REFLECTION & MEDITATION

The Epiphany of the Lord

When I was doing my canonical studies in Rome, I used to substitute for the Pastor of one of the parishes in Ravenna, in the Emilia-Romagna Region of northeastern Italy. Among many other things, Ravenna is known for its exceptional collection of Byzantine mosaics. These mosaics can be seen mainly in 1500-year-old churches and baptisteries, some of which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites. In the Basilica of Sant'Apollinare Nuovo is depicted a sixth century mosaic of the Three Magi in stunning exotic colors and intricate costumes (see the picture above). They are portrayed in Persian clothing and are named Balthassar, Melchior, Casper, though their number or names are not mentioned in the Gospel. The journey of the Magi as Pilgrims of Hope to pay homage to the newborn King resembles the visit of Queen Sheba to admire the wisdom of king Solomon narrated in 1 Kings 10 and 2 Chronicles 9.

The manifestation (Epiphany) of Jesus to the wisemen from the east is a sign of the universality of his mission. The Evangelist Matthew reiterates this at the end of his Gospel where Jesus commissions his disciples to “go and make disciples of all nations” (Mt 28: 19). This Sunday’s First Reading and the Responsorial Psalm express the same theme: “Lord, every nation on earth will adore you” (cf. Ps 72:11).

However, Matthew places the Magi in contrast to the chief priests and the scribes of the people and King Herod. Instead of rejoicing and paying homage to their newborn King, they are greatly troubled. Later in the Gospel, we see Jesus laments over the disbelief and rejection of his own people whereas the gentiles readily accept his Lordship: “the queen of the south... came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and there is something greater than Solomon here” (Mt 12:42).

The Solemnity of Epiphany challenges us today to revisit our allegiance to Jesus and to rededicate ourselves to him and his will.

Blessings to all of you!

Fr. Jilson Panakkal.

Join us on Monday, January 27th for fun, activities, and faith! All kids are welcome to join us at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ADORATION

JANUARY 12TH after 10 AM Mass

Adoration is a special quiet time when we learn to pray and speak to Jesus from our heart. The children preparing for First Eucharist and Confirmation have learned that the Consecrated Host displayed in the Monstrance is really Jesus.

This Adoration is open to the ENTIRE PARISH!

What a great opportunity to attend as a wonderful example for our children showing them the importance of the Blessed Sacrament in our lives!

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD (CLOW)

Kids please join us every Sunday at the 10:00 a.m. Mass!

Children will be sent forth with our Catechists during the Mass for about 20 minutes.

Children hear, discuss and pray the Sunday readings. Also, they will have fun coloring or making a craft to take home.

THE GOSPEL OF LUKE WITH FR. JILSON

Join us on Tuesday, January 7th, for an enriching journey through the Gospel of St. Luke, guided by the Ascension Study Series. Led by Fr. Jilson, this Bible study will be held on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of every month at 6:30 pm.

All are welcome—so bring a dish to share, your Bible, and an open heart. Let us grow in faith and fellowship as a community!

The food bags for the month of December was 189 for a total of $1,890.

Thank you,
Matthew Community

Little Rock Scripture Study

Join us on Tuesdays at 9:00 am starting on January 14th!

We will be focusing on Part Two of the Acts of the Apostles which will give us insights into the early disciples and the beginnings of the Church. Written by Luke in the 50th century, and based on stories, other correspondence, Spirit-filled reflections, and teachings and preaching, we will learn of the disciples exciting journeys, their interactions with the fledgling communities, and their teaching in different communities inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Each weekly session begins with a continental breakfast and coffee. We start with a prayer and then watch a short video on the chapter read the prior week. The answers to the questions in the study guide are shared with added discussion of questions. We end with sharing petitions and praying the Lord's prayer.

Come by the Parish Office and pick up your study book today! The book is $14.00 and the group is lead by Kathy Anderson.
