

The essential matter for the Eucharist is what was used by Christ at the Last Supper. He would have celebrated the Last Supper with wheat bread and with wine from the grape, mixed with a little water. On different occasions in the New Testament, Jesus showed that he had the power and authority over natural law. He could calm the stormy sea and work miracles with food and drink. Today in the Gospel Jesus turns water into wine at the Wedding Feast of Cana. These miraculous moments assure us that we can trust him and the declaration of bread and wine are transformed into his Body and Blood at the consecration.

ADORATION CORNER (TEAM JESUS)

Remember the goal of abiding together with Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration of the blessed Sacrament. The goal is to cultivate a deeper intimacy in our relationship with Christ and to imitate the one we spend time with in Adoration throughout the rest of our day. As long as we spend time with Jesus in Adoration, He will give us graces that will transform our lives, whether we are aware of them in this life or in heaven.

St. Hilary of Poitiers (315 to 367)

Doctor of The Church and Bishop of Poitiers France

"All the powers of the universe bow down in (Eucharistic) Adoration and praise, and with a thousand voices exalt Thine infinite Majesty, which fills both Heaven and earth. Christian people, let us unite our voices with theirs..."

St. Francis De Sales (1567 to 1622)

Doctor Of The Church and Bishop of Geneva Switzerland

"Nowhere do we find our Savior more tender or more loving than here (in adoration) where He, so to speak, annihilates Himself and reduces Himself to food in order to penetrate our souls and to unite Himself to the hearts of His friends."

"By adoring and partaking of His beauty, His Goodness and His purity in this Divine Sacrament, you will become all beautiful, good and pure."

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.
