San Francisco de Asis is an 18th century adobe National Historic Landmark. It is an active church which includes the outlying "Capillas" of Nuestra Senora del Carmen in Llano Quemado, San Isidro in Los Cordovas, and Nuestra Senora de San Juan de Los Lagos in Talpa. Constructed of mud and straw sun-dried adobe bricks, this church still stands as one of the few original buildings in Taos. San Francisco de Asis is a living testament to the strong faith and sincere devotion of Hispanic Catholic generations who have managed to carry their religious traditions forward to present day. This earthen temple of God has twin bell towers, an arched portal entrance, hand-hewn "vigas" (ceiling beams) hand-carved corbels, and a choir loft. Eight imported oil paintings are set within the a hand-carved / hand-painted reredo (Altar Screen). We urge all visitors to view the incredible "Mystery Painting." A representative from the Gift Shop will escort you to it. If you wish to leave a donation, thank you. Please remember that all donations go to preserve our historic church. Visiting hours: 9:00 am - 4:00 pm, 7 days a week. Call the Parish Office to register large viewing groups and church tours: 575-758-2754.

We are born to love, we live to love,
and we will die to love still more.
- Saint Joseph -

Attention Homebound Eucharistic Ministers: Mayordomos will no longer take your pyx and put hosts in them prior to mass. When you go up to receive communion and before receiving the Lord you will present your pyx and let Father know how many hosts you need and then you will receive the Lord.

The Catholic Daughters invite you to join them in celebrating the gift of life at a special Mass on Saturday, January 29th at 9:00am. We will be praying for all families affected by death to abortion, miscarriage, stillborn, euthanasia, as well as for all individuals who were unable to have a Funeral Mass for whatever reason. We will have a notebook listed in the back of the church asking that you include the first name of the person you are seeking prayers for in this special Mass. The list of names will then be presented as a general intention during the Mass.

Sunday envelopes are available for pick-up. You can pick-up your 2022 envelopes at the office Monday-Thursday 8:00am to 4:00pm and Fridays from 8:00am to noon.

Attention Parishioners who need 2021 tax statements
Please call the Parish Office to request a copy of your 2021 tax statement for this past year.

Attention Parishioners: A New Year has begun and we start with a fresh list of people to pray for. Therefore, if you would like to place a family member or a friend on the parish prayer list please write their names down and bring them to the Parish office or mail them in and we will list them until the end of the year.

We are in need of two more counters: Our Parish is in need of two more Sunday Contribution Counters. If this is a ministry that you would like to participate in contact Margaret at the Parish Office. Counting is another valuable means of fulfilling our Stewardship way of life in the parish.

Due to the rise in COVID cases if you are feeling sick for any reason please remain home. Remember we are still dispensed from Sunday mass. You can live stream the mass online or through Facebook.

*Lord, help me
Be prepared, but not anxious.
Be aware, but not desperate.
Be Vigilant, but not clueless.
Be faithful, but not careless,
Lord, be my hope and strength.*

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

GROW: Do you ever find yourself feeling like you are at the cusp of something remarkable? Like you are witnessing an incredible, historic, athletic, or aeronautical feat? I wonder if that's what it was like for the followers of Jesus when he began his public ministry: "News of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all." In today's Gospel, Jesus reads the words of the prophet Isaiah that are effectively a "job description" of his mission: glad tidings to the poor, liberty of captives, sight to the blind, freedom for the oppressed. What Isaiah prophesied, Jesus claims to fulfill. He thus inaugurates his public ministry with a claim that is straightforward, bold, true, and of great consequence. Today, by virtue of our baptism, we are part of the body of Christ and share in that mission. Whatever our backgrounds, abilities, or talents, we each have something to contribute to building up one another and the Church. And with the help of the Holy Spirit, we, too, can be bold in our own proclamation of Jesus Christ as Lord.

GO EVANGELIZE | PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

GO: We've heard the phrase "Don't sell yourself short." Social media aside, many of us tend to focus on our shortcomings: We may wish we could run faster, be better at our jobs, have a cleaner home, in general, "get it together!" Truth is, we're all works in progress. That's what I love about Paul's Letter to the Corinthians. He reminds us that each one of us – whatever our strengths or weaknesses – is part of the body of Christ. God loves us with our imperfections, not in spite of them. As such, each of us has indispensable value and much to contribute to the mission of the Church. As we move into the week ahead, today's readings invite us to place ourselves at the service of the Church and one another. Beyond that, we can invite others to join us by recognizing that God values the talents – and foibles – that each of us brings to his service.

PRAY: Yesterday on the liturgical calendar was the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. As members of the body of Christ, let us join our voices with the universal Church and pray a Pro-Life Rosary each night this week. The USCCB Prayers and Devotions page is a good resource.
