

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." - Jn 18:37

THE INTERVIEW

HOMILY BY FR. RUDY OFORI

In today's Gospel Jesus is interrogated by the Roman governor, Pontius Pilate, the man directly responsible to the emperor for keeping Roman rule in Judea. For the occupying power, Jewish festivals were regarded as potential emergencies: at the time of Passover, therefore, Pilate came with his garrison to Jerusalem, where he kept his security forces on alert in case of a riot or national uprising. Jesus has been handed over to Pilate by the Jewish authorities. It is Passover time. Pilate offers to hand Jesus back, arguing that Jewish law can dispose of the case. The authorities refuse, so Pilate questions Jesus about the charge made against him: "Are you the King of the Jews?"

Jesus replies to Pilate with his own question: "Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?" You wonder who is interviewing whom. If the governor is interrogating his prisoner, the prisoner has his own agenda for interviewing the governor. Jesus calls Pilate to face the truth of the question he has asked, but Pilate is beyond troubling about the consequences of his own questions. Instead, he defends himself by saying that he is not a Jew and that Jesus' own people have handed him over. However, Pilate is curious about what Jesus has done to engender such fierce hostility.

Jesus refuses to satisfy Pilate's curiosity but points out that his kingship is not in the realm of political struggle; his claim to be king, therefore, can hardly affect national security. Jesus' kingship is in the realm of witnessing to the truth; something that the Roman procurator is having great trouble doing. Pilate has already found Jesus innocent; if he acts on that truth then he will free Jesus. Pilate may be sincere in his concern for Jesus' safety, but he is not serious about the truth he has discovered. Jesus is innocent. That truth is not a force that is going to influence Pilate's real behavior. He fails the interview, therefore, because he cannot meet the basic condition of witnessing to the truth.

As the passion gets under way, Jesus has to witness to his own truth. He remains stubborn in his trust of the Father, in spite of the catcalls of his accusers and the silence of his absent friends. He may wonder where all the witnesses to truth have gone and why they are so few in number when the authorities come out in force. He may wonder why you end up being pushed around so much for the sake of the kingdom. He may have his own questions about the worth of it all. He may doubt if the pain will ever go away.

To crown it all, Pilate ensures that Jesus has his title above his cross: "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews." Is that comic relief? Is that protest? Is that the nearest Pilate will ever get to witnessing to the truth? Who knows?

What we do know is that Jesus' unflinching witness to the truth marks his true kingship. As his subjects, we will be judged on how we have witnessed to his truth, his love, his way. For a place in his kingdom, we will be questioned on our own attitudes and behavior. We don't have to wait for the last judgement to find out the questions we will be asked. When it comes to places in his kingdom, the interviews are already taking place. Here and now. When our time comes for judgement, we shouldn't be surprised by the familiar faces.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
Long Live the King

Did you know that you can become royalty, for the right price? It's true — for the low, low cost of $50, you, too, can purchase a 12-square-inch souvenir plot of Scottish land and call yourself "Laird So-and-so." Now, this lordship or ladyship doesn't come with the ability to boss anyone around, but maybe your friends will be impressed enough to bend the knee.

My point is, we've all got our own little fiefdoms — folks or communities for which we have a feeling of responsibility. Maybe we're not their "king," but most of us have those we think of as "our people."

Now, in this world, people lay themselves down for their kings. History is riddled with the bodies of men, young and old — and plenty of women and children, too — who were casualties of wars waged by men in power, men who never had to shed their own blood. But in the next world, the King dies for his people. This is leadership par excellence — the leadership of someone whose love is greater than his ambition.

We are all leaders of a sort. On the parish level, you have the obvious roles — serving on pastoral council, spearheading the capital campaign, leading the Altar Guild. But you also have the quiet ones who lead from the wings — the janitor who can always be relied upon to do his job, or the volunteer librarian who puts in extra hours on the weekends.

There is a saying — find your people. I say, find your people, and find a way to lay yourself down for them, in imitation of the greatest King that ever was.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

REFLECTION & RESPOND

First Reading

The prophet Daniel has a vision of the "everlasting dominion" of the "son of man." Why do think the Lord revealed this vision to Daniel?

Second Reading

John teaches his community that Jesus "has made us (believers) into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father." How should knowledge of this reality affect your spiritual journey?

Gospel

In his trial Jesus tells Pilate that his kingdom is not of this world. What do you think prevents the Kingdom of God from being more fully present in our world?

LITURGICAL Living

“Jesus is Lord” should always be on our hearts and minds this Sunday.

- Activity: Do you recall the paper crowns you could get from Burger King, and the simple joy it would bring to the children to run around with a crown? Take time today to make a paper crown fit for the King of Kings, Jesus! Gather all your art supplies, and let the children create. Encourage them to write characteristics of our Loving Lord (ex. mighty, humble, loving, merciful, etc.) and the several titles He holds (ex. King of Kings, Lord of Hosts, Hosanna, etc.).
 - Collect your crowns on your home altar or prayer corner.
 - Spend time reading about “Doubting Thomas” in John 20:19-29.
- Christ the King Sunday is the last Sunday of our Church Liturgical Calendar. How will you spend this last week before Advent?
- Our Catechism tells us, “The Christian family is the first place for education in prayer” (CCC. No. 2694).
 - Do you have any “new year resolutions” for this upcoming liturgical year?
 - How will you (continue to) build your domestic church at home?

Reflect on ways you can live our your faith, expressing and modeling it for your children and those around you.

Want a quick and fun way to surprise your kids?

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH
St. Francesco Antonio Fasani | Feast Day November 27

St. Francesco Antonio Fasani (1681 – 1742) lived his whole life as a loving, devout, and atoning man. He entered the Conventual Franciscans in 1695, and 10 years later taught philosophy to younger friars, served as guardian of his friary, and eventually became provincial minister. When his term of office ended, St. Francesco became master of novices and finally pastor in his hometown of Lucera.

Known throughout his various ministries as being loving, devout, and penitential, he was also a well-known confessor and preacher. St. Francesco was a loyal friend of the poor and worked tirelessly to find ways to support them. He was a mystic with such a profound prayer life and supernatural gifts that he was known to levitate during prayer. He was canonized in 1986 by Pope John Paul II.

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION

November 2021

People who suffer from depression

We pray that people who suffer from depression or burn-out will find support and a light that opens them up to life. Every saint is different, and every saint's struggle is different. St. Jane Frances de Chantal reminds us that mental health is something to be taken very seriously, even among people whom we would consider to be high-functioning, even among people whose holiness is evident to all. St. Jane reminds us, with her characteristic gentleness,
