The Sacrament of The Anointing of the Sick is very important for those that are ill, in need of surgery or close to death. When the call is made to Father or the parish office to request this sacrament please provide the following information: If you or a loved one is in the hospital or nursing facility please provide the patient's full name and room number. If at home please provide the full name and address. Thank you for your assistance.

Touching the Cloak of Christ

Look to today's Gospel and you'll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away, is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn't have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand.

So that's what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We're tired and we're sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn't matter. Whatever it is, it's made us weak, and we feel like we've run out of options. We've looked for help and come up empty. We've consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We're lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us. The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don't even bother asking for that. But that cloak ... we can touch that cloak. That's something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you.

— Tracy Earl Welliver,

Let us welcome, into our Faith Community, Harrison Paxx Weil, child of Robert and Zenie Wei, who was baptized 21st and Kendra Chavez, child of Cayetano and Silvia Chavez, who was baptized on June 26th. Dear God thank you for the gift of eternal and abundant life. May Paxx and Kendra grow into the likeness of your son, Jesus Christ.

On the first weekend of each month a black bag collection is taken up for the Saint Vincent de Paul Society. Anyone in our parish who genuinely needs assistance please contact the parish office via email at parishoffice@saintpats.net. Next

Black Bag collection is the weekend of July 3rd & 4th.

Please place in a separate envelope noted for St. Vincent de Paul.

Thank you for your continued generosity

When he returned to his disciples, he found them asleep. He said to Peter, "So you could not stay awake with me for even an hour?"

Can you give him just one hour a week for adoration?

Please prayerfully consider signing up for one hour a week! He always welcomes you. For more information contact Philip Melton at 903-271-0525 or Kelly Chaffin at youth@saintpats.net

If you or a loved one would like to receive communion while in the hospital, rehab center, nursing home or at home please call the Parish Office at 903-463-3275 to make arrangements.

Reflection

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, "That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself." Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God's embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It's that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, "Do not be afraid, just have faith." Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God's presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God's tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, "think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are." This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together.

"Motorist's" Prayer"

Grant me, O Lord, a steady hand and watchful eye, that no one shall be hurt as I pass by. You gave life, I pray no act of mine may take away or mar that gift of Thine. Shelter those, dear Lord, who bear my company from the evils of fire and all calamity. Teach me to use my car for others need; nor miss through love of undue speed. The beauty of the world; that thus I may with joy and courtesy go on my way. St. Christopher, holy patron of travellers, protect me and lead me safely to my destiny.
