

SUNDAY'S READINGS

August 6, 2023

First Reading:

His clothing was bright as snow,
and the hair on his head as white as wool;
his throne was flames of fire,
with wheels of burning fire. (Dn 7:9)

Psalm:

The Lord is king, the Most High over all the earth. (Ps 97)

Second Reading:

When that unique declaration came to him from the majestic glory,
"This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased."
We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven
while we were with him on the holy mountain. (2 Pt 1:17-18)

Gospel:

And he was transfigured before them;
his face shone like the sun
and his clothes became white as light. (Mt 17:2)

Steubenville West: 2,000 Teens Find Refuge in the Catholic Church

July 25, 2023

By Carissa Krautscheid

Two thousand Catholic teenagers from all across the western United States gathered for three days in Tucson, Arizona, for the Steubenville West Conference. Coming from all across the Diocese of Tucson and Arizona, from New Mexico and Nevada to California and even Hawaii, the teens made a considerable effort to be here.

Attendees at Steubenville West were blessed by a nationally renowned team of Father Mike Schmitz, Mari Pablo, David Calavitta, DJ Bernal, Bob Lesnefsky, and Josh Blakesley. The 2023 conference theme was Refuge, based on Matthew 11:28, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest."

Father Mike Schmitz launched the weekend by inviting teens to assess their expectations. Steubenville West consisted of a series of keynote talks by these phenomenal speakers, Eucharistic Adoration on Friday and Saturday, Mass on Saturday and Sunday, men's and women's sessions, praise and worship music, parish small groups, and fellowship among teens from across the nation.

For many, Eucharistic Adoration on Saturday night is the most impactful moment of the entire conference. Fr. Mike Schmitz processed the Eucharist around the vast room, allowing teens to draw near to the Real Presence of Christ. Maggie from St. Philip the Apostle Parish in Payson attended Steubenville West with her two younger sisters. She shared that this was her favorite part of the weekend, "It was very moving, and you could really feel God's Spirit in the room. My sisters said that was their first time that they really felt it. It was amazing to build a strong community with people from my parish and meeting other people. My faith definitely grew a lot from this."

On the final day of the Conference, Bishop Edward Weisenburger joined the teens for Mass. In his homily, Bishop Weisenburger encouraged them to "see with eyes of faith, understand with the mind of God, have hope, and anticipate God's love even when God seems most far away. We need to be good dirt," he said, referencing the Gospel's Parable of the Seed and the Sower. "We need to be receptive to our God who comes to us most especially through Word and Sacrament. In those moments of reflection, a seed is planted. And remember the importance of community: no one can teach anyone the faith; the faith must be caught, by rubbing shoulders with people who have the faith."

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father,
we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons.
Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call.
May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen
