THIS WEEKEND

Be Safe. Be Kind.

God, source of all freedom,
this day is bright with the memory
of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being.

Help us to continue a good work
begun long ago.

Make our vision clear and our will strong;
that only in human solidarity will we find liberty,
and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth.

Turn our hearts toward the family of nations;
to understand the ways of others,
to offer friendship,
and to find safety only in the common good of all.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

But you shall say to them: Thus says the Lord GOD!
And whether they heed or resist
— for they are a rebellious house —
they shall know that a prophet has been among them.
(Ez 2:4-5)

PSALM:

Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.
(Ps 123)

SECOND READING:

I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses,
in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me.
(2 Cor 12:9)

GOSPEL:

Jesus said to them,
“A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.” (Mk 6:4)

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF JULY 4, 2021

- Sunday: 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time; Independence Day
- Monday: St. Anthony Zaccaria, Priest; St. Elizabeth of Portugal
- Tuesday: St. Maria Goretti, Virgin and Martyr
- Friday: St. Augustine Zhao Rong, Priest, and Companions, Martyrs
- Saturday: BVM
- Next Sunday: 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

REFLECT

FIRST READING

Today's reading is an excerpt from the prophetic call Ezekiel received while in exile in Babylon (Ez 1:1-3:27). The Lord commissioned Ezekiel to go and confront the “rebellious house” of Israel. How do you imagine the Israelites received Ezekiel's message?

SECOND READING

Paul learned that the “thorn in his flesh” taught him to be humble and dependent upon God's grace alone. Where do you see God's grace most present in your life?

GOSPEL READING

Jesus was “amazed” at the lack of faith his fellow Nazareans had in him, suggesting Jesus expected a different response. Why do you think the villagers of Nazareth “took offense” at Jesus?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

In today's Gospel Jesus returns to his home place of Nazareth. This is not a social visit: like other towns in Galilee, Nazareth has to hear the Good News of the kingdom. When Jesus teaches in the local synagogue, many of the townspeople are astonished at the performance. They wonder at the origin of Jesus' teaching and the nature of his wisdom, as well as the miracles that are done through him. From the unanswered questions about Jesus' wisdom, the neighbors move to more familiar territory and focus on what they do know about Jesus. Whatever their wonder, they are not going to allow Jesus' wisdom to interfere with their memories of him.

So, the neighbors support each other in a chorus of distractions. Irrelevant issues are solemnly brought to the center of attention: the job Jesus worked at, his mother, the presence of his sisters. Of course, the neighbors have a vested interest in focusing on who Jesus was rather than the Jesus that confronts them now: it's easier having a carpenter around the shop than a prophet loose in the town. So, once a carpenter, always a carpenter. Memory proves to be a useful fiction: it keeps Jesus at the level where they can handle him safely.

Mark summarizes the reaction of the Nazareth community to their fellow citizen: "And they would not accept him." For them, the sheer ordinariness of Jesus cancels out his new wisdom and works. Nothing kills like frozen familiarity.

How does Jesus react to the locals? He says to them: A prophet is only despised in his own country, among his own relations and in his own house. This is a hard saying. The other evangelists soften it, saying, "No prophet is accepted in his own country." In Mark's version Jesus is rejected by his own relations and by those in his own house. Mark has already told us that Jesus' relatives believe him to be out of his mind (3:21), now the rejection seems to be complete.

Jesus' experience of rejection in Nazareth renders him powerless to do any miracle among his own people. This is an extraordinary statement about the human Jesus: people's lack of trust limits his ministry. Jesus is profoundly affected by the way people react to him. He is not a robot, programmed for flawless performance, indifferent to all responses. Distrust disables him. So, he moves elsewhere, refusing to be enslaved by his failure to reach his own people and he never returns to Nazareth again. By coping with discouragement and failure, Jesus points beyond himself to the power of the Father. The cross of Jesus becomes the most striking symbol of weakness pointing beyond itself, beyond the brokenness of Jesus to the glory of the resurrection. New life emerges out of dereliction. This theme, so constant in the writing of Paul, is applied by the apostle to his own life.

Paul shares a very personal experience. He has come to learn that his own weaknesses are not a problem for God, as if God has no truck with poor achievers. Paul's human limitations, which refuse to go away, not only force him to be more realistic about himself, they also force him to change his image of God. Paul discovers through his own disability that God's grace does work through human frailty: "So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am content with my weaknesses...For it is when I am weak that I am strong."

