VERITATEM FACIENTES IN CARITATE - LIVING THE TRUTH IN CHARITY

From The Liturgical Year,
1st Sunday of Lent
by Dom Gueranger, O.S.B.

But, let us observe how it is, that our Divine Model, our Redeemer, overcomes the tempter. Does he hearken to his words? Does he allow the temptation time? and give it strength by delay? We did so, when we were tempted, and we fell. But our Lord immediately meets each temptation with the shield of God's word. He says: It is written: Not on bread alone doth man live. – It is written: Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. – It is written: The Lord thy God shalt thou adore, and Him only shalt thou serve. – This, then, must be our practice for the time to come.

Eve brought perdition on herself, and on the whole human race, because she listened to the serpent. He that dallies with temptation, is sure to fall. We are now in a Season of extraordinary grace; our hearts are on the watch, dangerous occasions are removed, everything that savours of worldliness is laid aside; our souls, purified by prayer, fasting, and almsdeeds, are to rise with Christ, to a new life; but, shall we persevere? All depends upon how we behave under temptation. Here, at the very opening of Lent, the Church gives us this passage of the Holy Gospel, that we may have, not only precept, but example. If we be attentive and faithful, the lesson she gives us will produce its fruit; and when we come to the Easter Solemnity, we shall have those sure pledges of perseverance: vigilance, self-diffidence, prayer, and the never-failing help of Divine Grace.

From Canon Matthew Talarico, Provincial Superior:

Do you value what the Institute of Christ the King is doing in the Church today? This Lent, consider making a sacrifice of $80, just two dollars a day during these 40 days to help the Institute continue our work for the salvation of souls. Please pick up an envelope marked "Many Apostolates, One Mission" from the ushers at the entrance of the church. On Sunday, March 6, there will be a special second collection for this appeal to help the Institute grow in the USA. This Lent, you make a difference in the Church today by donating to the people and the places that work to restore Catholic life and culture in America. Thank you for your generous support! May Christ our King reward you eternally.

Thought from St. Francis de Sales:

Do not get upset about the dryness and coldness you are suffering; be consoled in the depths of your heart, remembering the words of our Lord, "How blest are the poor in spirit...Blest are they who hunger and thirst for holiness..." [Mt. 5:3-6] How happy you should be to serve God in the desert, without manna and without water, consoled only by the fact that He is guiding you and you are suffering for Him.

(Letters 1986; O. XXI, p. 25)

From the Rector's Desk:

Dear Faithful,

Welcome to the beautiful season of Lent! I want to briefly share with you some tips from the wisdom of our spiritual master St. Francis de Sales on how to have a great Lent with spiritual fruit that lasts beyond 40 days.

1) Begin with a thorough examination on your predominant fault that comes from one or more of the seven deadly sins. Then do virtuous acts every day to counter that vice, and make a daily examination on this point.

2) Frequent prayer and frequent reception of the Sacraments. This is the heart of Lent!

3) Spiritual almsgiving (forgiving of injuries) and material almsgiving from the generosity of charity.

4) Fasting and mortification - private, humble, discreet. Neither doing them to excess hurting ourselves nor being satisfied with the bare minimum. Traditionally every day of Lent was a day of fasting and abstinence (not just Ash Wednesday and Good Friday). This week we have the three Ember Days that we should at a minimum observe as days of fasting and abstinence.

5) Good works - In striving for the "devout life", if we want to grow in charity, we have to make acts of charity, e.g., Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy.

6) Keeping a spirit of joy, patience and perseverance. Keep your eyes on "Christ Crucified", our hope, our refuge, and our eternal reward!

Have a blessed Lent and be assured of my priestly prayers for you all!

- Canon Jonathon Fehrenbacher