Being content with our weaknesses is not an attitude that comes easily to most of us, educated to be content with nothing less than perfection. We might still suspect that God is disassociated from those who are beaten down by their own limitations; but, like Paul, we have to learn that God isn't like that. Failure and human weakness give God immense scope to act out God's own purposes.

Nazareth was the beginning of a new road for Jesus. Paul's thorn in the flesh was the occasion for a whole new way of looking at God and at himself. We know from experience that when we admit our failures and limitations, that exercise in honesty can mark the beginning of a new understanding. If our Lord and God can take failure in his stride, we might even end up boasting about God's fantastic style!

2021 Peanut Butter Party Spread the Love

We'll be collecting the whole month of

JULY

Help ICS stock our food banks this summer!

ICS is hoping to collect 10,000 jars of peanut butter. That would be almost 5 months' supply of peanut butter! They are having a fun competition to see which of their Faith Communities can bring in the most peanut butter per capita. Help us #SpreadTheLove this July by keeping our neighbors fed!

The Parish Office will be collecting peanut butter jars
Monday through Thursday from 9am - 1 pm.

Have you met Pan?

STOP YOUR TAXES FROM PAYING FOR ABORTION

Congress is trying to force Americans to pay for abortion. For decades, Congress has protected your money from paying for abortion. Now, some are trying to change that.

HOW

The Hyde Amendment and similar laws have protected taxpayers from funding elective abortion for 45 years. Now, members of Congress want to take away these laws that both Democrats and Republicans have supported for nearly half a century.

WHAT HAPPENS WITHOUT THESE PROTECTIONS?

Billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortion.

TAKE ACTION

LIVE THE LITURGY

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

God never ceases to proclaim His Word. His life-giving presence continues to sustain all things and keep them in being regardless of whether there is the faith to receive or perceive Him. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be so hard of heart and obstinate that we fail to see what God is trying to do. While God remains ever present, faith is necessary for God's power to bear fruit. As we celebrate our country's independence, let us not forget the difference between liberties and freedom. While the liberties we have are most welcome treasures, only freedom from what blinds, deceives, and weighs us down can bring happiness. God is all about healing, transformation, and hope. In order for God to do what God does best, we have to invite Him in and see Him for who he is. Otherwise, God's will for humanity will be something at which we simply take offense, a common reaction when something challenges or unsettles us.

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ETERNAL REST

*In your hands, O Lord,
we humbly entrust
our brothers and sisters.
In this life you embraced them
with your tender love;
deliver them now
from every evil
and bid them eternal rest.
The old order
has passed away:
welcome them into paradise,
where there will be no sorrow,
no weeping or pain,
but fullness of peace and joy
with your Son
and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.*

WE HAVE A NEED FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION TEACHERS

Here are the top reasons to consider becoming a catechist.

1. You will grow in your own faith, learn the teachings of the Church, and deepen your relationship with Jesus.
2. Your Baptism calls you to share in Jesus' ministry.
3. Children, teens, and adults in today's world, more than ever, need to hear the Good News of Jesus.
4. Children, teens, and adults in today's world, more than ever, need to encounter good role models of faith.
5. You have much to share with those you'll teach, and you'll have opportunities to share faith with other catechists.
6. Today's catechetical textbooks/resources offer outstanding support.
7. You'll be challenged, you'll have fun, and you'll make new friends.
8. You'll be helping people deepen their relationship with Jesus. (You'll be evangelizing!)
9. You'll be handing on a 2000-year-old Tradition that changes lives.

It's our job: Jesus sent us to "go and teach all nations."

information on how to get started.

Grieving
the death of a loved one?

Grief Share Group has begun.

Grief Share is a monthly video seminar featuring some of the nation's foremost experts on grief recovery topics. Each seminar is combined with a small group discussion time to allow group participants to talk about the content of the seminar and about how they are dealing with the death of their loved one. Call the office for the next meeting date.

Puzzle

Circle the picture that is different.
Then color in all the pictures.

People in his hometown did not believe that Jesus could be smart enough to teach in their temples. They did not believe he could heal. So he went to other towns to teach and heal. If someone says that you are not smart enough or skilled enough, Jesus understands. He will help you. Tell them, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

PRAYER

Lord, help me say to myself and others, "You can do it. God will help."

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

If someone is left out of a game, say, "I will play with you."
